The brass buttoned and blue uniformed "sojah" boys, who have been wandering about the streets in groups, have caused a fluttering in the hearts of many a fair maid who chanced to meet them. The cars on the Tenth street lines are black—and blue—with the crowds coming in or going out to Lincoln park. There the national colors float over a novel scene. The headquarters, the hospital, the guard house, the individual and the mess tents are all pitched in rows which form the streets. Cavalrymen on spirited horses dash through the crowds of bandmen, artillery and infantry in a daring sort of way, which strikes terror to the hearts of some of the visitors. But in most cases the civilians stand around in open eyed wonder, gazing in curiosity and admiration at the column after column of well disciplined companies going through the different maneuvers, or listen in silence to the bugle calls echoed through the woods from one trumpeter to another, especially if it be the "soupie, soupie" strains of the supper call, which floats toward them: Soupie, soupie, soup.

on account of sickness, Miss Phoebe Elliott presided in a very graceful manner. Mrs. Hudson Imhoff delivered a most excellent address on Hawthorne to an appreciative audience. It was a sketch of his life, with some extremely good conclusions drawn from it in regard to the Scarlet Letter. Mrs. D. A. Campbell sang so sweetly "The Day Is Done," by Longfellow. Mrs. A. A. Scott gave a report of the proceedings of the department meeting of the Louisville biennial convention in a remarkably interesting way. Without a single bean; Porkie, porkie, pork, without a streak of lean!

Milkie, milkie, milk, Without a bit of cream, Come all ye little soldier boys to supper.

The skirmish drills, dress parades, with the regular routine duties of soldiers in camp life, are not so exacting but that the boys find plenty of time to revel a little between acts. The young ladies from the city resemble agents from an original package establishment as they appear in camp with "goodies" for the dear, half-starved campers.

To the right of the main entrance Troop A of the cavalry from Milford is stationed. The officers of the troop are Captain, J. H. Culver; first lieutenant, W. J. Vosburg; second lieutenant, A. S. Kinney; first sergeant, E. E. Culver. The troop has had eight years of service and has travelled over 800 miles. RIPANS TABULES.

Disease commonly comes on with slight symptoms, which when neglected increase in extent and gradually grow dangerous.

If you suffer from headache, dyspepsia, or indigestion..... TAKE RIPANS TABULES

If you are bilious, constipated or have a disordered liver..... TAKE RIPANS TABULES

If your complexion is sallow or you suffer distress in eating..... TAKE RIPANS TABULES

For offensive breath and all disorders of the stomach..... TAKE RIPANS TABULES

Ripans Tabules act gently but promptly upon the liver, stomach and intestines; cleanse the system effectually; cure dyspepsia, and habitual constipation, offensive breath and headache. One Tabule at the first indication of indigestion, biliousness, dizziness, distress after eating or depression of spirits, will surely and quickly remove the whole difficulty.

Ripans Tabules are prepared from a prescription widely approved by modern science.

If given a fair trial Ripans Tabules are an infallible cure; they contain nothing injurious and are an economical remedy.
