

Sheldon, Kirker, Graham, Getner, Cowdery, Whitmore, Richards, Douglas, Wirt, Morgan, Vancil, Dewese, Macfarland and Macfarland; Messrs Marlay, Reed, Ricketts, Kennard, Saunders, Turpin, Davidson, Paine, Folsom, Sheldon, Whitmore, Whipple, Pound, Mattson, Smith and Smith, C. and W. Clark.

Mrs. C. W. Chambers entertained very delightfully Tuesday afternoon at a bundle party. The house was lighted with lamps and candles with red shades which gave a mellow and pleasing light. In a room decorated with American beauty roses, violets and tiny red hearts. Miss Griffith served tea to the guests as they arrived. Meteor roses and red hearts adorned the parlor and the back parlor had carnations for adornment. Each lady was presented a small heart with 33 numbers on it. A table with a large number of bundles on it was placed where each one of the guests had to tell what the bundles contained by feeling of them. Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Parker guessed the largest number and were given the royal prizes, while Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Webster were consoled with the lesser prizes. An elaborate 5 o'clock luncheon was served where everything was in heart shape. Each of the guests were presented with heart shaped cards as souvenirs. Mrs. Chambers was assisted by Misses Ashman, Dalby, Polk, Chambers, Spears and Spears. The guests were: Mesdames Babcock, Billmeyer, Candy, Cook, Dalby, Grainger, Griffith, Hall, Hindman, Hodgman, Howell, Jones, McCreery, Munger, Parker, Plummer, Polk, Rewick, Scott, Van Brunt, Ward, Webster, Wilkinson, Munger, Pitcher, Patrick, Yates, MacLean, Clark, Reese, Spears, Mohrenstecher, Brown, Link, Preston, Weeser, Saylor, Campbell, Campbell, Richards, Richards, Turner, Turner, Work of Seward, Foss of Crete, and Kespohl of Quincy, Ill.

Miss Rose Carson was initiated into Kappa Alpha Theta last Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Emily Weeks. In the evening the third annual banquet of the sorority was given at the same place. Misses Dement, Bonnell and Bail of Chicago, were guests of honor. Miss Getner was toast mistress and her witty introductions brought forth witty responses. The toasts were, "The girls of '70," Miss Randall; "We, as we were," Miss Weeks; "We, as we are," Miss Harper; "We, as we ought to be," Miss Vancil; "We, as we will be," Miss Douglas; "We, as our alumnae wish us to be," Mrs. Ansley; "Our Seniors," Miss Wiggenghorn; "Two points of view, within, without," Miss Brown; "Myself, the latest," Miss Carson; "One later still," Miss Wirt; "The appendage," Miss Morgan.

Mrs. Tobias Caster entertained a company of ladies very delightfully Wednesday afternoon. The guests were asked to draw the picture of a monkey upon a card and mould from gum a feline quadruped. Mrs. Folsom was finally awarded the prize for moulding, and Mrs. Johnson for drawing. Cards were indulged in by some of the ladies and others played games. The invited guests were Mesdames Steele and Hansen of Fairbury, Mann of Wilbur, Whiting, Hammond, Stonebraker, Ackerman, Folsom, Gund, Scott, Bigler, Gribben, Newbrandt, Johnson, Christie, Humphrey, Bartruff, Field, Lehr, Carter, Hurlbut, Brown; Misses Franck, Crowley, Carter, Elliott and Van Buskirk.

Mrs. Angie F. Newman will start for Manila next week. Any gifts that friends of the soldiers wish to send them she will take free. She goes as an agent sent by the war department at Washington to inspect the hospital service in charge of the White Cross society in the Philippines. The president of the White Cross society accompanies her. Mrs. Newman has been sent on several such missions and has been very successful. She is an ideal voyageur. She particularly requests that the soldier presents be sent to her house early in the week.

Mrs. A. R. Talbot gave two kensingtons this week for her sister, Mrs. Hambleton. Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons she had about thirty guests. The decorations were in honor of good old St. Valentine, and hearts were to be seen everywhere. Meteor roses were used to splendid advantage through the rooms, and the games were concerning hearts. Tuesday afternoon Mesdames Wheeler and Stearns won prizes, and on Wednesday Mesdames Houtz and Garten were winners. Dainty refreshments were served at each party and the guests had a delightful time.

Miss Nellie LaSelle of Beatrice, was initiated into Kappa Kappa Gamma last Saturday morning at the home of Miss Outcalt. In the evening a banquet was enjoyed at the Lincoln hotel. The colors of the sorority were used in decoration with the addition of American beauty roses. The present were Mrs. Wilson; Misses Outcalt, Hargreaves, Raymond, Hayes, Cropsey, Whedon, Holbrook, Hammond, Houtz, Richards, LaSelle, Bradt, Whiting, Lau, and Lau.

Miss Mabel Barrick entertained a delightful company last Saturday evening. Phonographic music served for amusement during the evening and later progressive hearts was played. Miss Armstrong won the most games and Miss Anthony the fewest. The guests were: Misses Edleman, Leese, Biltgen, Wilson, Anthony, Shaeffer, McGreer, Armstrong, Doyle, Howland, Erford, Graham, Watson and Wintersteen of Fremont.

