

gust of the porter.

Among those present at the ceremony from out of the city were: Mrs. Mills and Miss Mills, mother and sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Walters and Miss Bauman, all of Omaha.

Charles E. Davis and Miss Minnie Melick were married at noon Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, 244 P street. They will leave immediately for Denver, where they expect to remain several days. They will make their home in this city upon their return, as Mr. Davis is local manager of the new mutual insurance company which was recently organized. Miss Melick is a daughter of S. M. Melick, chief of police.

Mrs. Eva Gruninger and two daughters, Mrs. R. S. McIntosh and two children and Miss Sarah Gruninger are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ziemer. Mrs. Gruninger is Mrs. Ziemer's mother. She and Mrs. McIntosh are from New York city. Miss Gruninger's home is in Chicago.

Mrs. Mary Hawley King died April 18 at the home of her son, Frank, in Chicago. Mrs. King was a sister of William C. Hawley of this city. Mrs. Hawley is in Scribner, called there by the serious illness of her brother, J. A. Nason.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Twenty-seventh and Holdrege streets, April 15, Thomas C. Hitchcock and Miss Lillis Stewart were married in the presence of a number of relatives and friends, Rev. C. A. Stewart of the Presbyterian church of Fairmont officiating. After the ceremony, cake and ices were served and a very pleasant evening was spent. Valuable and useful presents were left by the guests as tokens of the esteem and best wishes of all. The young couple will make their home in University Place.

A very dainty and pretty ceremony took place at Chief Melick's home yesterday at noon when Miss Minnie Melick and Charles E. Davis were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Dr. Halstead of St. Paul's Methodist church. The wedding was quiet, a few relatives only being present. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left on the Rock Island in the afternoon for Colorado where they will visit for a few weeks, returning to reside in this city, where the groom is stationed as manager of the Farmers' Mutual.

Miss Winnie B. Pound, daughter of A. L. Pound, became Mrs. John H. VanHorn on Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, 1302 A street. The number of guests was somewhat curtailed by the storm. Rev. Robert T. Chipperfield of Trinity M. E. church performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. VanHorn will live in Norfolk, where Mr. VanHorn is a merchant.

Rev. J. R. Woodcock, advance agent for Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage, is in the city arranging for the address of the distinguished minister in the interests of India, Thursday evening of next week. The address will be in the Lansing on the famine in India, and what the American people can and should do to aid the sufferers.

Captain L. W. Billingsley remembered yesterday that it was thirty-six years since he put his name down on a list of those to be shot at by rebel bullets. In honor of the anniversary he gave one of his little dinners to a few intimates where jollity was universal.

Captain and Mrs. Edgar S. Dudley who arrived in Lincoln last week from St. Paul, Minn., are the recipients of many favors from Lincoln friends. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates invited several friends to dinner to meet them. Other dinners were given Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. A. Bruce Coffroth; Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harley, and tonight Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright will entertain them.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Smyser and son, of Brooklyn, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley. Mrs. Smyser is as handsome as ever and the baby is a fine boy.

Miss Mae Moore is visiting Miss Scipio Dundy of Omaha. She attended the Monday night club dance.

Mrs. E. E. Brown, O. N. Humphrey, Judge Norval C. E. Gere, J. E. Hill and Mrs. W. S. Latta attended the board meeting of the State Charity Association at the Industrial Home, Milford, Tuesday evening.

Miss Mae Burr attended the Monday night club dance in Omaha this week. She expects to remain some time visiting friends.

Cards were received in Lincoln Tuesday announcing the arrival April 13, of a daughter, Eleanor Trimble, to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Little of Akron, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Little have many friends in Lincoln to whom this will be pleasant news.

The Cotillion club will give a party Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff. This will undoubtedly be a merry party after the season of Lenten restraint. Favors are being made by the ladies. Mrs. C. R. Richards will give an afternoon card party to say at her home on Sixteenth between L and R streets. German whist will be the entertainment.

Mrs. Sedgwick of York attended the reception given Thursday for Mrs. Keyser at Mrs. G. M. Lambertson's. Mrs. Sedgwick will be the guest of Mrs. I. S. P. Weeks until Monday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Shepherd pleasantly entertained the Whatsoever and Kensington circles of Grace M. E. Church, at their home, 425 North Twenty-seventh street, Friday evening, April 16. Flower puzzles and prominent men problems caused much amusement.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Ladd, Mrs. W. S. Latta and Olive Latta went to Plattsmouth Wednesday to attend a wedding. They spent Thursday in Omaha. Miss Minna White, of Plattsmouth returned with them.

