

hop Thursday night. The club is already famed for the exquisite designs used for its programs. A good program was given on the inside of the little red covers which was enjoyed by all those fortunate enough to attend

The Sunday School class of St. Luke's church enjoyed an elaborate Christmas entertainment at the rooms of the rector, Rev. R. N. Turner, on South Tenth street, Thursday evening. The little girls were presented with handsome little dolls and the boys received toy games. Mrs. Nellie Smith, the organist of the church, was the recipient of a new crisp $5 note as a Christmas gift from the Ladies' Guild of the church.

Mrs. Adele Clarke, who so admirably portrays the role of the maiden aunt in "What Happened to Jones" is the mother of the brilliant young star, Harry Corson Clarke. It is not often that mother and son can appear in the same play and it is a most delightful feature of the tour for both.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tilton opened their home to a few friends Tuesday evening and all enjoyed cards. Four tables were at play.