The Phi Gamma Delta fraternity gave a chafing dish party last Saturday evening at the fraternity house on Thirteenth and H street. Cards and dancing furnished amusement for the guests. The chafing dishes were presided over by Mrs. Crancer, Misses Wattles and Barber.

Members of the Haydon Art club find it convenient to pay their annual dues and receive a season ticket for the exhibition which is now being held at the university. Those who neglect this duty are forgetting the object for which they joined the club and the valuable service which this organization has rendered the community. The club assumed the maintenance of the art department in the university and depends upon the exhibition to meet its engagements.

Mrs. Phillips entertained the members of chapter K, P. E. O., Tuesday evening. The yellow and white of the club were used in decoration and progressive hearts was played. The partners were obtained by shooting arrows at valentines placed upon the wall. Mrs. O'Connell and Mrs. Skidmore won royal prizes. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. E. L. Richeson is assisted by Miss Mattie Mundorf in teaching fancy steps, stage dancing, fencing, etc. Children's class, 2 to 4 o'clock, $2 for eight lessons. Richeson's Dancing academy, 141 South Twelfth street.

Mr. Ed. Butler gave a dinner at the the Lincoln hotel Monday evening in honor of George Fleury, his guest from Milwaukee. The dinner was served in the ordinary and every appointment was elegant. Covers were laid for Misses Oakley, Putnam, Burham, Hand; Messrs. Fleury, Raymond, C. Y. Smith, Butler. After the dinner the company occupied a box to hear the Cameron concert.

Miss Ione Melson gave a party Tuesday evening in honor of St. Valentine's day. Guessing games were played and the prizes were won by Miss Wolford Fitzgerald Dry Goods Co.

1023-1029 O St.

Lincoln, Nebr.

Spring is Here and We are Ready for It. A Cordial Invitation is Given to All to Call and Examine the New Spring Goods.

Dress Goods Dep't.

Great care has been taken in selecting the most choice fabrics shown by American and foreign manufacturers. Never before have we shown as large assortment of Crepons, Suitings, Mohairs, Poplins, Silk Warp Novelties, Venetian cloths, Coverts, Cords, Etc. The many ladies who have had the opportunity of seeing our enormous line of dress goods pronounce it the finest shown in the city. Come, look them over while the line is complete and judge for yourself, it will cost you nothing. We will save the early buyers money. That means you.

New Dress Goods.

44 inch Tailor's Suitings, a beautiful new cloth for dresses and tailor-made suits in the new green, new grey, new brown, new blue, new castor, $1.35 a yard.

44 inch Fancy Cord in plain colors, a good servicable cloth in navy blue and new green, $1.25 a yard.

46 inch Silk Warp Novelties, the handsomest line of fancy spring goods ever shown. They are beauties, $1.25 a yard.

52 inch Venetian Suitings, a new plain cloth well finished, in new blue, new brown and New Grey, 98c a yard.

46 inch silk mixed suitings for fancy spring dresses, a large assortment of styles and colors, 98c a yard.

45 inch imported coverts, a real new cloth, in the very newest colors, 98c a yard.

48 inch French Poplins, a good weight and serviceable fabric, a special value, 98c a yard.

46 inch English Coverts, a splendid suiting in blue and green mixed, blue and grey mixed, brown and tan mixed. This is a bargain, 75c a yard.

40 inch Venetian, a handsome satin finished fabric, made from a fine quality of wool. We call your attention to this in particular. Colors, castor, new blue, new blue, new garnet, new brown and new green, 75c a yard.

44 inch English Covert, an all wool cloth at a great bargain. Colors, grey, brown, blue and tan, 49c a yard.

38-inch English Covert, a different style cloth than the above. Colors the same, 49c a yard.

36 inch American Covert with the same effect of an expensive cloth in good new colors, 25c a yard.

NEW SILKS.

We take this way to inform the many ladies that the new fancy silk waist patterns have just arrived and will be shown for the first time Monday. Those that have not learned of our new idea will be pleased to know that we will show a large number of fancy silk waist patterns, no two alike. Remember each piece contains only four yards. Come early Monday morning and get first choice.

ZEPHER GINGHAMS.

Madress and Cords—50 new style patterns, Toil De Nord's Zepher gingham, 10c a yard.
25 pieces 32 inch Madress cloth, 12½c a yard.
25 pieces 32 inch fine Zepher gingham, good quality, 15c a yard.
25 pieces 32 inch fine Zepher, fine Madress Cords, a large assortment of plaids, checks, stripes, plain, 18c a yd.

LINEN DEPARTMENT.

BLACK CREPONS.

The largest assortment now complete, consists of everything that is new and stylish. Do not buy until you see our line. Every yard is a bargain. Prices from 49c to $3.50 a yard.

Best cambric, a yard, 3c.
15½c selicia, a yard, 8½c.
10c cotton canvas, a yard, 5c.
20c all linen canvas, a yard, 15c.
27 inch electric skirting, something entirely new, a yard, 25c.
24 inch hair cloth, American manufacture, a yard, 35c.

DON'T LEAVE THE STORE WITHOUT VISITING OUR LINEN DEPARTMENT.