The wedding of Miss Olive Latta to Dr. E. G. Watson of Friend will take place on Wednesday evening, June 8, at the First Presbyterian church.

The wedding of Miss Josephine Winger to Mr. S. M. True of Tecumseh will take place at high noon on Wednesday, June 1, at the residence of the bride's parents.

The members of the First Congregational church gave a reception on Tuesday evening in the church parlors for their new minister and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Manes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Minnie Hardenburgh, to Mr. John Oswald Work, on Wednesday, June 1, at 4 o'clock at their home, 1743 L street.

Prof. and Mrs. Saylor entertained the senior class of the high school very pleasantly on Saturday evening. Games which called out all the wit of the bright seniors were enjoyed. Elegant refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. L. Fairbrother gave a Kensington on Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Mesdames Manes, Swan, P. V. M. Raymond, Campbell, Jones, Doolittle, Harris, Kimball, Harwood Du Tiel; Misses Campbell, Furst, Kingsley and Du Tiel.

The Kensington club of University Place gave its last banquet of the season on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlos. The house was beautifully decorated and the table appointments were exquisite. An elegant course dinner was served. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Hursey, O'Neil, Taylor, Don Carlos, Prof. and Mrs. Rose, Prof. and Mrs. Alabaster, Dr. and Mrs. Green.

Miss Ina Ensign entertained on Saturday evening at cards. Music by the hostess and guests added pleasure to the evening. The guests were Miss Mabel Hagenow, Silence Dales, Dora Bachelor, Messrs. Benton Dales, Charles Hagenow, James Dales, Irving Andrus of Crete and Mr. and Mrs. Manahan.

A number of young people enjoyed a wheel ride through the country on Wednesday afternoon and evening, stopping for luncheon near Lincoln park. Those in the party were Misses Marguerite Winger, Helen Woods, Jessie Lansing, Laura Bridge, Blanche Gerten; Messrs. Collett, Haeker, Wiggenhorn, Reed, Fricke and Barber.

The marriage of Miss Hattie Hardin and Mr. Rollins A. Emerson occurred on Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Dr. H. O. Rowlands in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The bride wore white silk and carried brides roses. Both are well known in Lincoln, having been students of the university. The groom has been living for a few years in Washington, D. C., and it is that city that they will make their future home. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Miss Frances Rector gave a pleasant card party on Saturday evening for her guest, Miss Brister, of St. Joseph, Mo. The prizes were won by Miss Brister and Mr. Robinett. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the games. The guests were:

Mrs. O. C. Link gave a novel and particularly pretty party on Friday afternoon. It was a musicale, the music was furnished by the Wesleyan quartet, and all the numbers were national airs. In keeping with this the programs were in red, white and blue. These were distributed by Miss Ruth Bryan. The house was decorated profusely with flags and the national colors. The flowers were all white. In the dining room ice cream of the three stripes was served by Miss Olive Latta, and lemonade by Mrs. Mallalieu. They were assisted by Miss Marguerite Winger, Rose Foster, Winifred Hill, Florence McGahey and Gertrude Chambers. Mrs. Link was assisted in receiving and entertaining the guests by Mrs. Latta and Miss Irwin and Miss Florence Outcait. The display of patriotism was admirable, one could not but be stimulated by such surroundings. The party was a success in every particular and reflected great credit on the hostess.

The Sigma Chi boys gave a most enjoyable evening to some of their friends on Wednesday. Some of them enjoyed an elegant dinner at the Sigma Chi home, then afterward the entire party went to the dog show. After the performance the party adjourned to the chapter home and danced until a late hour. The evening was an informal one and all the more pleasant on account of that. The boys are good entertainers and were at their best on Wednesday evening. The guests were:
