

motions. She explained their natures and order of precedence, naming the different kinds. The call for the "previous question" being hardest for the ladies to understand, she illustrated, giving a motion with several amended amendments, making the matter very plain. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Field for her very kind consent to give this afternoon to Sorosis. The club will meet with Mrs. H. H. Wheeler, 1527 N street. November 17. Mrs. W. E. Burlingim will lead with "The Chicago Drainage Canal" for her subject.

The Lincoln Coal Co., 1206 O street. The second floor of the Harris block, 1134 N street, has been fitted up for a dancing hall. The floor has received the attention of experts. It is of hard wood, and the boards are laid parallel with the length of the hall. Parties desiring to rent it can do so at the Courier office, in the same block.

Nothing but the highest praise can be attributed to the ladies of the Flower Mission for the success of their benefit ball last evening in the representative hall of the state capitol. There were nearly a hundred couples on the dancing floor and two hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen looking on from the balcony. Representative hall lends itself admirably to the skilled hands of decorators.

In the north lobby red was the prevailing color in the lamp shades and flowers. Card tables were placed there for those not caring to dance. The south lobby was arranged as a pretty tete-a-tete room with screens, lamps and other pieces of furniture. Flags were used to great advantage over the arches and around the pillars in the dancing hall. The orchestra was stationed on the speakers platform behind a bank of palms and flags. Lieutenant R. N. Townley gave the ladies valuable assistance in the decorations.

The dancing commenced about nine o'clock and lasted until a late hour. The march was led by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Marshall. The mistress of ceremony, M. Olive Latta; floor committee consisted of Misses Maud Oakley, Grace Oakley, Henrietta Hollowbush and Alice Slaughter.

Refreshments were served in the halls of the second floor.

The dainty hand painted programs made a desirable souvenir of this party, which will long be remembered for its completeness and success. In spite of the troubled state of politics.

The ladies of the Flower Mission are Mrs. L. W. Marshall, Mrs. Ode Rector, Robinson, C. L. Burr, W. F. Kelly. The Misses Maud Oakley, Grace Oakley, Hollowbush, Farwell, Slaughter, Latta, Bertie Clark, Griffith, Marshall, Mae Moore, Fannie Rector, Burnham, Brooks Hooper, Helen Hoover, Nance.

Sutton & Hollowbush have invented a cough drop. They call it the S. & H. Sutton & Hollowbush, and it is a good one. Stop and get one on your way to the theatre. It will save you a spasm of coughing.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Humphrey were shocked to hear of the death by drowning of their only son Norris, jr. He was the clerk on one of the Puget Sound steamers. The accident occurred on Monday and the young man's body was not recovered for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey have the sympathetic regard and pity of all in their trouble.
