Social and Personal

One of the most brilliant receptions in which Lincoln society has taken part for many a day was given by Mrs. D. E. Thompson at her beautiful home on Tuesday afternoon. Artificial lights shone mildly through the pink and red shades, casting a soft glow over the rooms and the elegant gowns of the guests. The pink-red effect was emphasized by the American beauties which were used profusely in adorning the rooms. Palms screened Prof. Hagenow's orchestra, and the soft, sweet music filled the stately halls. Mrs. Thompson, in a beautiful gown of grey grenadine over grey silk, with violets, was strikingly handsome as she received her guests in the drawing room. She was assisted by Mrs. W. M. Leonard and Mrs. S. H. Burnham. Mrs. Leonard wore pink net over pink silk, and Mrs. Burnham black net over grey silk. Those who further assisted in entertaining the guests were Mrs. John B. Wright, Mrs. C. F. Ladd, Mrs. Rudy of Sioux City and Mrs. Gasman of Chicago. Miss Burnham, in a gown of blue organdie over blue silk, presided gracefully at the punch bowl. In the dining-room Mrs. J. W. MacDonald, in a handsome gown of white satin with spangled bodice, and Mrs. Coltra of St. Louis, in grey silk, served the dainty refreshments. They were assisted by Mrs. A. G. Beeson, Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves, Mrs. F. W. Brown and Mrs. McDaniels of Omaha. About one hundred and fifty guests enjoyed Mrs. Thompson's hospitality.

Mrs. A. W. Janzen will give a kensington Saturday afternoon for the officers and board of the Matinee Musicale club.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Edelman entertained for their daughter Clara. "Progressive Jogramachy and music were the amusements.

The Round Table met Monday evening with Mr. G. M. Lambertson. "Authority and Religion" was the topic under discussion. Refreshments were served after the program.

Chapter K, of the P. E. O. was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Johnson, 26th and R streets. A guessing game took the place of a literary program. Mrs. O'Connell won the first prize. Refreshments were served. Mrs. West will entertain the club in two weeks.

The current events department of the Woman's club held a social meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Loomis. Each member invited one guest who was not a member of any other department of the club. Besides the current events a paper on "Song-birds" was heard. Refreshments and a social time followed the program.

Members of the university alumnae will be interested to hear that Mr. A. B. Coddling of York, has received a letter from his son Roy in Sierra Leone, Africa which contains the news that he is well and that he expects to sail for Liverpool from whence to embark for his home in this country next September.

The Woman's club gave a reception on Tuesday afternoon for the Woman's club of University Place. Their club rooms were decorated with palms and roses. Mrs. Allen's Mandolin club furnished music. The guests were received by Mrs. Archibald Scott, Miss Eliot, Mrs.

M. A. Newmark, Mrs. H. W. Kelley, Mrs. O. M. Stonebraker and Miss Harriett Towne. Dainty refreshments were served under the supervision of the department of Household Economics. This reception was the most largely attended and the most successful ever given by the club.

Mrs. Wm. Lawlor was surprised by her friends last Saturday evening, her birthday anniversary. The evening was whiled away with high five followed by refreshments. The guests were:

Messrs and Mesdames
H. H. Younguy, H. H. Barth,
J. D. Parker, W. Hopkins,
F. Parks, J. Nash.

Geo. Lotz.

Mrs. Condon, Miss Lawlor, Dr. Kiser.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond gave a reception after the concert Wednesday evening for the stars, Mrs. Katherine Fisk of Chicago and Miss Rita Lorton of Nebraska City. Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond was also in the receiving line. About two hundred guests called. Mesdames A. E. Hargreaves and H. H. Wilson assisted in the entertainment of the guests. Mesdames F. W. Taylor and W. B. Ogden served coffee and sandwiches, punch and macaroons in the dining room. The table was beautiful with its decorations of lilies and spirea. They were assisted by Misses Helen Harwood, Blanche and Gladys Hargreaves and Ruth Raymond. The reception was decidedly pleasant and a complete success.

Mr. Turpin will give a series of afternoon dancing parties this spring. The first occurred last Saturday in Courier hall. Judge and Mrs. Irvine and Dr. and Mrs. Bailey chaperoned the party. Those present were:

One of the prettiest parties of the season was the cotillion given at the Lincoln by the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity on Friday evening. The hall had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The lights were shaded with pink and lavender, the fraternity colors. Each chandelier was draped with the colors of one of the women's fraternities. Between the chandeliers were streamers of the university colors. The south end of the hall was made beautiful with the Phi Psi colors, which were fastened with their emblem, the shield. Candabra heightened the effect further. The ordinary, where coffee and sandwiches were served during the intermission, was decorated with roses and colors. The parlors were given a more cozy
