

The Bucyrus Mandolin Club was nicely entertained Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ode Rector at their home on 10 between J and K streets. After practicing a number of new pieces, the club spent the remainder of the evening in conversation. Those present were Mrs. F. W. Smith, the Misses Florence Farwell, Mae Burr, Henrietta Hollowbush, Jessica Morgan, Fannie Rector, Olive Latta. Messrs. C. Y. Smith, Fred White, Homer Honeywell and Louis T. Moore. The next meeting will be this evening with Mrs. L. W. Marshall and Monday next with Mrs. Ode Rector again.

The Cotillion Club gave another of their jolly parties at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff last Wednesday evening. Although the party was somewhat smaller than usual it lacked none of the brilliancy of these occasions. Capt. Guilfoyle lead the dancers through a number of pretty and intricate figures. The membership comprises Messrs. and Mesdames Buckstaff, W. C. Wilson, Wright, C. L. Burr, Kelley, Burnham, W. B. Hargreaves, Brown, Lippincott, Marshall, Ogden, Beeson, F. W. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Ladd, Capt. and Mrs. Guilfoyle, Carl Funke, Geo. Woods, F. W. Houtz and Oliver Rodgers.

Judge Holmes and Miss Florence Farwell have gone to Chicago for a week or two.

Miss Meam Carson, Mattson Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Foster Ingalls of Des Moines, Iowa, drove to Meadow Brook Lodge Sunday afternoon. They had a lunch, panned some oysters and had a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Ingalls of Des Moines, Iowa, have been the guests of Miss Meam Carson for several days. Mrs. Ingalls will be remembered as Miss El a Quick who has favored Lincoln with visits at various times.

Clay Clements appearance in Lincoln was the occasion for a number of box parties at the Funke Opera House last Monday evening. Especially attractive were those boxes filled with the members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. Mr. Clements being a "frat" brother, the boys turned out en-mass, presented him with a huge bunch of American Beauty roses and invited him to a "smoker" after the performance at the house on 12th and L streets. Until two o'clock Mr. Clements made the time fairly fly by his bright conversation and witty stories.

An informal chafing dish party was given to a few friends Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Oakley.

Miss Miner will entertain a small whist club this evening at her home on North 16th street.

Born Wednesday at Grand Island to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pennybaker of Cripple Creek a daughter whom they will call Dorothy. Mrs. Pennybaker is visiting her mother Mrs. Gayen of Grand Island.

The Club of '36 gave a delightful dancing party Friday the 15th at Courier Hall. There were thirty couples present who danced the sixteen numbers on the program. Miss Willoughby's orchestra furnished the music. These affairs which are given every month are looked forward to with great pleasure.

Mrs. Brownell and son of Monmouth, Illinois, are stopping at 12th and K street. She is attending to some business affairs in the city.

The young ladies of the Episcopal church will give a tea at the home of Miss Mae Burr next Saturday evening.

The entertainment given last Monday evening by the Art Department of the Woman's Club at their rooms on 12th and M streets is one long to be remembered. It was a success socially and financially. Each department of this organization is required to give an open meeting at which time the ladies may bring their friends. While every number on the program was good especially the musical selections which livened up as well as filled in the otherwise would-be delays. The living pictures deserve special mention, and reflect great credit on Miss Parker and the ladies of that department. The selecting and training of the subjects and the collecting of suitable materials for the wardrobes was undoubtable an enormous task. The pictures and models were as follows:

Miss Hattie Becker vocal solo from the state university, Miss Agnes Wright vocal solo, Miss Edith Shaw instrumental solo, Willie Mudra violin solo, Portrait d'une Merveilleuse Klumpke Julia Lippincott, Caliphs Daughter N Sickels Olive Latta, Flower Girl A Seifert Maude Hazlett, A Blonde Profile Danna T. Mignod, Bison, Margarette Clark, La Bernoise, Dagnan Bouveret, Day Dreams Cecilia Beaux Mariou Smith, The Mirror, Mrs. Josephine Fisher, The Muff, Mae Burr, Song Without Words, Wm. Thorn, Eleanor Raymond, A French Poster, Blanche Garten.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves will give a large party at the Lincoln Hotel next Friday the 29th.

Invitations are out for a musicale to be given by Mrs. C. S. Lippincott on the 2nd of February at the beautiful home of L. C. Richards. It has been some time since the music lovers of Lincoln have been given so rare a treat under such circumstances.

The Pleasant Hour Club gave a remarkably pretty cotillion last evening at Courier Hall. It was a merry little party of about sixteen couples. Mr. Baldwin made an excellent leader. His figures were pretty and original as were also the properties in use.

CLUBS.

The Magazine Club was entertained Wednesday evening with a very instructive talk by Miss Jones, Librarian at the University, on "The Use of Books." Miss Jones ought to talk to every club in the city, whose members have any topics to look up. To know how to use a library so as to save the most time is an art.

Friday evening the "at home" was turned into a Progressive Crokinole party, about twenty-five young women being invited. Sunday afternoon the subject of the 4 o'clock meeting will be The Religious Progress of the Day. Leader, Miss Wild. Solo, Miss Churchill. Afternoon tea, sing and social from 5 to 6. All women are invited. The subject for the Bible Class Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock is, The Relation of the Four Gospels to each other.

The Old Autograph Album.
 Its binding is dingy and ragged, I know,
 And its pages are yellow with age;
 And there's many a blot and a thumb
 mark that show
 On each tattered, time-worn page.
 There are some of the leaves that are missing too,
 They were lost a long time ago;
 While others are dirtied and torn in two,
 Tho' once they were white as the snow,
 Yet many a tale could these pages
 unfold—
 Tales of the vanished years;
 Of the love and the friendship in days
 of old,
 Of the friendship which memory
 endears.
 For these dim, faded lines, you can see them here
 So painfully traced and slow
 In the schoolboy's scrawl, are the tokens
 dear
 Of the friendship of long ago!
 But where are the hands that traced
 these lines,
 Oh! where are those friends of old?
 Some have departed to other climes,
 Some to the grave so cold.

And tonight, as I sit in my old arm chair,
 By the open grate in my humble cot,
 I read these words, by the fire light
 glare:
 "Remember Me," "Forget Me Not!"
