

Leonard and Miss Putnam welcomed the callers in the refreshment rooms, which were in pink with vines and palms in profusion. Ices were served from a block of ice. Mrs. Hewitt has not visited Lincoln since Doctor Hewitt was the beloved rector of the Episcopal church here, and it was a great pleasure to meet her again. Lincoln people will be glad to know that Dr. Hewitt likes Columbus, Ohio, and is very much liked in return.

Mrs. Ross Curtice gave a card party on Wednesday afternoon at the pretty home 1942 G street. Hearts and progressive euchre were played at alternate tables. While the ladies were playing a large music box played an accompaniment. The guests were: Mesdames F. W. Brown, C. L. Burr, Brock Barnard, Coffroth, Crancer, Clark, Dorgan, Ewing, C. Funke, Holm, Hargreaves, Jansen, Kirby, Ladd, Mohrenstecher, Muir, Mitchell, Marshall, R. H. Oakley, Patrick, Price, Richter, Smyser, Tilton, D. E. Thompson, Welch, W. C. Wilson, Woods.

Mrs. Arthur W. Lane and Mrs. John Doane gave a reception at the home of Mrs. Doane on Friday, the 14th. About two hundred invitations were issued to the ladies of Plymouth church and vicinity. The ladies who assisted in the parlors were: Mesdames Z. Townsend, J. A. Lippincott, J. A. Devore, D. E. Green, H. C. M. Burgees, J. W. Bell and W. T. Stevens. Mrs. W. A. Selleck presided over the ices assisted by Misses Lucy Haywood, Carol Churchill, Jeanette Green and Evelyn Hoagland. The reception was a church and neighborhood function to promote the social life in the church and neighborhood, and was very successful.

On Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sanderson at 1524 South Seventeenth street, the choir and members of the music committee of the Trinity M. E. church held a delightful social meeting. During the evening Miss Florence Robinson gave a piano solo, Mrs. Jewell sang "Blossoms," Blanche Johnson gave a piano solo, Mr. Walters sang "For You," and a ladies' quartet, composed of Mrs. Cone, Mrs. Trigg and the Misses Nellie and Leta Trigg sang "The Lost Chord." The music was thoroughly enjoyable. In addition there was an art exhibit which proved very entertaining to those fortunate enough to be present.

Miss Spurck will begin her classes in gymnasium Monday, November 17. Almost twice as many have registered this fall as did last and the prospect is that there will be many more. Those who have been in Miss Spurck's classes know just what her work is and can certify that she can efficiently correct faults resulting from undeveloped muscles. She does her work thoroughly and insists on good form, the most essential point in all gymnastic work. Anyone wishing to visit the classes at any time is very welcome. Mothers are especially urged to come and take an interest in this work, which is so essential in the education and development of the child.

Chancellor and Mrs. McClean received for the new students at the university Saturday night, thus continuing the weekly at-homes which they held last year. The charm of manner of host and hostess made each and all feel at home and at ease, strangers though they were. Hagenow's orchestra made sweet music for accompaniment to merry voices throughout the evening. Chancellor and Mrs. McClean were assisted by the following in receiving and entertaining the large number of new students of the university: Deans Sherman, Bessey; Mrs. Wilson, dean of women; Professor Richards and Mr. Davidson; Mesdames Sherman, Bessey; Misses Barr, Burton,

Ellen Smith; Messrs. H. H. Wilson, Shedd, Dales, Westerman and Crabtree.

Miss Kate L. Joyce was married to Mr. G. F. Fisher on Wednesday at high noon at the home of the bride's parents at 439 south 12th. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few relatives by Rev. J. B. Johnson, formerly of Lincoln but now of Colorado Springs. A luncheon followed, and in the afternoon the young people started on an eastern journey, which will be preceded by a stay of a few days at Omaha. They will return in a week or ten days to receive the congratulations of their friends, a large number of whom are in university circles. Mr. Fisher was a member of the class of '94. Miss Joyce has been a student in the university school of music of late years, and besides being an unusually attractive young lady has been counted a very talented pupil.

Mrs. Charles Hammond gave a progressive euchre party last Saturday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. N. E. Craft of Oakland, Cal. The guests filled ten tables. The party was wholly informal and therefore delightful. The invited were: Misses Laura Houtz, Mable Richards; Mesdames J. B. Wright, C. H. Rudge, Walter Hargreaves, R. E. Moore, Armstrong, Tibbets, W. E. Kirker, Paine, Morris Turner, Tilton, Patrick, Morrill, O. W. Webster, C. C. Burr, L. C. Burr, Hooper, Guthrie, J. A. Marshall, S. Wilson, E. E. Brown, MacClean, Wilson, John Dorgan, D. D. Muir, Weeks, L. C. Richards, J. A. Buckstaff, Wolcott, N. S. Harwood, A. C. Ricketts, W. Q. Bell, J. E. Houtz, Leming, Calvin Thompson, A. W. Jansen, E. P. Ewing, E. Holmes, George Clark, Fawell, Seacrest, Aitken, E. W. Baldwin, Preston, A. G. Billmeyer, F. H. Woods, Ladd, Latta, Yates, R. D. Muir, William Turner, J. E. Hill, J. H. Harley.

Married on Wednesday, October 12th, at high noon in the Second Presbyterian church Miss Estella Dorothy Stire of Lincoln to Mr. Harry Edward Sidles. As the wedding party entered the church Mrs. Stella Livringhouse played Lohengrin. The party was composed of Miss Lona Van Sickle and Miss Dora Burns, ushers, Miss Leona Abbott and Mr. Lealie Stire, maid of honor and best man respectively, and the bride and groom. After the ceremony, pronounced by Doctor Dunning, Mrs. Livringhouse played the Mendelsohn wedding march while the party left the church. The bride's gown was a traveling dress of huckleberry-blue broadcloth trimmed with light blue and lace and a blue and white hat. She carried bride roses. Miss Abbott, of Omaha, who attended her cousin, the bride, wore a handsome street dress of seal brown, trimmed with gold braid. She carried meteor roses. After the ceremony about thirty of the relatives and immediate friends ate breakfast with the bride at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stire on Holdrege street. Among the elegant presents was an heirloom that has been in the family for many years. It was a beautiful white counterpane woven by one of the ancestors of the family at Culpepper, Va., in 1817. It is handed down in the family from one generation to another and was presented by Mrs. Frank Fuller and Captain Heddleston. The bride's ring was also a souvenir, having been the wedding ring of Mrs.
