Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crandall and Mrs. A. G. Davis were at home on Wednesday evening at the home of the latter, to meet Mrs. A. E. Becker of Omaha and Mrs. T. M. Gillespie of Texas. Progressive cards were played. The house was very profusely decorated with roses. A supper was served at the close of the games. The royal prizes were won by Mr. Harry Hall and Mrs. O. M. Thompson. The guests were Messrs and Mesdames Ross Curtice, F. Hallett, Howard Rathburn, Abbott, J. B. Wright, R. M. Turner, Tilton, F. W. Hill, Jones, H. J. Hall, W. C. Davis, A. E. Kennard, Billmeyer, Dorr, Kirby, Thomas, Patrick, Langworthy, W. E. Langworthy, F. A. Brown, J. G. Otapin, Speier, Mrs. T. Davies of Utica, Mesdames A. E. Becker, Holden, C. K. Pitcher, O. M. Thompson, M. Riordan, Robinson; Misses Nellie Gaylord, Ada Curtice, Hallett, Mae Burr; Messrs T. P. Kennard, Ralph Haggard and Fred Cooley.

Miss Jessie Macfarland of Lincoln, Miss Ellen Douglas of St. Joseph and Miss Ella Wirt of Council Bluffs were initiated into the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity on Saturday evening. The ceremony was held at the home of Miss Emily Weeks and it was one to be long remembered for its beauty and impressiveness. After the ceremony they all repaired to the home of Mrs. Will Hardy where an elaborate banquet awaited them. The table was beautifully decorated with the fraternity colors, black and gold, and flowers which were sent by the numerous fraternities. The active members of the fraternity are Misses Edith Swartz, Grace McMillan, Jessica Morgan, Nell Randall, Emily Weeks, El's Harper, Francis Cunningham, Jessie and Jane Macfarland, Selina Wigenhorn, Leola Vancil, Lida Miller, Ruth Wilson, Charlotte Clark, Ella Wirt and Ellen Douglas.

The Kappa Sigma fraternity entertained the foot-ball boys and a few of their friends at a banquet on Tuesday evening. The rooms were decorated especially for the occasion with foot-balls, university and the fraternity colors. The banquet table was spread in the large front room where an elaborate course luncheon was served. C. E. Matson acted as toastmaster, and called upon the following men for toasts: Captain Bill Melford, "The Victories of '98"; "Satan" Erwin, "My Last Touch Down"; Kingsbury, "My Last Touch Down"; Elliott, "The Man Who Gives the Signals"; Lieut. Carl Shuff, "Kappa Sigma in the Army"; John Cochran, "Athletics"; Reeder, "Baseball".

Mr. John Macdonald will be very much missed when he goes east to take up his bank examiner's work. Perhaps no man in the city has more devoted and appreciative friends than this same John Macdonald, who has made them by a never failing courtesy and good will. His business capacity is also just as well recognized, but his geniality and gentleness has made the warm friends referred to. The Union Commercial club and the inner whist circle of which he and Mr. Willard Hammond, who accompanies him, were such brilliant members, will be sadly mutilated by their withdrawal.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. L. Crandall and Mrs. A. G. Davis gave a most enjoyable Kensington in honor of Mrs. A. E. Becker of Omaha and T. M. Gillespie of Texas at the home of Mrs. Crandall. The house was decorated with chrysanthemums. At the close a dainty luncheon was served. The invited guests were Misses Hardy, Howland, Ingels, Hawes, Blair, Elias, Hallett and Davis; Mesdames Shockey, A. M. Davis, Wharton, Hill, Welch, Gillespie, Becker, Spier, Riordan, Stout, Dorris, Blair, Dr. Hill, Benedict, Ransom, Robinson, Kennard, Riiser, Lahr, Latshaw, Richardson, Leese, Scott, Powell, Smith, Eddy, Taylor, Draper, Haynie.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Mr. Charles Sumner Lobengier of Omaha to Miss Ella Ballou Perrine, which was solemnized on November the third at St. Joseph, Missouri. Mr. Lobengier is a very scholarly young lawyer in Omaha. He has many friends in Lincoln whom he acquired during his course at the university who wish him and his bride a long life and a happy one. They will be at home in Omaha after December first.

The active and alumni chapters of Delta Gamma were entertained by Miss Blanche Garten on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Knox of Pittsburg. Miss Garten's guests were Mrs. Frank Woods, Misses Tukey, Cole, Jaynes, Fuller, Welch, Macumber, Jackson, Webster, Polk, Prentiss, Mullon, Davis, Cochran, Johnson, Bridge, Macumber, Hoecker, Miner, McMemmeny and Helen Woods.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell entertained on Wednesday, a few friends at a one o'clock luncheon. The table was very beautifully and profusely decorated with white chrysanthemums and ferns. Those invited were Mesdames McClure of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, Sherwood of Connecticut, Robinson of Chicago; Wright, A. S. Raymond, Yates, Burnham, Lambertson, W. F. Kelley, McLean and E. P. Brown.

Mrs. Horton entertained on Wednesday evening at a seven o'clock dinner. After dinner the guests played progressive euchre. Mr. and Mrs. Baker won the royal prizes and Miss Alice Cowdry and Mr. H. H. Wilson the consolation. Mrs. Horton's guests were Messrs and Mesdames H. H. Wilson, W. B. Hargreaves, Cothroth, Baker, Mrs. Ewing; Miss Cowdry, Mr. Millar and Mr. Mitchell.

The following is clipped from an eastern paper: Mrs. Charles Sprague Lippincott, a pupil of Mme. Lena Doris Devine, enjoys an enviable reputation in Boston, Cincinnati and Lincoln, Neb. She recently sang at the Ladies' Musical club, of Bayonne, and received praise for the beauty of her voice and her art in using it. Mrs. Lippincott will sing in oratorio this winter.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles S. Lippincott will be glad to know that her singing has met with quick appreciation in New York. She has several fine concert engagements for next month. She will be the soloist for the New York Professional club. She is devoting most of her time to music and the reports that reach Lincoln of her success are very pleasing.