The gun club drew a number of men from out of town to the state tournament which met Tuesday. F. S. Parmele, of Omaha, one of the best all round shots in the west, and R. O. Heikles, of Dayton, O., champion shot of the world and others were here.

Mrs. Hayes B. Thomson gave a charming Kensington yesterday afternoon at her home on M, between 16th and 17th. It was in compliment to her guest, Miss Helen Smith, of Omaha. Miss Smith has visited here before. Her many friends were happy to renew her acquaintance. The gentlemen came at 5 to have refreshments with the ladies.

The invited guests were the Misses Mame and Rosa Carson, Mary Fecht, Lucy Griffith, Grace Griffith, Bessie Turner, Eleanor Raymond, Sadie Burnham, Alice and Kitty Cowdry, Marie Marshall, Henrietta Hollowbus, Grace Oakley, Maud Oakley, Sallie Furnas, Kathryn Brooks, Culbertson, Olive Latta, Lottie Whedon, Clara Buckstaff, Alice Slaughter, Mae Moore, Mae Burr, Florence Farwell, Estelle Curtice, Agnes Sewell, Helen Smith, of Omaha, and Minna White, of Plattsmouth; Mesdames Rose Curtice, L. W. Marshall, Geo. Woods, J. T. Dorgan, O. Mohrenstecher, G. M. Lambertson, W. F. Kelley, F. W. Houtz; Messrs. Mattson Baldwin, Guy Hulbutt, C. Y. Smith, Joe Mason, Frank Cowdry, Fred White, Geo. Bartlett, James Fecht, Joe Mollalieu, Sam E. Low Harry Evans and others.

The many friends of Rev. A. Percy Silvers will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from his recent illness although somewhat slowly.

Mrs. B. M. Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth came on Wednesday to attend the reception Thursday at Mrs. Lambertson's and the lecture given by Mrs. Keyser on the same evening.

Mrs. H. S. Jaynes and daughter Miss Herberta are expected in Lincoln, Friday to remain over Sunday the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Latta.

The largest and most brilliant reception given for some time in Lincoln was tendered Mrs. Jennie Keyser of Omaha Thursday afternoon by Mesdames G. M. Lambertson, H. H. Wheeler and H. H. Wilson at the home of Mrs. G. M. Lambertson. The floral decorations of the apartments were most artistic with palms and snowy Easter lilies and cut flowers. Pink was the prevailing color in the dining room where ices were served. Mrs. S. H. Burnham, Miss Burnham and Miss Raymond. The ladies who assisted in receiving were Mesdames A. J. Sawyer, W. F. Kelly, Geo. Meissner, Mrs. Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Sedgwick of York. Several hundred ladies called during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sewell announce the engagement of their daughter Agnes Caroline to the Rev. A. Percy Silvers.

W and Y. W. C. A.

The reception given last Tuesday for the young ladies in the Y. W. C. A. was a pleasant affair. Bright conversation was intermingled with sweet music. There were forty ladies present. Plans for the last lecture were made to be held in two weeks.

The bible class were well attended Tuesday. Professor Beezy's lecture was greatly enjoyed. Professor Sherman will lecture the next time, the first Tuesday in May. A treat is anticipated.

Beginning with next week the regular Sunday school lessons will be taken up.

Cooking lessons have been postponed on account of house cleaning.

The Magazine club will meet Wednesday at the rooms. Miss Harris will review Quo Vadis at this meeting. All are welcome to attend.

The Shakspeare class has finished "Antony and Cleopatra" and are beginning "Romeo and Juliet." This course will last to the end of May. Any one wishing to take up the work is welcome. The class has enjoyed their work with Miss Woodford.

All ladies are invited to attend the Sunday 4 o'clock meeting at the rooms. That they may become acquainted with the young ladies and see the benefits derived from the work.

Mrs. F. M. Hall and Miss Widd, the secretary have returned from Detroit where they attended the national convention. They were pleased with the meeting, the city and the hospitality extended by the citizens to the visiting delegates.

UNIVERSITY NEWS.

Chancellor McLean will deliver the annual address for the Y. M. C. A., at Lawrence, Kansas.

Pi Beta Phi will give a party at Lansing hall, April 30.

Beta Theta Pi will give a party at the residence of Mr. H. P. Lau, May 1.

Miss Mercy Walker has just recovered from the measles.

