The marriage of Miss Hatti Cady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Cady, to Mr. William Heroert Wheeler was solemnized at All Saints' Episcopal church Tuesday evening, August 16. The ceremony was attended by four hundred representatives of the leading families of Omaha and a number of guests from out of town. The bride looked charming in a handsome gown of white crepe lisse over taffeta. The guimpe was prettily barred and the skirt was ruffled with insertion and puffing. The bride carried a bouquet of white garden lillies tied with a white satin ribbon. Miss Helen Cady, younger sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pretty dress of white organdie over white silk and carried tinger lillies, tied with a ribbon of deep crimson. The bridesmaids were the Misses Mattie Hayward of Nebraska City and Flora Webster of Omaha. Their gowns were white dotted swiss over white silk and they carried bouquets of tiger lillies. The groom's best man was his brother, Mr. Daniel Wheeler, jr., and he was attended by the following ushers: Messrs. John Dixon of Nebraska City, Stockton, Heath, Wing, B. Allen and Charles S. Young of Omaha. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas J. Mackay, D. D., rector of All Saints' church, assisted by Rev. H. B. Burgess, D. D., of Plattsmouth. The full marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church was used and the bride was given in marriage by her father. The church was beautifully decorated, the chancel being banked with palms, cut flowers and asparagus ferns. After the wedding the bride's parents gave a reception at their home, 3122 Chicago street. It was attended by the relatives and intimate friends of the families to the number of seventy-five. The parlors and dining room were beautifully decorated with variegated sweet peas and La France roses. A rich display of presents filled a large room. Among the out of town guests were: Hon. M. L. Hayward of Nebraska City, the republican nominee for governor, Congressman David H. Mercer and Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Dixon of Nebraska City, and John Mallalieu of Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler left at midnight for a trip of several weeks through Colorado. They were accompanied to the train by the bridal party and a number of other friends and given a merry farewell. The bride is one of the favorite members of Omaha society and is a graduate of one of the leading girls' schools of New York city. The groom is chief clerk to the committee on grounds and public buildings of the house of representatives and prior to his appointment to that position was connected with the office of clerk of the federal court here. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Wheeler, one of the pioneer families of Omaha. On the convening of congress Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler will remove to Washington.

for her guest, Miss Louise Taylor of Geneseo, Ill. The lawn was prettily decorated with rugs, cushions, hammocks, easy chairs and all such comfortable things. Refreshments were daintily served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. C. H. Gere. The guests were Misses Dewey of Kansas City, Hutchinson of Indiana, Lewis of Boston, Lange of St. Louis, Jessie Lansing, Blanche Garten, Jessie Leland, Helen Nance, Katherine Odell, May Lansing, Josephine Lottridge, Lucy Green, Blossom Williamson, Grace Ashton, Ada Heaton, Florence Farwell, Emily Weeks, Charlotte Clark, Leola Vancil, Blanche Hargreaves, Maysie Ames, Frances Gere, Stella Elliott, Margaret Winger, Laura Houtz, Clara Hammond, May Whiting, Anna Broady, Mabel Lindley, Ena Ricketta, Maude Hammond, Mariel Gere, Adeloyd Whiting, Ellen Gere, Florence Winger, Mrs. John Lottridge, Mrs. Harry Evans, Mrs. Harry Harley.

Mrs. Guy Brown, who has just returned from Chickamauga, reports the Lincoln boys to be far above the average in health. They have given up hope now of seeing active service and are merely waiting until they shall be mustered out. They have taken their disappointment philosophically and do not let interfere with their enjoyment. Mrs. Brown was present at the grand review, where the entire forces of infantry, cavalry and artillery were in line. It was a sight such as is seldom seen in a life time. The Nebraska boys were near at the head of the procession, being the second regiment to pass the review stand, and their drilling and general appearance was commended by everyone. General Breckinridge told Colonel Otts they were the finest and healthiest lot of fellows that passed in the review. It took over three hours for the entire division to pass, and the men were marched rapidly. As soon as a regiment passed the reviewing officers it went off the field at double quick time. Notwithstanding this fact the line had to mark time once. Mrs. Brown visited the hospital and found the boys who were there in good spirits and satisfied with the treatment they were receiving, though there was an occasional complaint on some minor detail. Outside of the review Mrs. Brown said the life was one of ordinary routine, and nothing happened beyond what was recorded in the letters from the camp.

Dr. Robert Bowie Owens, E. E., who has gone to Montreal to fill a distinguished position in McGill university, will be a great loss to the Nebraska university as well as to the society of Lincoln, of which he has been an honored member. In town and college life Professor Owens has had a prominent place. He possesses to an unusual degree that quality of mind and heart which has made him popular in the gayest and largest assemblies and a beloved member of a more intimate circle. His departure is a matter of sincere regret to all who have had the honor of his acquaintance.

Miss Dora Harley gave a delightful lawn party on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell have gone to the lakes to remain until autumn.
