

WE AND OUR NEIGHBORS

After all Eleonora Duse is not coming to Chicago. The guarantee of...

Mrs. Harrison is the gentle, cynical, blasphemous, and...

"The Wise Woman" by Clara Louise Burnham, is a study of...

in the book, to say a number of very sensible things which no one wants to hear. The dialogue is heavy, too much repetition of names...

The Duchess of Marlborough will meet with an occasional icy glance from the mothers who had hopes of Blenheim for their own daughters.

The flooding of "Burke" and the "Almanach de Gotha" with American names has been watched by the women of the English, French, Italian, German, Austrian and Russian upper classes...

And this year is to see more beautiful Americans in possession of the London season than ever before. The American wives of English noblemen will practically control the movements of London society...

A BIG HIT

It is seldom made how many in the book...
