

Beyschlag, whose funeral was held Tuesday from his late home on North Tenth street.

THE COURIER'S Plattsmouth correspondent sends the following:

Rev J. T. Baird went to Bellevue this morning to visit friends.

Miss Minnie Christie departed Saturday for her new home at Syracuse.

Mrs. A. W. White and daughters, Mrs. John Donelan and Miss Minnie, were passengers on No. 5 for Omaha.

E. F. Crampton, of Republican City, is in the city.

L. D. Bennett returned yesterday from Cromwell, Ia., where he was called a few days ago by the death of his mother.

Miss Tillie Lehnoff went down to Nebraska City today to visit Miss Allie Maher.

Miss Beardley of Lincoln is the guest of Miss Pettee.

A. L. Royce of Omaha is in town.

Miss Amelia Wurl has returned to Omaha.

Mrs. Herman Smith and family departed today for their future home in Kansas City.

Paul Gering is confined to his home by sickness.

Miss Eupheme Robbins is reported dangerously ill.

J. M. Stone, of Nehawka, is in the city.

Wm. R. Cross and Miss Emma Franz have been licensed to wed.

W. C. Showalter, of David City, ex-clerk of the court of Cass county, is in town visiting his many friends.

Prof. F. W. Card is the father of a young son.

Mrs. A. B. Clark entertained one of the card clubs Friday evening.

The young people of the Presbyterian church gave a Hollow'een social in the church parlors.

The races have been popular with society people this week. In fact the races have been about the only diversion.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Trimble celebrated their fiftieth anniversary Tuesday evening by giving them a surprise party.

W. F. Kelly had a box party at the races Monday consisting of Mrs. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lambertson, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall.

The best Hollow'een joke was perpetrated on the Presbyterian church. Some of the boys decorated the sedate exterior with the gayest and giddiest of the "Black Crook" posters, and when the morning sun rose upon it, it was airily frescoed with spangled sirens with extended arms and meaning glances. Someway it was outrageously funny.

Prof. Geo. C. Williams gave a Hollow'een party at his rooms in the Y. M. C. A. building Thursday evening. About forty jolly young people were present, and as on that particular night restraint is not to be looked for, they laughed and made merry. All the old Hollow'een tricks and games were indulged in. Among other things was a Hollow'een cake which contained a key denoting wisdom, silver denoting wealth, a thimble, prophesying spinsterhood and a button, bachelorhood. The cake was cut and the slices of fate were dealt out to the guests.

Hallow'een, John B. Wright was called to the police station to bail out a party of young people whose names frequently appear in THE COURIER as "those present" at swell parties. Of course Mr. Wright insist's that he knew it was a joke all the time; but the gay celebrants aver that he was completely fooled, that he thought they were really "run in." This merry company celebrated Hallow'een in good old fashioned style, making things interesting wherever they pleased to go. They met the editor of THE COURIER as he was on his way home from the "Black Crook,"—where he had just dropped in to see the jugglers—and, to their shame be it said, they showed no respect whatever for editorial dignity. Their pranks would fill a column.

The Courier's correspondent in Omaha sends the following:

Quite a number of young people were invited out to Mr. and Mrs. Patrick's Hallow'een. Games and dancing were indulged in and every one had a good time as is always the case at Happy Hollow.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Offutt gave a child's party, when all the babies in the neighborhood were invited in with their mothers as chaperones.

Miss Dickenson will give a large ball at the Millard hotel the evening of the 21st, preceded by a dinner given to all of the debutants of this season.

For Mrs. Dean Lyman, Mrs. Charles Lyman gave a Kensington on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lyman will leave for their home in New Haven next week.

Mrs. Metcalf gave a large reception on Tuesday afternoon from three till six.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Barton entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lyman Thursday evening.

Lieut. H. McL. Powell returned to Fort Omaha this week after a nine months' detail at Willets Point, New York harbor.

Last Saturday evening at Hillside was held the first meeting of the Saturday night card club. This club differs from the Thursday afternoon one in that the men are members as well as their wives.

The dinner dances have been once more started and promise to take the place of the "dancing class" of last year. On Friday evening Mrs. Offutt, Mrs. Hull, Mrs. Warren Rogers, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Will Poppleton, Mrs. Smith, all gave dinners, followed by a dance at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Learned.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh returned home this week.

Miss McCormick, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Gallagher, returned to her home in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. Howard Smith entertained the ladies' six handed euchre club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Schwan gave a very delightful luncheon on Tuesday for her sister, Mrs. Slaymaker of St. Paul.

Miss Himebaugh is in Des Moines. Before returning home she will visit Chicago and the east.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lyman Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Baker gave a delightful dinner Monday evening.

Mrs. E. E. Balch gave a Kensington Monday afternoon for her guest, Mrs. Baker of South Bend Ind.,

Miss Hill of Boston, Mrs. Arthur Smith's sister, arrived in Omaha this week and will remain for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith of St. Joe arrived in Omaha last Saturday and were guests at Hillside. Mr. Smith returned home Monday, but Mrs. Smith spent the week with her mother.

Dr. and Mrs. Summers gave a large reception Thursday evening to the profession.

Mr. and Mrs. Offutt returned home from Chicago Sunday.

Miss Curtiss and Miss Dickens, spent the past week in Chicago shopping.

Nearly all of the gayety this winter will be in the nature of small informal dances. Besides the Cinderella dances, there is now on foot a movement to form a club to give four dances during the season at Morand's hall, the club to consist mostly of the younger married couples and a few of the older society men.

The marriage of Miss Floy Rodman, daughter of Capt. Rodman, to Lieut. George C. Barnhardt, will take place at the chapel on Governor's Island about the middle of December, to be followed by a reception at the residence of Capt. and Mrs. James Cooper Ayres.

CLOTHING TALK

We want the trade of Lincoln in ready-to-wear clothing. We ask for it because we think we deserve it. We expect to give you just a little bit better value than your money will get any place else in America. That's the basis on which we ask for trade. Needn't take our words for it. Look around—compare—examine. The more folks know about clothing, the more certain we are of their custom. Will be glad to see you any time. Drop in and get acquainted, whether you think of buying or not. We want you to know all about the store and all that's in it. The buying will come around all right. That part of it we leave to our judgment.
