PERKINS-GRAVES.

On Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock Miss Grace Perkins was married to Mr. George Graves by the Rev. F. M. Williams, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church.

The wedding was a very quiet one, only the relatives of the bride and groom being present. The bride wore her traveling gown. The house was prettily decorated with palms and sweet peas. After supper there was a reception until the couple left on the six o'clock train for the east. The bride is well and most favorably known in Lincoln, having lived here most of her life. The groom was once a resident of Lincoln, but is now in the insurance business in Valparaiso. Both have many warm friends who extend to them heartiest congratulations, and best wishes for a life of happiness and prosperity.

Miss Laura Houts gave a dinner on Wednesday for Miss Baum who is her guest. Those in attendance were Misses Clara Hammond, Mabel Baum, Messrs Roy Sawyer, George Bartlett, Harry Leming and Harry Evans of Bloomington, Ill.

Some young people enjoyed a picnic at the home of Mrs. Baird on Tuesday afternoon. A delicious luncheon was served on the lawn in the cool of the evening. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Lamberton and Mrs. Baird. Those present were Misses Margery and Nancy Lamberton, Mabel Stone of Hastings, Louie Hergreaves, Messrs Raymond, Lau, Fawell and Stein.

The La Veta Whist club had a picnic at Lincoln park Wednesday afternoon. Just before they were ready to go home little Kate Field slipped from a horse she was riding and broke her arm. Among those present were the following and their children:

Messrs and Mesdames Field, Wier, John Gillilan, John Davis, M. J. Waugh, C. T. Boggs, T. W. Boggs, E. Hallett, I. Lansing, Kirker, W. A. Lindsey, O. C. Bell, Misses Boggs and Coffyn.

Miss Laura Houts gave a dinner on Tuesday evening for Miss Mabel Baum, of Salt Lake City, and Mr. Harry Evans of Bloomington, Ill.

The table was done in pink, and was most dainty and delicate in every detail. The guests were Misses Ura Kelley of Omaha, Mabel Baum, Mabel Richards, Messrs Harry Evans, Edgar Morrill and Hugh Edmisten.

Mrs. H. E. Lewis gave a five o'clock tea on Wednesday evening for her niece, Miss May Lewis of Boston, who is spending the summer in Lincoln. Her guests were Mrs. E. H. Burnham, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. C. L. Burr, Mrs. Outcalt, Mrs. Lamberton, Mrs. B. F. Bailey, Miss Louise of Glasgow, Ky., Miss Miss Sadie Burnham, Miss Belle Lewis, Miss Alice Wing, Miss Bessie Wing.

A picnic will be given this afternoon for Miss Rae Miles of Missouri Valley, Ia. Among the guests will be Misses Jessie Outcalt, Pauline Meyer, Lella Hunt, Daisy Hargreaves, Carrie Weesner; Detrick Lau, Alex Lau, Isaac Raymond, Frank Brown, Arthur Raymond.

The party will be chaperoned by Mae Burr and Miss Lillian Tuka of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Blish, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Will Owen Jones and Misses Ellen and Frances Gers left on Tuesday for Green Lake, near Ripan, Wis., to rest for several weeks. In about three weeks they will be joined by other Lincolnites. This coterie is the Lake Osakis group of last summer. It has not changed its name though the members have deserted the locality of Osakis.

A party of young people rode out to the grove beyond the penitentiary on their wheels Wednesday evening, and carried their lunch with them. The ride was just long enough to give a good appetite, and the evening was delightfully cool, and the luncheon delicious. Afterward in the dusk of the evening, the party rode back to the home of Miss Seabrook and spent a pleasant evening.

The picnic and ride was given for Miss Rena Smith of Ohio, who is visiting here. The members of the party were Misses Lillian Smith, May Murry, Lou Ayers, Flora Hartley, Etta Parrish, Mabel Parrish, Gertrude Hanson, Martha Seabrook, Rena Smith, Messrs Dan De Putron, Peter McNickel, Dr. Chas. Kerns, Ward Woodruff, John Martin, Percy Pain, Taylor Burt, Clay Musselwright, Victor Turpin.

Miss May McGreer gave a pleasant picnic Tuesday evening at Lincoln park for her guest, Miss Stella Grigor, of Concordia, Kan. A dainty luncheon was served about six o'clock, and kodak pictures were taken as the guests were seated around the table. After luncheon the switchback was brought into use; and later, although it was very warm, dancing was enjoyed in the theatre building. Those present were:

Miss Kate Stoddard, for several years principal of the Clinton school, has been offered the superintendency of the schools at Highland park, a suburb of Chicago. Miss Stoddard is now in Indiana and when her friends heard from her had not decided to accept the offer. They hope she will not do so, as she would be sorely missed from Lincoln and from the schools.
