SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. A. L. Bixby is visiting friends at Garrison and Columbus.

Judge W. J. Richardson came in from Gering Tuesday to visit his wife, Mrs. Nellie M. Richardson and daughter, and attend to business connected with the irrigation board.

Leon LeForge and Miss Gretchen E. Bomgardner were married at the home of the bride's parents, 136 South Twentieth street at noon Tuesday. Only relatives were present. The newly married couple are well known in university circles. Soon after the ceremony they started for the east where they will probably make their home. Mr. LaForge came here about a year ago from Alfred, N. Y., with his relative Mr. Dealtor Saunders.

Miss Grace Harrison of Beatrice spent Monday and Tuesday of this week visiting Miss Grace Oakley and Mrs. F. W. Smith.

Miss Odille Fuz stopped over a few days with Miss Harris, on her way from Denver to her home in St. Louis.

The Bucyrus Mandolin Club met Tuesday evening with Mrs. F. W. Smith. Although the disagreeable weather kept a few away. Those that did go had a merry time and an excellent rehearsal. Those present were Misses Fuz of St. Louis, Grace Harrison of Beatrice, Jessica Morgan, Florence Farwell and Olive Latta, Messrs. C. Y. Smith, Clyde Stultz, Louis Moore, Mattson Baldwin, Guy B. Hurlbutt and F. W. Smith.

Miss Ada Heaton who is in Washington, D. C., was among the favored few who sat on the same platform with President McKinley during his inaugural address. On the same platform was also Lieutenant Pershing with a party of army people.

A banquet in honor of the first anniversary of the organization of the Crancer and Curtice company was celebrated at the Lindell hotel Tuesday evening in which all of the employees of the house participated. A delightful little reception was held in the parlors of the hotel by about twenty-five ladies and gentlemen, previous to the elaborate banquet in the dining room.

Mrs. Oliver Rodgers pleasantly entertained the whist club Thursday afternoon at her home Twentieth and F streets. This club contains some excellent whist players. Consequently there were a number of close games during the afternoon. The guests were Mesdames W. C. Wilson, C. F. Ladd, G. M. Lambertson, A. B. Coffroth, J. A. Buckstaff, L. W. Marshall, W. F. Kelly, C. L. Burr.

Mrs. John R. Clark, Miss Clark and Miss Bertie Clark sailed on the 27th for Europe. They have gone to London to see the Queen in her jubilee robes and the splendid city in festival.

The charming and fascinating atmosphere which usually prevades an army hop was felt in a marked degree last Friday evening, when Company D of the state university battalion gave their initial party at Lansing hall. The pretty faces and fluffy gowns of the ladies were in contrast to the trim uniforms of the handsome cadets. Glorious American flags were effectively draped over the walls and warlike weapons were stacked peacefully and safely out of the way of merry dancers. Miss Willoughby's orchestra furnished perfect music for the party.

Miss Mabel Joy entertained Friday evening, March 26th in honor of her sixteenth birthday. The evening passed pleasantly with cards, dancing and music. The guests were: Misses Beckman, Johnson, Tucker, Gregg, McClellan, Kimes, Mahoney, George, Hale, Sholes, Manning, Hendry, Halley, Tynan, Dean, Dysart, McGregor, Creveling, George, Joerger, Mulliner, Sayers, Joy; Messrs.
