

Mrs. J. R. Webster was instructed to use every effort for the removal of advertising matter from fences, sidewalks, etc.

On motion of Mrs. McConnell, a vote of thanks was tendered Supt. Jackson for his courtesy in placing the rooms at the disposal of the society for their meetings during the winter. After a general discussion of sidewalks, streets and the work of various standing committees in the near future, the society adjourned to meet in the same place the first Wednesday in December.

The Domestic Economy Department of the Woman's Club which met with Mrs. Milton Scott on Monday afternoon, decided to change its name to "Household Economics," in order to join the National Federation of Household Economics. It was also voted to invite Mrs. Pugh of Omaha, to deliver a lecture with practical illustrations before the Woman's Club, for the public program of this department.

At the close of Mrs. Abbott's paper upon "The value and properties of food" the ladies adjourned to the kitchen where practical illustrations were given by Mrs. Scott. Barbecued ham served on crackers, sweet potato croquettes and pine apple desert were temptingly prepared by the hostess, and eaten by the members of the department.

Adjourned to meet with Mrs. Marsland.

The department of parliamentary law of the Women's Club, will meet Tuesday, November 9th at three o'clock, at the club room, 1115 N street.

The "quiz" will be on the precious lesson, Decorum, points of order, definition and illustration of Main and Subsidiary Motions.

The assigned lesson for the next meeting is Subsidiary Motions, order of precedence, amendments.

This is a large department and it is growing in numbers and interest. Woman's increasing activity in literary matters and participation in public meetings make a practical knowledge of parliamentary methods almost a necessity and club women are availing themselves of this opportunity.

The Century Club met with Mrs. Kirker on Tuesday afternoon. The program opened with quotations from the Merchant of Venice, followed by a discussion on the "Early History of Venice" led by Mrs. Saylor.

The paper of the afternoon was read by Mrs. J. L. Teeters and was an interesting description of the "Queen of the Adriatic."

Adjourned to meet with Mrs. Noble on November 16th.

The Art Department held an interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon in the club room, when Mrs. H. H. Wilson took as her subject "Influence of Dante's Divina Comedia as seen in the Painting and Sculpture of Italy." Many photographs were used to illustrate, and were much appreciated by the large number present.

Current Events in the World of Art was given by the members.

At the meeting of the Woman's Club on Monday next, Mrs. Bushnell will read a paper on "The Annexation of Hawaii," and Mrs. Bryan will tell "Why women should study civics."

The City Federation will give its next program Thursday, Nov. 19th. As the board of directors will convene in annual session immediately after it is desired that all clubs belonging to the federation should have their new delegates elected to attend this meeting.

Wm. M. Buckman vs. Edward T. Huff, et al. 21-257. To Albert Huff, Jessie Huff, his wife, and Thomas L. Teasdale, non-resident defendants:

You and each of you are hereby notified that on September 18th, 1897, William M. Buckman, as plaintiff, began an action against you and other defendants in the District Court of Lancaster county, Nebraska, the object of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage on the following land in said county, to-wit: Lot number 12 in block number 13, in the city of Lincoln, according to the recorded plat thereof, made by Edward T. Huff and Emma E. Huff to the Lombard Investment Company, dated September 1st, 1890, to secure the payment of a promissory note of said Edward T. Huff and Emma E. Huff to said Lombard Investment Company for $1,650.00, on which there is now due $1,780.63 with interest from September 1st, 1895, at ten per cent per annum.

Plaintiff prays for Decree of foreclosure and sale of said land to satisfy said liens as aforesaid, for deficiency judgment and general relief.

You are required to answer plaintiff's petition on or before the 29th day of November, 1897.

WILLIAM M. BUCKMAN, Plaintiff. By S. L. Geisthardt, Attorney. Nov. 13.
