Professional I	Directory.
leisphones.		Office Hou :
Dr. O. C. Reynolds	Burr Block	10 to 19 a.m. 3 to 5 p.m. Sun. 3 to
Office) Office, 1205 O Street	10 to 1
Office Dr. F. D. Sherwin DENTIST.	Office, room 19 Burr Blk 2nd floor Res. 2545 Q st.	9 to 12 a. m
Dr. J. H. Tyndale	Office, rooms 9 and 10 Lansing Theatre	9 to 11:30 a 2 to 5 p
C A. Shoemaker, M. D. Prof. of Obstetrics.Gynecology, Medice Dept. Cotner University.	I Screet	8 to 9 a m 12 to 1 30 7 to 8 p m
Dr. S. E. Cook	1215 O St.	9:30-12:30 at
Dr. Benj. F. Bailey) Office, Zehrung Block Residence, 1313 C street	-12 to 12:30
Dr. J. S. McNay) Office, 1105 O street Residence, 2208 T street	and the second second
Bee 349. Dr. R. E. Giffen		2 to 5 pm;
Ruth M. Wood, M. D.	Office, Richards Bldg., cor. 11th and O sts. Residence, 336 so 13th.
mee	Office, rooms 26, 27 and 1, Brownell Block, 137 so lith street.
Bee 388. J. Riser, D, D, L,	Office, 1231 Ostreet, over Miller & Paine.
W. S. Latta. M. D. Diseases of women a specialty. Facial blemiables removed.	Office and private hos- pital, 1116 L street.	All hour when po fice143 R. Stanhope, Female Diseases & obstetrics.	Residence and Office 1526 K street.	9 to II a. m A 2 to 4 p m.
D. M. H. Garten,	Office I7 Richards blk.	N to 12:30 2 to 5.
me	4th Floor Richards blk.
H. S. Aley, M. D. Fomale, nervous & genito-urinary diseases.	Office, 1414 O Street	Hours 9 to 12 2 to 5, 7 to 8 Son. & Sat
Dr. Clifford R. Tefft,	Office, 1127 O Street
mice 161 (Dr. J.S, Eaton, Burgery and Nervous Diseases,	Office, 137 So. 11th St.	Hours 10 to 1 a. m 2 to 4 p. m.
Dr. J. B. Trickey, Refractionist only	Office, 1035 O street	9 to 12 a. m I to 4 p. m.

tion. The state university celebration to the good feeling of the occasion. Dr. began two weeks ago with the joint Hale is famous for his after dinner programs of the literary societies. A speeches and he sustained his reputation few years ago . these programs were at the Thursday banquet. Fraternity largely attended and were of great inter- and good fealings were specially present est, how, for whatever reason, they have and everybody left vowing they would deterio ated in large measure. The come again. Thanks were expressed to spirit of enthusiam and rivalry, once so Mr. Hoover for his successful work in marked, seems now to be quite absent making the banquet a success. and the program is of little interest. The annual address before the college of law was made by Judge J. M. Wool' worth of the American Bar Association and was heard with great interest. The chancellor's report to the Alumni was a thorough discussion of the work done by the university during the year. The work of the regent', faculty and student', and the changes that have been made in the university departments and Luildings were gone over with some details. The alumni find in these annual reports the very material that they cannot get in any other way, coming as it does condensed, carefully arranged, and specifiz. Wednesday evening Mrs. H. H. Wilson spoke in the Lansing. Her subject was the novel. She traced the development of prose fict on in English, discussed the schools of the novelists, touched the short story and gave a general view of the whole field of the modern writer of tiction. The commencement address by Edward Everett Hale came as a fitting climax of a week of thorough enjoyment. He stood before a full house, his pleasant kindly face telling directly that he Are Others." Chancellor Ellinwood had mastered the one great art. the art spoke of "The Light Beyond. of living. His address was marked by the case and simplicity that comes of thorough mastery. The conferring of degrees followed this address. The notable feature of this part of the exercises were the large number of second degrees, the one third degree and the two honorary degrees grauted to Oscar D. P. Stout and Prof. Bruner After the donferring of degrees the changes in the faculty. W. G. L. Tay. ginia. lor was promoted to be professor of been an associate professor. Miss Clara morning and will sing in First Congre-Conklin was promoted from adjunct gational church in the evening. professor to assistant professor of Ro- Mrs. John Harrop has been called to

