Social and Personal

The musicale given by Mrs. D. A. Campbell last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Richards was a decided success from both a musical and a social standpoint. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. Each guest found a comfortable place to listen to the program either in the beautiful court or its balcony or in the surrounding rooms. Almost six hundred guests were invited from the city and also from Omaha and other cities in the state, and from Chicago. All were eager to hear Mrs. Campbell after her trip abroad and her study in London, and they were not disappointed. Her voice shows great improvement. Her study has brought out all the natural richness and depth in her voice. Mrs. Campbell was assisted by the well known pianist from Chicago, Miss Neely Stevens, and Mrs. Wurzburg and Mrs. Raymond in giving the following program:

- Bach, St. Saens.....Gavotte

Mrs. Campbell wore the beautiful gown in which she made her appearance in London. It is a creation of white satin and lace over turquoise blue silk. The bodice is elaborately trimmed with lace and turquoise chiffon. A great many new and beautiful gowns were noticed in the audience.

After the program the guests were served with fruit punch in the dining room by Misses Ellen and Francis Gere, Eda Ricketts, Lottie and Margaret Whedon, Dora Harley, Blanche Hargreaves, Maule, Rieger, Laura Houtz and Mabel Richards. Mrs. Gere and Mrs. Beesey had charge of the dining room. Those who assisted in receiving and entertaining were Mesdames Lambertson, Babour, A. S. Raymond, Will Green, Ladd, Lippincott, E. P. Brown and Miss Latta. Mr. L. A. Moore from Plattsmouth had charge of the floral decorations. The mantles were banked in chrysanthemums each room having a prevailing colour. The court was in pink and white, the dining room in pink, the library in red and the drawing room in yellow.

The Phi Delta Theta boys gave a stag party for their Fathers on Saturday evening. The boys proved themselves to be most entertaining hosts, and all that could be done was done for the amusement of their guests. The Fathers were delighted with their novel entertainment and went home with clearer and happier ideas of what modern college and fraternity life is.

Mrs. Albinus Nance and Miss Nance gave a pretty kensight on Tuesday afternoon for their guest, Mr. John Lorraine Nance of Ft. Robinson. About fifty guests were present, and enjoyed the afternoon in the beautiful Nance home. Mrs. Charles Lippincott sang during the afternoon, and as usual delighted her listeners. Mrs. Silvers also sang and Mrs. J. T. Nance gave some very fine instrumental selections—among them was one of her own composition.

One of the most delightful luncheons of this season was that given Monday by Mrs. P. M. Hayden, in honor of her visiting sister, Miss Walsh of Port Huron, Michigan. The six course luncheon was served at small tables and afterwards cards were played. Hearts was the game and Miss Mame Carson won the first prize—a cup and saucer painted by Mrs. Hayden. Miss McLaughlin received a hand painted china pin tray for second prize. The heart shaped score cards were also painted by the hostess. The guest were Mesdames—Walter Hargreaves, W. C. Wilson, Maxwell, Griffith; Misses—Walsh, Mame Carson, Rose Carson, Grace Harrison, McLaughlin.

Mrs. John Lorraine Nance of Ft. Robinson, is the guest for a week of Ex. Gov. Nance and family.

Mr. John Dixon of Nebraska City, came up for the Thanksgiving party.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wheeler Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wheeler Jr., Mr. Bert Wheeler and Miss Hattie Cady of Omaha, were down for Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wheeler.

Miss Spurek's class at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is increasing in size and interest. The ladies are learning to play basket ball and barring a few arguments which are a part of every game, the hour of instruction is very short. The class meets at half past ten on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. New members can join at any time. The members of the class at present are: Mesdames Carl Funke, Lew Marshall, Geo. Woods, Chas. Branch, C. L. Burr, F. W. Kelley, W. Hargreaves, Coffroth, Ogden, Muir, Bailey, Irvine, Tilton. Misses Crawford, Carson, Tallant, Garrison, Harris. The children's class is also growing.

Mrs. L. Herzog entertained the B. B. C's at her home Wednesday evening, at whist. Twenty four of the members were present.

The "Friend" Club met with Mrs. M. Weil, Thanksgiving night. This club is unique, as it consists only of members and relatives of one family. High five was the amusement, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Morris Deutech of Beatrice, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schwab for a few days.

The Misses Aitkin entertained a few of their friends on Wednesday evening at whist.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell returned on Wednesday from Plattsmouth. On Monday she gave a concert in Glenwood, and on Tuesday in Plattsmouth. She was accompanied by Miss Terry of Omaha. In both places they were cordially received.
