

The national convention of women's fraternity, Kappa Kappa Gamma, which convenes biennially, will be held next week with Sigma chapter of the Nebraska University. Most of the delegates will arrive on Tuesday. The Lincoln Hotel has been made the headquarters for the delegates and visitors, the grand council will stay at the Phi Kappa Psi chapter house, which has very kindly been placed at the disposal of the young ladies. Many of the alumni of this chapter and visitors from other chapters have already arrived and are being entertained at the homes of resident members. The first reception, which is for the members of the fraternity only, will be held at the home of Miss Florence Winger, on Tuesday evening. On Wednesday evening there will be a picnic tea at the home of Miss Ena Ricketts. Thursday evening a musicale will be given at the home of Miss Mabel Richards; Friday evening a garden party at the home of Miss Lottie Whedon, Saturday a reception at the home of Miss Clara Hammond. On Sunday special services will be held at the Episcopal church. On Tuesday evening the "Farewell Banquet" will be held at the Lincoln Hotel. Miss Ena Ricketts will act as toastmistress. On Wednesday, August 31, a special car will take the Kappas and the members of all other Greek letter fraternities to Omaha. The Rock Island has kindly arranged to have a special car go and come from Omaha at any time which will suit the young ladies. On Friday afternoon, August 28, the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity will give a complimentary reception for the Kappa Kappa Gammas at the home of Miss Emily Weeks. On the mornings and afternoons of all the days of the week business sessions will be held in the University chapel, which has been decorated for the young women by Mrs. C. H. Gere and Mrs. L. C. Richards.

The grand council of Kappa Kappa Gamma reached Lincoln on Friday evening and were taken to the Phi Kappa Psi chapter house, where they will make their headquarters. Deputies and visitors also came at the same time. The members of the grand council are Miss Bertha Richmond of West Medford, Mass.; Carla Sargent of Evanston, Ill.; Annabel Collins of Iowa Falls, Ia.; Mignon Talbot of Columbus, O.; Josephine Hull, of Ithaca, N. Y.

Mrs. H. H. Wilson, who is dean of the women of the state university, was initiated into Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity at the home of Miss Mabel Richards, on Friday afternoon. Besides the active chapter, several of the alumnae and visitors from other chapters, who have come to attend the convention, were present. After the ceremony a light luncheon was served and a short business meeting was held.

Mrs. Mark Tilton gave a very informal but a most enjoyable card party on Thursday evening. The tables were placed out on the lawn, where it was delightfully cool and pleasant. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames. J. B. Wright, Will Wilson, Dr. C. F. Ladd, Buckstaff, J. R. Green, A. G. Beeson, Walter Hargreaves, Wm. Leonard, Ogden, Mrs. Dundy of Chicago, Mrs. Holcomb of Chicago, Miss Mame Price, Mr. O. Rodgers.

Miss Helen Warriner of Marion, O., will come on Tuesday to attend the convention of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She will be the guest of Mrs. Walter Hargreaves while in the city.

Mrs. R. J. Green gave a dinner on Thursday evening for Mrs. Holcomb of Chicago, who is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Leonard. The dainty decorations were of sweet peas.

Mrs. Walter Hargreaves gave an elegant dinner party last Saturday evening for only a few friends. The flower used was the American beauty.

Mrs. Walter Hargreaves gave a dinner on Friday evening for a few friends.

Miss Ura Kelley is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Etta Erb is visiting in Aurora and Hastings.

Miss Dewey of Kansas City is Mrs. L. W. Garoutte.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ames have gone to Portland, Ore.

Mrs. S. M. Benedict has been visiting in Colorado Springs.

Miss Mae Colson of Fremont is the guest of Miss Laura Houtz.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Richardson are visiting in Colorado Springs.

Miss Alice Maitland of Denver is the guest of Miss Florence Winger.

Miss Nellie Holdbrook of Falls City is the guest of Miss Mabel Richards.

Dr. Leonhardt and family returned Wednesday from a month's outing at Lake Okoboji.

Mr. Williard Yates left on Thursday for Kansas City to visit a few days with relatives.

Mr. Frank Cowdrey has gone to Chicago and some of the summer resorts on the lakes to spend a month.

Misses Blanche Garten and Nelia Cochrane, who have been recuperating in the Rockies, have returned home.

Miss Roddy of Nebraska City has been visiting Miss Ethel Davis. The two young ladies spend today at the exposition.

Miss Eleanor Raymond returned on Thursday evening from an extended visit with friends in Ohio, Kentucky and Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sessions of Minneapolis, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. George H. Simmons and other old time Lincoln friends.

Miss Edith Striker of East Orange, N. J., one of the delegates to the Kappa Kappa Gamma convention, is the guest of the Misses Gere.

Dr. J. R. Haggard has returned to Lincoln with his son Ralph, who was taken sick with typhoid fever at Camp Thomas, Chickamauga park.

Mr. Owen Oakley returned on Friday from Colorado, where he has been spending the month outing in Colorado Springs, Manitou and Denver.

Mr. John Wilkes, who has been visiting his cousin, Miss Florence Putnam, and Mr. Willard Yates, left for New York on Thursday morning.

