Last Saturday the university girls' basket ball team played Miss Spurek's team which meets in the Union club gymnasium and won by nine points. Score—Gowrs 18, Towns 9. The university girls have had one or more years gymnasium practice; Miss Spurek's team has played barely a dozen times and only one member of it has had any athletic training. The umpires did their best but the rules concerning fouls were not strictly enforced and there was too much talking. The composition of the teams was as follows: Miss Spurek's team—Mrs. Ogden, Miss Anna Spurek, centres; Mrs. Chas. Burr, Mrs. Lew Marshall, forwards; Mrs. Geo. Woods, Mrs. Weir, guards. University girls' team—Ida Taylor, Louise Pound, centres; Daisy Bonnell, Eleonora Miller, forwards; Marie Kennedy, Mabel Dempster, guards.

A novel entertainment was given Monday night by Miss Jessie Dickinson, in celebration of her birthday. The announcement of a vaudeville performance on this occasion awakened pleasant anticipations in the minds of the invited guests, who were not disappointed in the realization of the program provided. In keeping with the unconventional character of the event, a large room had been prepared in a barn at the rear of the Dickinson residence, with one end occupied by a stage furnished with a piano and decorated with palms, ferns and Japanese umbrellas. The two clever boys, Harry Briggs and Carl Smith, whose extraordinary talent is now the subject of much comment, played delightfully on the piano and cello, the Misses Smith sang, Roy St. Clair, the boy tenor, made a decidedly favorable impression, Mr. Robert Cuscaden played the violin and the charming hostess herself added to the enjoyment of the guests with several songs. The strong attraction of the evening, however, may be said, without detracting from the excellence of the others, to be the little nine-year-old "coon," billed as "The Original Alagretti," whose banjo playing and childish darkey antics aroused great enthusiasm. A delicious supper was served at five tables, designated respectively as the Violet, Japanese, Red, Pink and American Beauty, from the nature of their decorations. Among the guests were: Messrs and Mesdames Chas. T. Kounitz, J. E. Summers, Jr., Guiou, Mercer and Dickinson; Misses Kountze, Peck, Andrees, Webster, Florence Morse, Parker, Palmer, Emily Wakeley, Doane, Hoagland, Mount and Cowin; Messrs. Barker, Creigh, Herman and Luther Kountz, Will Rogers, Palmer, Robert and John Patrick, Doane, Hoagland, Canfield, Frank Hamilton, Cowin and Ed Morsman.—Omaha Excelsior.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. N. S. Harwood gave a brilliant and thoroughly enjoyable reception for Miss Helen Harwood, who has just returned from a year in Paris. Guests were interested in every room by the many beautiful pictures and curios which Miss Harwood brought home with her. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames A. S. Raymond, Bailey and Mitchell, who guided the guests to the refreshment tables. The coffee table, done in red, was presided over by Mrs. G. M. Lambertson and Mrs. W. C. Wilson, who were assisted by Mrs. Polk and Mrs. Turner. The ice table, in pink, was presided over by Miss Joy Webster, who was assisted by Miss Blanche Garten, Miss Marion Smith, Miss Daisy Cochran and Miss Anne Miner.

Decidedly one of the most beautiful affairs of the winter was the informal 5 o'clock tea given by Mrs. J. W. McDonald Friday afternoon. It might be called a violet tea as the decorations and all colours were violet. Each guest was given a bunch of violets, which had been sent from Washington, D. C. Tea was served by Mrs. McDonald in her dainty and exquisite pink and gold drawing room. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Leonard, and Mrs. and Miss Turner of Muscie, Ind., and her sister, Miss Regna. Those present were Mesdames Wright, Robinson, Sewell, Silver, Cheney, Hargreaves, Leonard, Turner, Buckstaff, Beeson, Tilton, D. E. Thompson, Lew Marshall, E. P. Holmes, J. H. Harley, S. Dundy of Omaha, David Thompson of Washington, D. C. and Miss Turner.

The very large number of students who attended the reception given by the ladies of the faculty on last Saturday evening proved that such affairs would be more acceptable the more often they came. It is good for the students and causes a great deal of pleasure. The guests were very graciously received by Miss Smith, Mrs. Bessey, Mrs. Gertrude Hodgman, Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. MacLean. The ice were daintily served by the ladies of the faculty, Mrs. Hinman, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Carleton, Mrs. Avery, Mrs. Ansley, Mrs. Chardor, Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. Wolcott.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holm entertained the Iowa Whist club on Monday evening. Contrary to their usual custom, the guests were invited to come at seven o'clock to partake of an elegant tea. Afterwards the games were taken up as usual. In addition to club members there were present Mr. and Mrs. Teeters, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and Dr. and Mrs. Bailey.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity entertained a few of their young lady friends at the Glee club concert on Friday night. Those composing the party were Misses Helen Welch, Selma Noren, Elith Schwartz, Ethel Tukey, Fannie Cole, Blanche Hargreaves, Mary Tukey of Omaha and Mrs. McCreery. Messrs. Haggard, Randall, Whedon, Russell, Welshens, McCreery, Tukey, Snoddy, Oury.

A number of Phi Kappa Psi made up a party for the Glee club concert on Friday. Those in the party were Misses Woods, Helen Woods, Winifred Hill, Laura Bridge, Margaret Wirger, Nelle Holbrook, Enda Polk, Frances Cunningham, Joy Webster. Messrs. Pearce, Weeks, White, Clark, Frickie, Wilson, Reed, Williams, Row, Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown gave an elegant seven o'clock dinner on Monday evening. It was a pink dinner, everything—lights, linen, flowers, service in pink. The guests were Mrs. and Miss Turner of Muscie, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, Judge and Mrs. Irvine, Mrs. Wade of Omaha and Mr. Coffroth.

A large number of skaters took advantage of the good ice at the Park during the early part of the week. Several parties were formed who enjoyed the pastime until the last car left and then went to the home of one of the party where an enjoyable luncheon or chafing dish supper was served.

Dr. and Mrs. Ladd gave a dinner on Thursday evening for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Purdy of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell, Miss Latta and Mr. Ladd of Whitehall,
