A beautiful wedding and reception occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Johnson, 2520 R street, Wednesday afternoon and evening of this week. Miss Mary Emily Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, was wedded to Mr. Oren Irwood Axtell, of Avoca. The wedding ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few friends by Rev. L. T. Guild, pastor of Grace M. E. church, assisted by Rev. C. M. Shepherd, of Nebraska City. The bridal party descended the stairway at 4 o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. P. L. Johnson, sister of the bride, and Miss Jeanette M. Bahlman. They carried beautiful bouquets of pink roses. Miss Johnson wore a beautiful blue cloth gown, trimmed in designs of applique in black velvet, outlined in white chenille, and Miss Bahlman wore a handsome gown of blue cloth, trimmed in bands of garnet velvet, ornamented and outlined with narrow shirred ribbon. The bride followed on the arm of the groom and she wore an elegantly made gown of blue broadcloth, trimmed in mink and white silk. She carried bride's roses.

The bride and groom, unattended, took their places before a background of palms in the parlor, and immediately under a drapery of smilax where the ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church was performed. After congratulations, the party sat down to an elegantly served four course luncheon. In the evening a brilliant reception was held, which was attended by a large number of people. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson received at the door and presented the guests to Mr. A. D. Smith, who in turn introduced them to the bride and groom, and later Miss Johnson and Miss Bahlman ushered them into the dining room, where ices and cakes were served. Mrs. A. D. Smith presided at a table profusely decorated with deep pink carnations. Miss Pearl Wycoff and Miss Lou Pebbles assisted in serving. The ladies were pretty in organdie gowns.

Opportunity was offered the guests to inspect the large number of presents arranged in the back parlor. Mr. and Mrs. Axtell left on the 9:25 train for St. Louis, where they will spend a part of their honeymoon. As Mrs. Axtell descended the stairway to leave, she tossed her bouquet and Miss Amber Barnaby caught the ring. Miss Pebbles, the money, and Miss Ella Crawford, the thimble.

Monday afternoon and evening. Under the deft hands of decorators the rooms took on holiday dress and holly and cedar and pine made the rooms look bowers of beauty. Japanese lanterns hung here and there and purple and gold, which are the colors of the association, made the rooms bright with color. At the head of the stairway was a green and white canopy which shaded the ladies who served the guests with delicious ices. The members of the association were assisted in receiving by the officers and members of the Y. M. C. A., which added much to the pleasure of the occasion. A large number of guests arrived during the afternoon and evening and were made perfectly at home. Miss Thompson, general secretary, and Miss Bouton, president of the association, assisted by the following members of the board, received the guests at the top of the main stairway: Mesdames Hall, Hyde, Hyder; Misses Walker, Palmer and Sumner.

Among those who were in the parlor to entertain guests were: Mesdames Loughbridge, Hyde, Houston, Sherman, Hindman, McCreery, Davis, Wallace, Stewart, L. A. Sherman, Wilson, MacLean, McMurtry; Misses Treeman, Grissinger, Don Carlos, Easterday, Sumner and the Misses Robertson.

The following members of the Y. M. C. A. also assisted about the rooms: Messrs. Childs, Humphrey, Gordon, Francis, Gerhart, Yoho, Cone, Kring, General Secretary Dougherty, President Adams and Professor Purviance of Lincoln Normal.

The following young ladies guided such guests as wished to see the house. Misses Hathaway, Fielding, Thayer, Sayre, Marvelly, Gillespie, Francis, Johnson.

Ices were served by the Misses J. F. Stevens, Miss Hartley, Miss Hoagland, Miss Parker, Misses Moore, E. Hedges, B. Hedges, Newton, Howell, Manchester, Hamilton, Ayers.

During the evening the following musical selections were given:
Soprano solo, Mrs. Cotter.

Baritone solo, C. D. Clayton.
Violin solo, Polonaise, op. 7, No. 1, Allen; Will Norton, Accompanist, Mrs. Dr. Ganoung.

The members of the Cheese and Cracker club received New Year's callers Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall. The house was adorned with palms, smilax and carnations, making a pretty background for the handsome toilettes of the women. Crackers tied with dainty ribbons were given as souvenirs of the reception. When the receiving hour was over and the crush was gone the members of the club with a few friends enjoyed a chafing dish supper, cooked by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff, Mrs. C. L. Burr and Mr. Mallalieu. The ladies of the club were assisted in receiving and serving the guests by Miss Rinehart of Lafayette, Ind., Miss McClure of Mt. Pleasant, Ia., Mrs. Dundy of Omaha and Mr. Geo.