Mrs. C. E. Bentley left for an extended trip in the east on Wednesday. Before her return she will visit her son, Dr. I. M. Bentley of Cornell, a graduate of our state university.

Miss Louise Taylor of Geneseo, Ill., is the guest of Miss Dora Harley. She will remain during the convention of Kappa Kappa Gamma, of which fraternity she is a member.

Mrs. Herzog gave a small card party on Wednesday evening. She is a most charming hostess and the hours passed quickly. Delicious refreshments were served after the games.

Mr. E. A. Thurber writes from - at's that the American sentiment in that city, though as a rule very conservative, favors keeping at least a portion of the Philippines, if not all.

Mrs. Ross Curtice is entertaining Miss Todd of Kentucky. They have sent their cards to their friends announcing that they will be at home

Style and Beauty

Are two important points to be considered in the selection of Fall and Winter Dress Goods. We are showing some of the handsomest patterns ever sent out from the loom, all the newest weaves in plain and fancy patterns; in short the cream of the season's artistic novelties. Our line of Black Dress Goods is especially complete and comprises all the latest patterns in Crepons, Cheviots, Henriettas, Serges, Satin Soleils, Drap de Almas, Poplins, Jacquards, Mohairs, Whipcords and Storm Serges. The latest things out in French and English Novelty Cloths in all wool and silk and wool mixtures and all the new colors and shades; very dressy goods at reasonable prices. We make a specialty of single pattern pieces in these goods, only enough for one suit, no two alike. Look them over while the stock is complete and make a selection for fall wear. There will be nothing better or more tasty on the market this season. Our new stock of Taffeta Changeable silks is on the shelves and ready for your inspection. All the new shades and combinations in blues, browns, greens, reds, etc. We carry a good stock of dress linings, any quality you want, at the right price. In fact prices are marked close this season and we are offering exceptional values in every department of the store. This is a good time to buy.

W. H. Lacey & Son,
1217 O Street.

DR. C. A. SHOEMAKER, Private Hospital

Special attention given to all DISEASES OF WOMEN.
Every Convenience for Pelvic and Abdominal Surgery.

Turkish, Electric and Massage Baths for ladies. The Swedish Movements, in their most recent developments, by the trained masseuse in charge.

Graduate Nurse in attendance. Gorner Eleventh and K Streets.

on Wednesdays and Fridays during August and September.

Mrs. Anna Williams and son and daughter of Neosho, Mo., who have been attending the exposition for several days arrived here last Sunday, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hallett. Mrs. Williams is a cousin of Mrs. Hallett.

Mrs. D. D. Muir gave a luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Scipio Dundy of Omaha. The guests were Mrs. R. J. Greene, Miss Price, Mrs. Beeson, Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Dundy, and Miss Harris.

Dr. Hawes and family of Fairbury, and Miss Clara Treglown of Wilkesbarre, Pa., have been visiting for the past ten days in Lincoln with County Superintendent Hawes and his mother and sister.

Misses Daisy and Amy Greenbaum of Burlington, and Mrs. Langsdorf of St. Louis, are the guests of Mrs. Newmark. They, with Mrs. M. Ackerman and Miss Elsie Ackerman spent Tuesday in Omaha visiting the exposition.

Judge Holmes has returned from his trip to Mexico, where he went to visit his son, John Farwell. The judge found him pleasantly situated at San Luis Potosi, where he is a consular agent. Judge Holmes says that Mexico is rapidly being Americanized.

Mrs. James H. Canfield and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Columbus, O., are visiting friends in Lincoln. Miss Canfield has come as a delegate to the Kappa Kappa Gamma convention, and is the guest of Miss Jane Macfarland. They will return during the first week in September.

Misses Lottie and Margaret Whedon

will return on Tuesday from Belleville, O., where they have been spending the month. Miss Hattie Maine of Des Moines, Ia., will reach Lincoln the same day to be the guest of Miss Whedon during the Kappa Kappa Gamma convention.

Mr. John K. Barr has received word that his daughter, Miss Anne Barr and Miss Clara Walsh have reached New York safely. Miss Barr has been studying in Sweden and Germany, and Miss Walsh has been studying art in Paris. They will spend a short time in the east before returning home.

Miss Sadie Burnham gave a dinner party on Wednesday evening for Mr. John Wilkes, the guest of Mr. Willard Yates. The table was delicately appointed and decorated with flowers. The hostess was charming as she gracefully served her guests. After dinner the evening was spent pleasantly on the veranda. The guests were Misses Mary Lewis of Kentucky, Helen Nance and Louise Burnham; Messrs. John Wilkes, Willard Yates, Guy Hurlbut, Owen Oakley.

Best Place in Omaha
TO BUY Ladies' Cloaks, Fur, Ready-made Suits, Skirts, Waists, Underwear, Neck Wear, Belts and all kinds of ladies furnishings.
Lowest prices—Desirable qualities—Polite attention—Everybody invited. Look for this sign.

O.K. SCOFIELD
CLOAK & SUIT CO.
1510 Douglas St., Omaha, Neb.