This week has been given up to the whose effect will not be forgotten for commencement exercises of the various several years. Dr. Hale, accompanied colleges in and around Lincola. The by the Chancellor and Mrs. McLean State University has of course consumed came in toward the last of the banquetthe largest share of the public's atten- ing and contributed in no small measure

> Prof. A. A. Munro, superintendent of city schools of South Omaha, is attending the graduation exercises of the university.

Dr. David Marquette, one of the pioneer Methodist ministers of the state. and wife have been attending the commencement exercises at the Wesleyan.

Leonard H. Robbins and Carl Shuff have gone to Boulder, Colorado to spend the summer.

C. C. Tefft, son of ex Senator Tefft, of Avoca, was visiting friends in the city during the week.

The Everett literary society of the Wesleyan university gave its eighth annual banquet at the Lindell hotel Tuesday night, and the members and their sweethearts numbered sixty. Although there are no college fraternities at the Wesleyan university a fraterral spirit prevailed. Toastmaster P. H. McPherrin introduced the following speakers who spoke on the topics assigned; S. M. Greene, "We Meet Again;" H. O. Smith, "Our Brotherhood;" C. J. Lisle, "There

Prof. and Mrs. Taylor and Miss Miner have left for their old home in Illinois where they will remain until the university reopens in the fall.

Miss Marian Treat is visiting Mrs. M. D. Welch for a few days.

Dr. John White leaves next week for his home in Baltimore. He anticipates a bicycle trip this summer with a party chancellor announced several of friends through the Valley of Vir-

Miss Treat will sing two solos in the political and economic science. He has First Presbyterian church Sunday mance language. Clark Fisher Ansley Crab Orchard by the illness of her was selected by the board of regents to mother.

width Orientals.

MILLER & PAINE

C. M. SEITZ,

Dealer in Fruits, vegetables etc

Telephone 626.

be assistant professor of English literature and placed in charge of the department of English.

The fellowships and scholarships were announced. These are the highest honors granted by the universit to students. noon.

Then followed the brief announcement of happenings of interest during the sociation which followed the chanceluniversity year. The winning of two lor's report on Wednesday afternoon important prizes by university students, was the best attended and the shortest the presentation to the university of a meeting on record. President Paul F. geological collection, the twenty-fifth Clark occupied the chair. The princianniversary of the Palladian society and pal work was the election of officers, the founding of the Sigma XI society. The Alumni banquet at the Lindell Edson P. Rich; vice presidents, O. B. was a most happy occasion. About 119 Polk and Mrs. N. Z. Snell; secretarywere present. The square dining room t easurer, Roscos Pound; executive comat the Lindell was brilliant with the mittee, E. P. Brown, R. O. Williams, scarlet and cream. The colors depended Miss Rose Bouton, Charles B. Gregory in loops from the grill work on the can- and Miss Ena Ricketts. Charles S. tre of the ceiling and were repeated on Allen of the class of '86 was elec'ed the tables in red and white ribbons and alumni orator for the commencement of fovers. Mr. Clement Chase, of the 1899. The meeting was entirely har-Omaha Excelsior, was a graceful toast. monious.

Mrs. Merritt D. Welch gives a reception Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6.

Mrs. E. E. Brown, 1305 J street gives a very pleasant card party this after-

The business session of the alumni aswhich resulted as follows: President master. Mr. Parks, Mrs. Meiss. The annual reunion of the class of ner, and Miss Grace fhompson '96 was held in the tastily decorated 1107 O Street of the class of 97 made brilliant speeches parlors of the Phi K sppa chapter.