

Mrs. Bushnell, followed with a report of the meeting at Beatrice.

Each department leader, in turn, gave an outline of her work for the year.

Mrs. S. B. Hohman reported that the department of Current Events would furnish the next regular program for the Club, with the subject, "Scientific Discoveries." This department meets on Monday next with Mrs. T. J. O'Connell, on R street.

Dr. Wolfe, leader of Child Study, announced that the meeting on Saturday, October, 16th, would be held with Miss Elliott, when Miss Barr would address the ladies upon "Physical Culture."

Mrs. Rehlaender, leader of Civics, gave as the subject for Wednesday, October, 20th, the "Constitutional History of the U. S. Government," to be led by Mrs. Rehlaender and Mrs. Richardson.

The department of Domestic Economy, leader Mrs. Milton Scott, has not yet outlined the winter's work, but will meet on Monday next with Mrs. Gund, 234 So. 27th street.

The department of Art, leader Mrs. McConnell, will meet in the Club room on Tuesday, October, 19th. A paper on "Early Art in Italy" will be given, followed by current events. The topic for the winter will be "Italian Art," illustrated by many engravings of celebrated paintings, owned by the leader, which will be hung in the Club room.

Parliamentary Practice, leader Mrs. Richardson, will be held in the Club room from 3 to 4 o'clock.

The department of Literature, leader Miss Towne, will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Newmark. The subjects for the winter's study are Tenyson and Browning.

Miss Tremain, leader of United States History, assisted by Miss Bracken, will take up New England Colonies. This department meets with Miss Elliott, on October 14th.

At the close of these reports, Mrs. McClintock of Topeka, Kansas, spoke for a few moments. The members were most pleased to welcome this club-woman from another state.

The announcement was made that an entertainment for the purpose of raising money, would be given at the Lansing on November, 22nd when James Whitcomb Riley would be heard. Also that a meeting of the Board of Directors would be held at the close of the program.

A vocal solo by Miss Tillie Weckbach was much enjoyed, also the refreshments served by the members of the Book Review Club.

In the social hour which followed much satisfaction was expressed by the ladies in the superior acoustic properties of the new room.

It was unanimously voted that a message of sympathy and appreciation of her thoughtful words of greeting, be sent to the president, Mrs. A. A. Scott, now ill in Chicago.

The Century Club will meet with Mrs. Milton Scott, 221 So. 27th street on Tuesday, October, 19th. The program will consist of the first lesson in the study of Italy, with Mrs. J. W. Winger as leader.

The first meeting of the art department of the Woman's club will be held in the club rooms, 1115 N street at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, October 19th. A talk will be given from personal recollections on Early Art in Italy, Pompeian Frescoes, The Dawn of Christian Art, Mural Decorations in the Catacombs, Mosaics in Rome, Venice and Ravenna; Illuminated Bibles and Manuscripts by the Monks of the Religious Orders, The Early Renaissance in Italy, Current Events in the World of Art, by members of the department, Leader McConnell.

Sorosis met last Friday afternoon with Mrs. T. E. McGahey. The club and guests listened to an address by Prof. Geo. E. Howard of Leland Stanford university on the history of marriage and family relations. Prof. Howard has become since his early days in the state university, a famous scholar and authority on United States institutional history. His lecture of Friday afternoon was delivered in the simple, modest style of a ripe scholar without condescension but with the enthusiasm which make him the most beloved teacher of hundreds of state university alumni. About twenty-five or thirty ladies were present.

The Matinee Musical will hold their second meeting in their new club room on N street on Monday afternoon at half past three o'clock. The following program will be given, comprising nocturnes, impromptus and ballads.

- Current Events—
 Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Doane, Miss Silence Dales.
 Talk..... A London Musical Season
 Mrs. D. A. Campbell.
 Nocturne..... Chopin
 Miss Odell, Miss Givens.
 Ballad—
 Mrs. J. M. O'Neal.
 Nocturne..... Reinecke
 Mrs. W. Q. Bell.
 "True Love"..... Coenen
 Miss Carol Churchill.
 Impromptu, op. 30, No. 2..... Schubert
 Miss Minnie Parker.
 Blossomtime..... Marston
 Mrs. Doane, Miss Churchill, Miss Reynolds.
 Accompanist, Miss Rice.

The society of the Hall in the Grove held its second meeting of the season with Miss Stevens, 82' E street, on Friday evening.

The program covered Russian History and Travel, led by Mr. Aitken, who displayed a large outline map of European Russia prepared for the occasion, and gave leading points relating to topography, climate, population, productions, etc.

Greek Architecture was very clearly set forth in its leading features by Miss Stevens, and was illustrated by numerous large and very finely executed photographic views.

"What is Nebraska Doing?" was the closing subject of discussion, led by Mr. Leavitt, who presented it in a manner to call out expressions concerning the rise and progress of the great state in all its varied aspects.

The exercises were closed with a poem by Mr. Bixby, who was present by invitation, and kindly consented to give in most unique style a poetical view of the subject under discussion, "with a snap to it."

The next meeting is to be held the 22nd inst., with Mrs. Garten, corner of H and Twelfth streets.

There are all kinds of paints and varnishes, mostly inferior, of course, and therefore expensive at any price. We buy only the best paints and varnishes to be had in the market and you will be pleased with their plainly evident superiority when you see them. Paints, brushes, varnishes and all painters' supplies at B. O. Koatka, 1211 O street.

We Have Them ON THE RUN

Our monster stock of fine clothing, hats and furnishing goods is creating a sensation among the buyers of Lincoln and vicinity and we might add, our competitors as well. The hundreds of people who visit our (well lighted and properly conducted) store daily, simply are amazed at the wonderful bargains we offer.

Our Announcement

Of putting on sale 1,000 elegantly tailored, cleverly cut, all wool suits for men at the low price of $5.00 created a sensation.

Our Statement

Regarding our superb line of mens' tailor made suits at $10.00 for dress or business wear, made of the finest English clay worsted Thibets or Scotch tweeds, lined with double strength satin finished Italian cloth, in all styles, (sack, frock or Prince Albert) the equal of which has never been, nor is likely to be again, sold for less than $15.00, was a surprise and created wonder among merchants all over the state, many of whom wrote for samples in order to be convinced that such was the case.

In a Previous Advertisement

We made mention of putting on sale 200 dozen heavy weight shirts and drawers for men at 12½ cents per garment. These goods went out of the house at once, but by a mighty effort we have duplicated the stock and we most earnestly wish that all those who came too late before will respond promptly, for when the present stock is done away with there will be no more.

Always Make it a Point

To read our "ads" before laying your paper down. Our sayings and doings have much to do with the purchasing power of your dollar.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.

THE ALL WOOL DAYLIGHT CLOTHING STORE.

1013 to 1019 O Street, Lincoln, Neb.