

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Try Lincoln Coal Co.'s "Beaut's" 12160 Thanksgiving evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff was the scene of a most brilliant affair given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robinson and Mr. Rappelle of Chicago. Artistic bouquets of roses and chrysanthemums were conspicuous everywhere. There were no definite plans for amusement, only card tables for those who wished to play, and dance. Delicious refreshments were served on little tables late in the evening in the dining room. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Beeson, Green, Oliver Rodgers, Leonard, Coffroth, Hargreaves-Ladd, Townley, Lippincott, Brown, W. C. Wilson, R. H. Oakley, Marshall, C. L. Burr, Capt. and Mrs. Guilfoyle, J. T. Dorgan, Wright, C. T. Brown, Omaha; Chas. Robinson, Chicago, Mrs. Wade, Omaha, Maud Oakley and Mr. Fred Rappell.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff gave a pleasant Kensington at her handsome home at G and Seventeenth streets. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and chrysanthemums. In the dining room red was the prevailing color. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Wade of Omaha. The invited guests were: Mesdames Marshall, Ladd, Beeson, Brown, Wade, Lippincott, Townley, Leonard, Brown, Denver; W. B. Wilson, W. C. Wilson, R. H. Oakley, Yates, Wright, Robinson, Chicago; Tilton, Ed. Ewing, White, Lambertson, Campbell.

Will E. Clark ate Thanksgiving dinner at Omaha. He witnessed the Nebraska-Iowa game.

Mr. F. D. Cornell, of the Missouri Pacific railway refereed the Kansas-Missouri game at Kansas City Thanksgiving day.

"The Courier is very sorry to hear of the illness of Governor Dawes of Crete and twice as happy to hear of his rapid convalescence.

Business men and ladies shopping should take their luncheon at the Model Restaurant, 312 South Twelfth. No better place can be found in the city. Single meals 15 cents, Sunday dinner 25 cents. Tickets $3.

The Matinee Musicals gave a reception to all the other clubs in the city last Saturday afternoon. Their rooms in the Salisbury block are very pleasant in color and form. The ladies served tea and wafers to their guests.

Mrs. H. H. Pratt and daughter Marcia of Fremont returned home Monday after a pleasant visit with Dr. Abbott's family at the asylum. Mrs. Pratt called on numerous friends in the city.

Miss Mary Fechet, daughter of Major E. G. Fechet has returned from Ft. Meade, where she has been spending the summer with old friends.

The second floor of the Harris block, 1134 N street, has been fitted up for a dancing hall. The floor has received the attention of experts. It is of hard wood, and the boards are laid parallel with the length of the hall. Parties desiring to rent it can do so at the Courier office, in the same block.

The Model Restaurant is an excellent place for family board. It is also excellently situated for persons spending a day in the city. Ladies while shopping can find no better place for luncheon. Meals 15 cents, Sunday dinner 25 cents. Tickets $3. 312 South Twelfth.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Junge gave a card party Friday night at their home 1340 C street. Hearts was the game played which was followed by dainty refreshments. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Paul H. Holm, B. F. Bailey, F. D. Cornell, Kleinkauf, H. G. MeVicker, E. E. Henkle, Wortham and Miss Bailey, Miss Lau and Mr. Lau, sister and brother of the hostess, and Miss Retta Junge assisted in receiving the guests.

R. B. Howell, city engineer of Omaha, was in Lincoln Sunday calling on friends.

Steve Langworthy, of Seward, a former university student and Pleasant Hour man, was in the city over Monday. He is a promising young lawyer of that city.

Sutton & Hollowbush have invented a cough drop. They call it the S. & H. Sutton & Hollowbush, and it is a good one. Stop and get one on your way to the theatre. It will save you a spasm of coughing.

Mrs. T. M. Marquet has been entertaining her niece, Mrs. Johnson, of Kansas City, the past few days.

Mrs. W. W. Bussell, of Indianola, Ia., who has been the guest of her brother, Judge M. B. Reese, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Wright will entertain her brother, Mr. Chas. Robinson, and his friend, Fred Rapelle, of Chicago, on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Robinson has been here two weeks. A number of social functions have been given these charming visitors.