Little Miss Elitha Dean spent Monday and Tuesday with her sister, Miss Nellie Dean, of '97.

Prof. Bessey has just accepted a very formal invitation to a banquet given by the Mercantile Club of St. Louis, May 14, in memory of Henry Shaw of that city, a wealthy man who established the Shaw gardens, and who, some time before his death, transferred them to the city of St. Louis, under the name of the Missouri Botanical Gardens, along with a sufficient sum of money so that a banquet might be given each year in his memory.

Last Tuesday morning Prof. Barbour gave a short talk in the chapel on the death of Prof. E. D. Cope, of the University of Pennsylvania.

Probably next Wednesday evening will be set apart by the Microscope Club as a memorial evening in honor of Prof. Cope. Informal talks will be given by people who were intimately acquainted with the Professor. The meeting will be held in Nebraska Hall and all are invited.

Dr. Frelease, director of the Missouri Botanical Gardens, will deliver the annual address before the Botanical Seminar, May 27. The topic announced is "Classification of Botanical Libraries." This may be of interest to many.

Miss Bertha Alvoord has been suffering from a severe burn on her face.

R. A. Rydberg of the class of '91, accompanied by Ernst Bessey, will spend the summer camping in the Rocky Mountains in Montana, and collecting botanical specimens. Mr. Rydberg was formerly assistant in the Botanical Laboratory, and now a graduate student in Columbia University, N. Y.

Dr. Warl has just been elected a member of the Zoological Society of France. This is one of the best and most famous societies in France.

Miss Margaret McGealey, who was called home to Iowa last week on account of the serious illness of her father returned to the University Wednesday evening, her father being out of danger.

From now on, weather signals will be displayed from Nebraska hall. The flags used will be the same as used before. The signals are, white fair weather; blue rain; half white, half blue, local rains; when the black triangle appears above the temperature will be higher; when it appears below the temperature will be lower. The staff was placed on the hall Wednesday.

The afternoon of May 7th has been set apart as a university holiday for Field day.

May 7, Prof. Caldwell delivered the address before the graduating class of the High School at Auburn.

Prof. Wolfe will go to Dorchester, May 8, to speak before the County Teachers' Association.

Miss Smoyer and Mr. Dennison went to Tecumseh last Saturday to act as judges in the High School Declamatory contest.

Dr. Bessey reports that the people of David City show a remarkable interest in educational matters, so much so, that standing room was at a premium during the association.

Last winter one of the Botanical students brought from Arizona two fine specimens of the burro thoene, a plant exceedingly rare, and interesting since it grows several feet high without a single leaf, and is densely covered with strong thorns. This will be made the subject of a scientific paper for the summer school.

The Botanical society of America, of which Dr. Bessey is president, will meet this year in Toronto about the middle of August. A great many British botanists are expected to be present at this meeting.

The historical society got an appropriation of $3,500 for the coming biennium, $50 more than the former appropriation.

Mr. Allen Fling, who graduated in '94, and who has been teaching in the Nebraska City High school, has accepted a position in the Lewis Institute, Chicago.

CORA ADELENE GARBER.

Remember the Whitebreast Coal and Lime Company is still furnishing its customers with best grades Pennsylvania hard coal at $8 delivered.

(First Publication April 17.)

SHERIFF SALE.

Notice is hereby given, That by virtue of an order of sale, issued by the Clerk of the District Court of the Third Judicial District of Nebraska, within and for Lancaster County, in an action wherein William Stull and Louis Stull, partners as Stull Brothers is plaintiff, and Joseph Barrett Admr., et al. defendants. I will at 2 o'clock P. M., on the 18th day of May, A. D. 1897, at the East door of the Court House, in the City of Lincoln, Lancaster County, Nebraska, offer for sale at public auction the following described Lands and Tenements to-wit:

Northwest quarter (nw 1/4) of section thirty (30) in township twelve (12) range five (5) east of the 6th P. M. in Lancaster county, Nebraska.

Given under my hand this 23rd day of March, A. D. 1897.

John J. Trompen,
Sheriff.

THE DENVER MILLINERY PARLORS.

1221 O Street.

Finest line of millinery in the city. Novelty in trimmings of all kinds. Trimmed and untrimmed hats.

W. WILLIAMS.

THE PALACE BEAUTIFUL

Makes a Specialty of

Hair Dressing,
Shampooing,
Manicuring

And all kinds of Massage.

A Full line of Hair Goods and Cosmetics.

131 NO. 13TH.

131 NO. 13TH