Social and Personal

Married, on Wednesday afternoon, June 16, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Prey, 1955 G street-Margaret Francis Prey to Mr. William Clay Taylor of Minden, Nebraska. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Stephen Corey, of Waterloo, Nebraska. In a gown of white silk under a bower of palms the bride was prettier than a picture. D. F. Lehmer was the best man and Miss Edna Prey was maid maid of honor. She was gowned in white organdie and carried scarlet roses. At half past five Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left the house in a shower of rice, and were inflicted with another at the station where they took the train for Mr. Taylor's home in Minden where he is a merchant. The guests present at the wedding were: Messrs. and Mesdames T. R. Prey, J. Tynes, W. Dunn and J. C. Knotts; Mrs. Rapp of South Omaha; Misses Nina Prey, Nona Prey and Effie Ellaner; Messrs. Rev. Steve Corey, D. N. Lehmer, D. E. Prey, T. R. Prey, jr., H. E. Prey and A. Tynes; Master Robbie Rapp and Roy Knotts.

Miss Lorena B. Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks of Ellsworth, Kansas, and Charles W. Fleming of Lincoln, Nebraska, were united in marriage Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in the Methodist church of Ellsworth by Rev. Mr. Watkins. The church was profusely decorated for the occasion with flowers and was crowded to its utmost capacity by friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony the train was taken at 10:15 for Lincoln, amid showers of rice and old shoes. Mrs. Fleming is an accomplished and successful teacher in the public schools at Ellsworth and enjoys the friendship of all who know her. Mr. Fleming is a well known and highly respected young business man of sterling qualities. The bridal party were met here at the train and escorted to the home of the groom's brother, 1612 Q street, where the members of the family had gathered for the purpose of congratulations. Mrs. E. Fleming was ably assisted in serving an elegant lawn supper, during which time the sweet strains of hidden music were heard. The bride and groom were then escorted to their neatly furnished home at Twenty third and Q streets, where they will be at home to their friends after July 1.

It seems to THE COURIER that this rice and shoe slinging at the newly wed has reached a stage of senselessness that will soon work its own cure. Just as the New Year's calling custom degenerated from the pleasant greetings of friends and acquaintances to the intrusion of men whose faces and names, too, were unfamiliar to unwilling hostesses so with the rice throwing. A few years ago a handful or so of rice was thrown at the bride and groom as they left the bride's house. No one thought of blinding and stinging the dazed pair with quarts of rice at the station and of tying the trunks with white ribbons and flowers. These pleasantries, invented by a man with no sense of humor, have reached the last stage of decadence which always precedes a dying custom.

This hot weather has set some people to thinking where they would spend the summer. Mr. Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. Munger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark and others have been tempted by the fine fishing of Osakis to spend a few weeks there, and they have planned to start soon. Mrs. Polk and Miss Polk went to Quincy, Illinois, on Wednesday where they will spend the summer with Mrs. James Irwin (born Polk). Mrs. Florence Irwin and Mrs. McGahey and family started on Wednesday towards a pleasant summer in Wequetonsing, Michigan. Mrs. Savage of Omaha starts today for Boston, from whence she sails in the early part of August for Europe. Many others have planned to go to the Crete Chautauqua. The cottages there are being rapidly rented by those whose yearly habit it is to take their summer outing where just across the lawn the best speakers are lecturing and sweet singers are singing; where in the next house are the choicest spirits, (human) where for ten days it is forgotten that the world is playing cut-throat with us and we with it. Everybody's thoughts turn in this weather to places where the waters lap the beach and the salt odors revive the flabby spirits. But more are going to the mountains and the lakee, they are nearer, cheaper and just about as filling. Mr. and Mrs. Brad Slaughter and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Dorgan, Mr. Lottridge, and Mr. Ray Welch will spend part of the summer in lake Okoboji.

Miss Grace Harrison of Beatrice will visit Mrs. Frank Smith next week.

Mrs. K. K. Hayden returned from a long visit in the east on Wednesday.

Mr. G. M. Lambertson returned from Chicago on Thursday with Miss Nancy and Miss Marjorie, who will spend the summer with their father and their aunt, who is visiting her brother.

Prof. R. A. Clark, late head of the department of hygiene of the state university, started on Monday with his wife for Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Carrie Guilmette left on Monday for New York to attend her sister, Miss Alvina, until she recovers from the shock caused by the death of her brother. Miss Mary Jones accompanied her. Miss Jones, goes to Europe to spend the summer.

Mr. C. R. Anderson of DeWitt, stopped in Lincoln on his way home from Hastings. Mr. Anderson reports the wheat as very promising in Adams and adjacent counties.

Miss Dora Bacheller, business manager of THE COURIER, went to Blue Hill on Thursday morning to attend the Martin-Hopka wedding in that place.

Some of the younger vocalists were walking along the street the other day, speculating as to how their efforts would be received by the musical critic of Lincoln, who is at once kind and honest. One of them said: "Toby Rex, Toby Rex, I wonder where he was named and who bestowed it. Can he have been thinking of Fielding's Uncle Toby? It is such a queer combination, English and Latin. Analyze it and Toby Rex means, to be king," and they passed out of hearing.

The Epworth league gave a delightful trolley party last Tuesday evening.

Miss Mary Reynolds who has been an instructor of the piano in Lincoln for a year or two, has accepted a flattering offer from the Chicago school of music. Miss Reynolds has made many friends in the city during her short stay here. She is also a very competent musician.

Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald has gone to St. Mary's, Kas., to attend the funeral of Judge J. W. Fitzgerald, a friend of her late husband and a prominent Irish-American.
