of his shoulder straps for six months and being deprived of them forever. There is a satisfaction in the knowledge that no official whose place depends on the consent of the people will dare, for many years to come, to grant Captain Lovering any position outside of the strict military succession to commissions and homes. Men like Captain Lovering belong in the German army, where it is allowed to an officer to run a citizen or a private through with his sword if he feels himself insulted or his commands disregarded. Such a man belongs in the army of the half-crazy German who prates of "divine right" and suppresses free speech in the papers and by individuals.

THE THEATRE

The up to-date, hilarious extravaganza "The Broadway Girl," which is coming to the Funke Monday, December 13th has been a success from the start. In every city where the company has ap-peared the theatres have been crowded. Because "The Broadway Girl" is a farce comedy with a plot, introducing the latest novelties. It is a play that contains nothing offensive or tiresome and that everything—song, dance, meledy and dialogue—was gotten up especially for this production and has never been played by any other company. The author of the play is the original Joe Flynn, who besides being responsible for a number of farce comedies, has also written a great number of popular songs, among them being the famous "Down Went McGinty." Delmore & Wilson, two young and popular come lians, have been enasged for the leading roles, Mr. Delmore in the character of Frank Person, an eccentric dude, a part similar to that played by Charles N. Evans in the old favorite, "A Parlor Match," before his retirement. Mr. Wilson will be seen as Mrs. Softheart, the Irish landlady. In this line he is acknowledged to have no this line he is acknowledged to have no superiors. Miss Alice Hanson has been engaged to create the leading soubrette role. She is a charming actress and a beaut'ful woman, as well as a graceful Miss Elinor Young of the faculty of dancer, with a sweet voice of good the Nebraska Conservatory of Music carrying power. The individual talent will give a pianoforte recital in the con- of the performers is what the manageservatory hall Wednesday evening. Dement rely on for success and to that cember 15th, at 8 o'clock. Miss Young endeach member of the company has

MAYER BROTHERS

O gather up handsome, useful and lasting presents from our stock of Clothing, Hats, and Furnishing Goods, for Men, Boys and Chi'dren. We wish to disabuse the minds of the good women of Lincoln regarding the matter of it being so hard to buy a present for a gentleman. There are the substantial gifts for father or brother in the way of suits, overcoats, ulsters, mackintoshes, hats and caps. There are all of those little things that go to make up the dainty part of a man's wardrobe, such as collars, cuffs, suspenders, handkerchiefs, neck-wear, gloves and mittens, bath robes, house coats, and the like, any one of which would be an acceptable present for father or brother as well as for Freddie, "who is only a friend" but who has been so thoughtful in the past that it would seem almost cruel not to rembember him.

We show, this season, by far the best assorted stock of Furnishing Goods in the state. Our stock of Hats and Caps is beautiful. Our clothing unexcelled. It will pay you, therefore, to call at our store when on your Xmas shopping expedition.
