

Married in Omaha on Tuesday, July 26, Edwin H. Wilkinson and Miss Eda Carpenter, at noon at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Bacon, 2825 Charles street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Lampe, of the Presbyterian theological seminary. Mrs. Clem Steiner and Miss Meyer of Lincoln were also guests of Dr. and Mrs. Bacon at the time. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson came directly to Lincoln and will defer their wedding trip till a little later. Mr. Wilkinson has been an employe of the Burlington freight department in Lincoln for several years, coming here from Broken Bow. Mr. Wilkinson was a prominent member of the Lincoln Light Infantry and if he had weighed a little heavier would have now been camping at Chickamauga instead of enjoying his honeymoon. Miss Carpenter is the daughter of the late Dr. Carpenter, and has been well known in Lincoln society. Many friends of both the pair wish them happiness.

Dr. and Mrs. Watson (nee Latta) have returned from their wedding journey and arrived in Lincoln Tuesday. They visited most of the points of interest and during the latter part of their trip, along the St. Lawrence river, they experienced none of the disagreeable weather which waited them here. Mr. and Mrs. Watson visited Washington, New York, Montreal, Quebec and other points in Canada, along the great lakes and among the Thousand Isles. They also stopped a few days in Chicago and St. Paul on their way home.

Miss Mabel M. Lange, accompanied by her friend, Miss Mattie Anderson, both of St. Louis, arrived in the city Tuesday to remain for some time visiting friends and relatives. They are at present visiting Mrs. E. E. Bennett at 1525 A street. Miss Lange is a young musician of great promise, at present being a pupil of Prof. Frank Benedict, so recently heard here.

A PIAZZA PARTY.

The beautiful Sadie, s father
Has a newly painted front piazza—
He has a - piazza.
When with dust and soot 'twas tainted
He had that front piazza painted,
That tainted—piazza painted.

Edward called last night, perchance,
Arrayed in comely ice-cream pants,
Last night—perchance—in gorgeous pants.
Engaging Sadie in a chat—
On that piazza down he sat,
In chat—they sat.

And when the evening scarce had passed
He tried to rise, but, Oh! stuck fast.
At last—stuck fast
Fair Sadie shrieked, "It is the paint,"
And fainted in a deadly faint—
This saint—did faint.

Edward sits there 'cen this day,
He cannot tear himself away,
Away? Nay, nay.
His pants are firm, the paint is dry,
He's nothing else to do but die—
To die—oh, my.
