She was accompanied by all the children with the exception of Miss Anita, who is detained by a teaching engagement. The family will occupy the General Cobb home at Fourteenth and R streets.

Miss Ruth Philippi of Omaha is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Thompson at 2424 O street. Miss Philippi is the daughter of J. O. Philippi, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific road.

GRIFFITH-BROWN.

Married, on Wednesday afternoon at half past four o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Edward P. Brown to Miss Grace Griffith, both of this city. Rev. W. M. Hindman was the officiating clergyman. Only a few relatives and closest friends were present at the ceremony. Mr. Brown and Miss Griffith have been engaged for a number of years, so long, in fact, that it was suspected they had changed their minds. The wedding on Wednesday was the first intimation that they had decided that the time had come. They have gone to Denver on their wedding trip. Miss Griffith has long since grown out of the amateur class in art and music. Mr. Brown is a young lawyer of promise, the son of Guy Brown, for a number of years state librarian. He was graduated from the high school and university magna cum laude. He is a member of the law firm of Field & Brown and is fairly entitled to the good name he has won in his practice.

Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, son and daughter arrived in Lincoln on Thursday from her summer home in Little Bass, Ohio, on Lake Erie. Mrs. Rodgers was also accompanied by her nephew, John Shephard, who will attend Worthington Academy with Selden Rodgers.

Miss Marian Ogden and Bruce Ogden had a birthday party on Friday, the 17th of September, which was the tenth and fifth anniversary of their respective birthdays. The party was a gay little affair attended by the friends between the ages of five and ten.
