Social and Personal

Mrs. Mary Fechet, mother of Major A. J. Fechet, is visiting her son in the city. She stopped off on her way north to her home at Port Huron, Mich., coming from El Paso, Tex.

Mrs. J. C. Bonnell, of Chicago, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lincoln Frost.

Miss Edith Smith, of Brownell Hall, Omaha, has been the guest of Mrs. Hays Thomson the past week.

Mrs. Ada Coors is in the city the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. W. Jansen.

Miss Emma J. Hedges has received the gratifying news that Judge Munger of the United States circuit court has appointed her examiner in chancery to that court. The position was secured for her by a number of prominent members of the bar who knew that for some time she had been performing the services of examiner without receiving the full fees. Miss Hedges is one of the first women to hold the office, which is one that her stenographic ability makes her fully competent to fill. It will, of course, make no change in her residence.

Last Friday evening while dark clouds were scudding the sky and flashes of lightning followed by peals of thunder were playing tag across the dark heavens the "Club of '96" held their fourth party of the season in Light Infantry hall. Although the inclement weather kept many away, yet those who ventured out were fully repaid for their exertions. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Camack; Misses Niel Copeland, Edith Erford, Carolin Ruby, Bernice Merrill, Gertrude Gage, Mabel Erford, Chas. Wintersteen and Watson; Messrs. Harry Gage, Henry Tools, Hal Dueher, George Jcers, Howard Rathburn, Morris Liebmann, Frank Hawley, Harry Mitchell, Charles Ryan and Claude Wilson.

A letter from Berlin, Germany, states that a song, "The Fairy's Song," words by William Reed Dunroy, Music by Sigmund Landsberg, is being sung with great success by Miss Mame Muncloff, an Omaha singer, who is perfecting her vocal studies under one of the renowned singing masters in Berlin. Mr. Landsberg spent a few years in Omaha, and returned to his home in Berlin to complete his musical education, after which he will return to this country.

E. B. Acker and Miss Bertha Fletcher were married Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 2001 L street. Rev. G. H. Albright performed the ceremony in the presence of some sixty friends. A feast followed the ceremony. They are enjoying a trip to Illinois before settling down here.

The Mystic Shriners initiated ten novices on Tuesday night into full membership. The assaulting party was led by D. E. Green, and after their labors and fright they were refreshed by a banquet and silky music by Hagenow's orchestra. W. S. Sumner was toastmaster and responses were made by H. H. Wilson, Brad D. Slaughter, Chas. M. Carter, R. S. Bibb and C. L. Richards.
