

TRES-IN-UNO.

One thing know I—Three are plain, Ponder each, and soul, again:
Rain and frost and sunny weather, His chain binds the three together.

Biting-frost, glebe-piercing rain, Make the gray clod bloom again:
By the sunshine grow; amain, Red-amber grapes and golden grain.

Wearied thou, with dazed head, Way-side-fallen, faint for bread, He, who gives, is overhead, To thee offers Living Bread:
As thy need is may'st be fed.

Yea, by need dwarf'd spirits grow Stronger out of needed woe:
So ripe-Autumn-harvests show.

you do, you'll fail.

He—I am engaged to two girls.
She—What are you going to do about it?

He—Nothing. Just let them fight it out.

$100 DOLLARS REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for anyone that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

We have purchased (because it is just the thing we have needed) the Columbian Cyclopaedia Library, consisting of the Columbian encyclopedia, which is also an unabridged dictionary thirty-two volumes of convenient size neatly bound, four volumes of the annual cyclopedic review, four volumes of current history for 1896, one Columbian atlas and the neat convenient revolving oak case with glass doors. From the evidence obtained we find that some part of this work is placed in the best private and public library in this country on a dabbard, for the reason that they cover a field relative to the past, present and future progress and achievements of the human race not attempted by others. The plan is original, and the work throughout is carefully and ably written.

Current history contains 220 pages, is issued two months after the close of each quarter, this length of time being taken to reduce all information received to be an absolutely reliable and authentic basis. If these are kept on file, this magazine will prove a permanent and invaluable record of all important movements in political, social, religious, literary, educational scientific and industrial affairs.

The magazine will be indispensable to all people who have encyclopedias, as it will be needed to keep these works up to date. To those who do not own encyclopedias it will be doubly valuable as their source of information is more limited. About March of each year the four volumes of current history are bound into one volume, known as the Annual Cyclopedic Review. There are now four of these bound volumes covering years 1892-3-4 and 5. The work has for endorers and subscribers in this city and state such people as Mr. Gere, editor-in-chief of the Lincoln State Journal, Hon.
Joe Bartley, state treasurer, Hon. W.
J. Bryan, Mr. Miller, editor of the Northwestern Journal of Education, Hon. H. R. Corbett, state superintendent of public instruction, Dr. R. E.
Giffen.

Every reading person has felt the need of brief summaries of current topics and events. The daily, weekly and monthly periodicals and papers may furnish data sufficient, but the labor of collecting and digesting it is frequently out of proportion to the result obtained. A most satisfactory summary may be found in the quarterly issues of Current History. This is the library covering a field that no other attempts.

Subscription price, $1.50 a year in

The complete library is sold on monthly payments to suit purchaser.

To Benjamin A. Gibson, John J. Perching, Phillip Andrew Helmer, James Barr Ames, Alfred C. Frost and R. G.
Brown, first real name unknown, non-resident defendants:

You and each of you are hereby notified that on October 24th, 1896, one Alexander S. Porter, as plaintiff, began an action against you and others as defendants, in the district court of Lancaster county, Nebraska, wherein and whereby said plaintiff seeks to subject to the lien and sell for the payment of a certain pretended judgment alleged to have been recovered by said plaintiff against the defendants Benjamin A. Gibson, Jonathan Chase, and Joseph M. Beardsley, certain lands lying in Lancaster county, Nebraska, and described as follows, to-wit: blocks number 1 and 2 in Lincoln View Annex; lot number 8 in block number 13 in Kinney's O street addition to Lincoln; the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 11, in town 10 north, of range 6 east of the 6th Principal Meridian; lot 1 in block 36 in the city of Lincoln; blocks number 5 and 6 of Lincoln View; blocks number 7 and 8 of Lincoln View; the west half of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter and the southeast quarter

west quarter of section 11, in town 10 north, of range 6 east of the 6th Principal Meridian. Said plaintiff alleges that there is due to him upon said judgment the sum of $1190.30 debt and $281.93 costs, and asks that all of said land be sold for the payment thereof.

In said action the defendants, The Connecticut River National Bank, Francis C. Faulkner, as assignee of the Connecticut River Savings Bank, and Edward Olcott, as executor of the last will and testament of George Olcott, deceased, on the 7th day of April 1897, filed their amended answer and cross-petition, the object and prayer of which is that said pretended judgment of the plaintiff, Porter, be adjudged not to be a lien upon any of said lands, and in particular upon certain of said lands on which these answering defendants, Olcott, Faulkner, and the Connecticut River National Bank, have a lien, or in the alternative, if the court shall find that there is any sum now due thereon, and that the same is a lien upon said lands, or any of them, that then certain lands in Lancaster county, Nebraska, in which you or some of you have or claim an interest, be sold before resorting to any of the lands upon which these answering defendants have a lien; the lands which these answering defendants ask to have first sold before the plaintiff shall be allowed to resort to any others, are in Lancaster county, Nebraska, described as follows, to-wit: blocks number 7 and 8 in Lincoln view; the west half of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, and the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 11, in town 10 north of range 6 east; blocks number 1 and 2 in Lincoln View Annex; lot number 3 in block number 9 in Lavender's addition to Lincoln; and lot number 8 in block number 13 in Kinney's O street addition to the city of Lincoln, and that all of said lands be sold for the payment of any sum now due on the plaintiff's judgment.

You are required to answer the amended answer and cross-petition of these answering defendants on or before the 24th day of May, 1897.