Miss McClure of Mt. Pleasant, Ia., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. Kelley. Miss McClure has frequently favored Lincoln with a visit and her many friends will welcome her again.

Miss Anna Dick, modiste, has moved her rooms to 1318 O street.

Miss Josephine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Miller, was married Sunday at 4 o'clock at the residence of her parents to Mr. George M. Palmer. The ceremony was performed by Dr. C. M. Shepherd in the presence of twenty relatives and friends. The house was prettily decorated in carnations and chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will be at home 3145 S street after December 9.

The students second Recital of the University of Nebraska School of Music occurred Tuesday evening. The program was a carefully selected one and was rendered in such a way as to throw great credit on the work of the school. The vocal numbers are to be especially commended as the pupils appearing in them have not studied in the school more than six months.

10 and 20 per cent off on hair goods. Ornaments at cost. Shampoo and hair dress 35c. New goods arriving daily. Mrs. J. C. Bell, 1414 O street.

The Bucyrus Mandolin club had a very jolly as well as profitable meeting at the home of Miss Florence Farwell last Monday evening. At the business meeting it was decided to give an entertainment for the benefit of the Woman's Aid society of the Episcopal church. The members and visitors present were: Misses Grace Oakley, Laura Houtz, Henrietta Hollowbush, Maud Oakley, Jessica Morgan, Florence Farwell, Mae Burr, Alice Slaughter; Messrs. Fred White, Homer Honeywell, C. Y. Smith, F. C. Cooley, John Farwell, W. E. Clark and E. M. Fairfield; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Marshall.

Mrs. W. B. Richardson gave a charming Kensington Friday, the 20th. The decorations were pretty and the conversations lively. Those present were: Mesdames Robert Wilson, Grant Hoggland, James Stevens, Wallace Crandall; Miss Dorina Taylor of Tacoma, Wash.; Miss Grace Walker, Bridgeport, Conn.; Misses Cora and Florence Ingles and Miss Margaret Hallet.

This year's Lehigh Valley and Scranton hard coal $9.40 per ton at Charles Gregory's, 11th and O.

Fred C. Cooley attended the foot ball game in Omaha Thanksgiving.

O. S. Hulse has received a certificate for charter membership in the National Association of Embalmers. It is the only one west of Danville, Ill. This is an organization which held its first meeting at Pittsburg last July. Mr. Hulse received the announcement of his appointment as delegate from Nebraska to the next meeting at Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. A. B. Coffroth, who has been visiting in the east all summer and recently with her mother and sister in Terre Haute, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. F. W. Brown went to Omaha Friday to assist at the reception of Mrs. Clinton Powell.

The New Cotillion club, composed of young married people, will give a party next Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff, festivities having crowded it out this week. Dame Rumor says the favors are pretty and that Capt. Guilfoyle has numerous new figures for the merry dancers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wright gave an elegant dinner Thanksgiving day for their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, C. E. Yates, J. A. Buckstaff, Miss Maud Oakley and Mr. Fred Rappelle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook returned on Tuesday from their wedding tour through the east and to Michigan. They expect to start west in about a week.

Mr. Harry Hargreaves started Tuesday for Chicago to spend Thanksgiving with his mother.

On Saturday evening, November 21, the members of the chemical department of the state university gave a dinner to Dr. Samuel Avery at the university club house.

The menu was written on laboratory order sheets in chemicalesse as follows: (Form 1.)

ORDER SHEET.

MENU.

H2O	[Water]
Proteids-Carbohydrates	{ chicken salad
C ₂ H ₅ (C ₂ H ₇ CO ₂) ₃
Cellulose-Na. cl.	[celery and salt]
Nitrogenous Substances	{ turkey and dressing
Pectin	{ Cranberry sauce
C ₁₃ H ₂₀ O ₁₀ C ₁₂ A ₂₄ O ₁₃	[Angel food]
Perfect Food at O°C	{ Ice Cream
C ₁₂ H ₂₂ O ₁₁	[Candy Fruit]
Caffeine	{ Coffee
KHC ₄ H ₄ O ₆	{ Olives and nuts

Name—Dr. Avery.
Date—October 29, 1896.
Laboratory—Heidelberg.

