

Miss Phillippi of Omaha, and Miss White of Platteville, who were guests of Mrs. Yates, left with her when she accompanied Halsey as far east as Pittsburg, from which place Mrs. Macdonald and Miss Cross of New York returned to Lincoln with Mrs. Yates for a short stay. Willard Yates goes to school at Trenton, N. J., tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Towne of Duluth, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan at the homestead on D street.

Mrs. Putnam and Miss Florence Putnam returned on Wednesday from Macdonald, where they have spent a few weeks. Miss Florence will leave for Mrs. Pratt's school in Utica, N. Y., about the first of October.

GRAHAM BARBER.

Married on Wednesday, September 1st, at the residence of the bride's mother, 2525 R street, Miss Jennie Graham to Mr. Clayton Barber. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Reverend E. E. Fife. The pair, with the maid of honor, Miss Jessie Graham, sister of the bride, and the best man, Mr. Barber, nephew of the bridegroom, stood under a bell of white flowers. The bride's gown was of white silk and thread lace and she carried bride's roses. The maid of honor was gowned in white organdie over green silk and carried La France roses. After the wedding breakfast of fifty guests, which included Mr. and Mrs. Guild, Mr. and Mrs. Kemster of Platteville; Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Miss Fowler and Mrs. Plummer of North Bend and Miss Ferrier of Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Barber left for the Pacific coast on their wedding journey. Their trunks and bags had the usual humorous signs and ribbons. Age can not wither this innane pleasantry—but that is another story. Mr. and Mrs. Barber will be at home to their friends after October 1, at Twenty sixth and T streets. Mr. Barber is in the clerical department of the Burlington company at Havelock. Miss Graham has been an efficient teacher in the public schools.

HOYT LIVERINGHOUSE.

Married on September 1, Miss Stella Hoyt to Mr. Frank Liveringhouse at Holy Trinity church by the Rev. Robert Turner, of St. Luke's Mission. Mr. George Gascoigne was best man and Mr. Walter E. Ludwig usher. The witnesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt, Miss Josie Hoyt, Mrs. Knight, Miss Willoughby, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Warner, Miss Jennie Stewart, Miss Mullien, Mrs. Ungles, Mr. and Mrs. Al Spencer, Walt E. Ludwig and George Gascoigne. Mr. and Mrs. Liveringhouse have gone to Minneapolis for a short tour—but the honeymoon is intended to last until death do part them.

Mrs. W. A. Newmark and daughters Nellie and Jessie are visiting friends and relatives in Burlington, Iowa.

The following from the Chicago Record shows that the champions are afraid of the new one "from the west." It's funny how the people in Chicago, who are as west as the setting sun, speak of people "from the west," where the brains and the brawn come from.

"Drawing for the women's tournament for the championship of the west, which begins this afternoon on the Kenwood courts, place national champion Miss Atkinson against four of the best western players before she can reach the championship round. The dreaded eastern visitor will be pitted in succession, if she wins, against Mrs. Stagg, Grace Cloes, Carrie Neely and the new wonder, Miss Pound. She will probably meet Miss Pound in the finals, and knowing ones expect that the Nebraska champion will give her the hardest fight of her career. Miss Craven, holder, will meet the winner of this match for the championship.

"Most of the young women spent yesterday on the Kenwood courts getting final practice for the matches today and waiting until late afternoon for the appearance of Secretary J. P. Gardner with the official drawings. The entries number exactly thirty-two in singles and sixteen in doubles, and, as in the case of the regular western tournament, no preliminary round will be necessary. Play will be begun at 2:30 this afternoon, and it is expected that the final rounds will not be reached before next Tuesday or Wednesday.

"The matches of the opposing day promise no very exciting contests, but the second round will bring some of the experts together. Grace Cloes will then probably encounter Miss Tilton. Else Neel will meet Miss Wimer of Washington and Miss Atkinson will make her first appearance against Mrs. Stagg. Miss Aldrich, drawn against Miss Atkinson in the first round, will default her matches on account of the death of her aunt, Mrs. J. Frank Aldrich.

"The third round will bring together Miss Neely and Hallie Champlin. Grace Cloes and Miss Atkinson, Miss Wimer and either Miss Morley or Miss J. Champlin, and Miss Pound and Miss Hudson. If these matches result according to expectations there will be left for the semifinals Miss Neely against Miss Atkinson and Miss Wimer against Miss Pound. The showing made by Miss Pound in the Lake Eluff tournament and the strength of her game as shown elsewhere have made her a favorite even against the national champion, Miss Craven, present western champion, is not playing the game she showed last year, and will have great difficulty in defending her title. The matches in the opening rounds are as follows: M. Row vs. A. Faulkner, Steever vs. C. B. Neely, Ida Morley vs. Mrs. S. C. Cushing. H. Champlin vs. G. Hilton, S. Gardner vs. C. A. Tilton, G. Faulkner vs. G. Cloes, Mrs. A. A. Stagg vs. Isgrig, Aldrich vs. Atkinson, E. Neel vs. C. Reynell, M. Pennington vs. W. E. Wimer, J. Champlin vs. M. Warner, C. Mooney vs. B. Morley, M. Steele vs. L. Pound, M. Wager vs. A. Price, S. Ruger vs. S. Hudson, E. Parker vs. E. Buchanan.

