One of the pleasantest parties this season was that given on Tuesday morning at the beautiful home of Mrs. Buckstaff by Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Tilton and Mrs. Buckstaff for the ladies visiting here. The game was six handed euchre and proved to be unusually interesting. Miss Mae Burr was the most successful, Mrs. Billmeyer won the second prize and Mrs. Leonard the third. After the game a dainty luncheon, fitting for a morning party, was served. For several hours the ten tables were surrounded by as happy and enthusiastic a party as ever assembled. Each hostess is always a delightful entertainer by herself, but when the skill of the three was combined the result is especially happy.

The senior promenade was given at the Lincoln hotel on Friday evening. On account of some of the cadets being called out the number was not so great as expected, still the party was a success both socially and financially. The committee had decorated the hall with large national and Cuban flags, and in the long corridors were stacked guns and sabres. When the orchestra played one of the national airs the enthusiasm rose to a high pitch. Mr. Walt's orchestra furnished good music. Ices were served in the ordinary which was decorated with class and university colors. The committee who were so faithful in working up the party consisted of Misses Cropey, Barber, Farnham, Noren, Wilson; Messrs. Hebdy, chairmrn, Haggard Master of ceremonies, Robbins, Barber, Beinsap, Wilkinson, Morrison.

Mrs. George H. Clark gave a Kensington on Monday afternoon for her guests, Mrs. Corbin and Mrs. Bradley of Eaton Rapids, Mich., who are just returning from a winter in California. Actuated by the spirit of the day Mrs. Clark decorated her rooms with the national colors. The dining room was especially pretty.