N. B.—Orders for chemicals must be accompanied by a bottle.

The dishes were the beakers and tubes that are used in the laboratory. Chicken salad, in a crystalizing dish, this is a large flat dish with edges an inch high. Water was in small beakers called 15 c. c. and was passed in metre flasks. The turkey was at home in an evaporating dish. Pectine, cranberry sauce was served in beaker covers. Each guest drew a letter which spelled when they took their seats at the table, Department of Chemistry.

Prof. Nicholson acted as toastmaster and he called for the following sentiments.

Dr. Avery—"Germany, The Paradise of the Student."

Dr. White—"My Duck Hunting Experience in Ann Arundel county, Maryland."

Miss Bouton—"The Carbohydrates of Nebraska."

Mr. Heimrod—"Leipzig Allerlei."

Mr. Elliott—"The Ph. D's That are to Come."

Mr. Parmelee—"Co-operation." The guests were: Prof. and Mrs. H. Nicholson, Doctors John White, Rosa Bouton, Samuel Avery; Messrs. R. S. Hiltner, M. E. Hiltner, F. S. Culver, Benton Dales, Ward Hildreth Elliott, Parmelee, Heimrod, Fred Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher, Miss Quaintance and Miss Sullivan.

Mr. Ralph Modjeska, the son of the great actress, spent a few days in the city last week, the guest of Prof. Owens. He is a successful civil engineer, and has just finished a bridge over the Mississippi from Davenport and Rock Island. It was erected by the United States. Mr. Modjeska came to America when he was a lad and spent his youth in California on a ranch. Sinkievich, the Polish novelist came with him, though that was before he became a novelist. Mr. Modjeska says that Sinkievich, the man who writes of cutting heads off as nonchalantly as the society reporter describes an afternoon tea, was unable to cut off a turkey's head without turning his back on the bird, when it was necessary to have turkey for dinner. Mr. Modjeska himself is a quiet man of the world who has read, seen and thought more than the common man.

Miss Alice Sheldon of Holdrege has invited a house party for the Thanksgiving holidays. The party consists of Misses Charlotte Clark, Dana Loomis, Gertrude Marsland and Lizzie Bonnell of Chicago; Messrs. Alex Sheldon, Otis Whipple, Carl Marley and Harry Hicks of Chicago. Deputy State Auditor O. P. Hedlund took the party to Holdrege. The merry party left Wednesday evening.

The Patriarchs gave the second party of the season Friday evening at the dancing hall in the Harris block. More than the usual number of the members besides a number of visitors from abroad were present. The hall was made lovely for the occasion by an abundance of palms, chrysanthemums and household furnishings.

The Olympic Club had its regular meeting at the home of Harry Harley, Friday evening.

Mr. R. J. Green's friends will be sorry to hear of his illness the past week.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson entertained about fifteen friends in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson and Mr. Fred Rappelle.

The many friends of Mrs. Smith Wilson will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from her serious illness of three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dorgan have returned from a short trip to Denver, Col.

Owen Oakley started last Sunday for Denver, Col. He will spend his Thanksgiving vacation with Ralph Hathaway.

Previous to Thanksgiving, the Flower Mission received donations of the substantial of life, which they left with the flowers at the various hospitals and needy homes of the city.

Miss Sarah B. Harris left Wednesday for Denver, Col. Miss Harris will be the guest of Mrs. D. D. Muir for the Thanksgiving holidays.

A very jolly affair was the dancing party given last Saturday evening at Worthington Academy. This was a delightful finish to the extra pre-vacation work ending the day before Thanksgiving.

Lincoln society will have a treat when the Mapelson Italian Grand Opera Co. comes this winter. It has a cast of 225 people.

Miss Jessie Lansing came home from Brownell Hall Wednesday, where she attends school. She will be here for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Carrie Wamer stopped off in Lincoln Monday on her way home from Omaha to Grand Island. Mrs. L. W.