

BY THE WAY

Of the many entertaining things which have recently appeared in the Lincoln press I think the most diverting is the letter of explanation signed by Lillian Lewis. It seems that somebody accused Miss Lewis of undue intimacy with her leading man, Edmund Collier, one paper going so far as to say that these two persons were found in a room together. Miss Lewis feels that her reputation in Lincoln may have suffered, so she sends a letter of explanation or denial to the papers. Miss Lewis' explanation is interesting because it admits, practically, what was charged. She also furnishes the information that her husband, Mr. Marston has a bad temper. She neglected to state what gave him the bad temper. This should have been explained. There may or may not have been a call for the particular explanation Miss Lewis vouchsafed, but there is one point on which the people of this city would like to be enlightened. They would like it explained to them why Miss Lewis tries to act. Her relations with her husband and Edmund Collier are, after all, a private matter; but her efforts to act are a public affliction, and it would be interesting to know why a woman who might be a success in some line—I am not able to state just what—should continue in the costly endeavor to act.

Viaducts are all right when somebody else pays for them. So far as the city is concerned they are too rich for its blood.

In spite of the adverse weather of Wednesday and the comparatively light attendance throughout the week, the Lincoln races made a good beginning. Considering that these were the first good races run in Lincoln for years, things went better than was anticipated. Racing interest has to be wakened in a town, and its name must be known and advertised among the patrons of the track before the real returns of this new racing venture will begin to come in. If ever a town needed local excitement of some sort this one does, if for nothing else to help the tongue of gossip quiet. Nothing brings the general exhilaration to a community that good racing does, and we will have good racing. The fact that "W. W. P." broke the world's record in a two mile pace demonstrates that we have one of the best tracks in the country. And we will have honest racing. The management has lived up to the letter of their promises. Everything has been conducted with promptness, exactness and strictly on the square. There was no snide about it anywhere. Under such efficient direction the races will become one of Lincoln's "long suits" in the future.

$100 DOLLARS REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.