"Several strong combinations appear in the doubles, but Misses Atkinson and Craven are generally picked as the champion pair. The Pound-Tilton and Neely-Cross combinations, however, will be strong competitors. The drawings for the first round are as follows: Morley and partner vs. Ruger and Steever, Pound and Tilton vs. M. Row and Steele, G. Faulkner and A. Faulkner vs. Stagg and Buchanan, Atkinson and Craven vs. Champlin and Reynell, Cushing and Wimer vs. Hilton and Aldrich, Neel and Gardner vs. Hallie Champlin and Parker, Isgrig and Price vs. Neely and Cloes, Hudson and Morley vs. Pennington and Wager."

Mr. S. L. Geisthardt is an expert tennis player and it was in games with him that Miss Pound acquired those smash-upward strikes that have compelled the admiration of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dorgan returned from their European trip on Wednesday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sturges and by Miss Kelsey of O'Connell, N. Y. Miss Kelsey will remain with Mr. and Mrs. Dorgan during the winter. They had a pleasant and smooth passage and are both invigorated by their travels. Mrs. Dorgan has received especial benefits from the trip.

guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ogden. Those invited were Misses Mabel Richards, Florence Farwell, Clara Watkins, Emma Outcalt, Maud Risser, Clara Hammond, Henrietta Hawley, Jesse Lansing, Ethel Hooper; Messrs. Roy Sawyer, George Shedd, George Bartlett, R. Manley, Earl McCreery, Burt Whedon, George Risser and Virgil Barber.

Mrs. E. L. Holyoke at 345 North Twenty-eighth street, gave an afternoon party to her guest and cousin Miss Manatt, on Friday. Miss Winnie Manatt has stopped on her way to Wolfe Hall, Denver, where she has accepted the chair of modern languages—French, German and Italian. All those who have been privileged to meet her are charmed by the winsome manner, which is exactly the same in quality as when she left Lincoln several years ago. She is accomplished even beyond the attainments of the new college girl. During her sojourn in Athens she learnt Greek ancient and modern as only a few people in this country know it. Returning to this country, she was graduated at Brown university with high honors. Wolfe Hall is a very good school and it is to be congratulated on the employment of so competent a scholar as Miss Manatt. Dr. Manatt, the former chancellor of the Nebraska State university, holds the foremost place in Greek scholarship in this country, and association with him has given Miss Manatt's culture a distinction which the ordinary product of a four years college course lacks. Mr. and Mrs. Manatt and the rest of the family are spending the summer at Old Orchard, Maine. Miss Clark, Mrs. Manatt's sister is with them. Willie, though he has long since outgrown the affectionate diminutive, has been in the studio of St. Gaudens for two years. His work shows promise of great accomplishment. Miss Sadie is a violinist of more than local fame. The other members of the family are in school. The baby, who was known to Lincoln people as "Snip," was christened Demetra in Athens, and lisped Greek as the Bohemian babies in Nebraska learn the speech of their playmates rather than their parents. Dr. and Mrs. Manatt are prospering. The returns from the books which the doctor has published have been very flattering and he is acquiring wealth as well as reputation.

The removal of Stull Bros. from Lincoln to Omaha is very much regretted in financial and social circles. Mr. Lewis Stull has spent so much of the time of his nominal residence in Lincoln in the health resorts of the east, the north and the south that the residents of this city are not very well acquainted with him. Mr. Will Stull has stayed at home more and cultivated his neighbors and associates till they are loath to part with him. Mr. Stull is one of those who know a great many in a friendly, tolerant, unexpecting way. Besides these he adopts a few, a very few people, whom he will serve with loyalty and affection till his pilgrimage is finished. These and those will miss him. He is also public spirited and loyal to the place he lives in. He never refused to help a charity or a project for the benefit of the community. The Haydon Art club of this city will miss his advice and substantial help. At the beginning of the season Mr. Stull had consented to serve on the financial committee of the club and had suggested plans of extension involving his own attention which would have been of advantage to the organization. But Omaha is gaining a good citizen.

Dr. Mitchell returned on Thursday from his mountain trip.

Sutton & Hollowbush have invented a cough drop. They call it the S. & H. Sutton & Hollowbush, and it is a good one. Stop and get one on your way to the theatre. It will save you a spasm of coughing.

The best dressed woman never squeezes her foot into a shoe too small. She never wears heels so high as to give her an ungraceful walk; she never wears an uncomfortable shoe, for it would prevent her from looking her best.

We keep all these points in view and this is why we have the best trade in the city. If you will let us help you in properly fitting your feet we will stand the responsibility if the shoes do not prove satisfactory.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Leonard will take their little niece Ruth Prentiss to All Saints' school in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, a school under the personal supervision of Bishop Haro. Little Ruth will spend the winter in this school.

Mrs. James Irwin and Miss Edna Polk arrived in Lincoln on Wednesday. Mrs. Polk remained in Quincy. Miss Edna will go on with her university work when the school opens and Miss Irwin will make a visit of a few weeks in her own old home.

Mr. C. I. Jones gave a keensington for her mother, Mrs. Hitchcock, on Tuesday. On Wednesday Mrs. Hitchcock left for her home in Ohio.

Carl Tucker, the young singing teacher, who is located at Glenwood, Ia., is in town.

DAVID-HEBBARD.

Married at Aledo, Ill. Wednesday September 1, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Lottie May David to Frank H. Hebbard.

The formal opening of the Funke will take place on the 10th of September when the Corinne opera company will open it with a chorus of fifty voices in the opera "An American Beauty," which Corinne bought from Lillian Russell. There are very few opera companies booked for Lincoln this season and Manager Zehring got this by pure savoir faire.
