Social and Personal

On Saturday evening the Delta Gamma fraternity gave their annual banquet and twenty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the national fraternity. The affair was elaborate, and well appointed, and the guests especially enjoyed such an occasion as it brings together many of those old school friends who see very little of each other at other times. Mrs. L. A. Sherman was initiated into the mysteries of the fraternity as an honorary member earlier in the afternoon. The nine course banquet was served in the dining room which was decorated profusely with red and white roses. Miss Alice Wing acted as toast mistress and responses were made by Misses Gregory, Harwood, Welch, Woods, Cole, Polk, Jaynee. Covers were laid for Mesdames Sherman, Woods and King; Misses Bess and Alice Wing, Kelley, Polk, Webster, Gregory, Harwood, Walton, Cole, Tukey, Welch, Jackson, Jaynee, McMenemy, Johnson, Lewis, Davis, Starrett, Rice, Haggard, Miner, Mullen, Haecker, Prentiss, Cochrane, Laura and Nora Bridge, Maud and Gertrude Macomber, Woods and Woods.

The third party of the series of fraternity dances given during Lent was held at Turpin's dancing academy Friday evening of last week. These parties are delightfully informal and highly enjoyable. Those present were the Misses Alexander of Omaha, Walton of Blair, Welch, Cole, Tukey, Richards, Benne t. Wilson, Andrews, Douglas, Jackson, Wattles, Getner, Holbrook, Wirger, Jaynes, Macomber, McMenemy, Loomis, Hazelwood, Johnson, Wirt, Burnham, Minor, Honeywell, Du Teil, Thomas, La Salle, Hoover, Macomber, Houtz; Messrs. Ricketts, Sawyer, Hurlbut, Leibman, Watkins, Morrill, Paine, Teeters, Leibman, Raymond, Raney, Tukey, Hansen, Price, Yates, Sumner, King, Fisher, Mansfield, Sherman, Rainey, Whipple, Lau, Shelden, Hallett, Erwin, Bowebie, Hill, Turpin, McCreary, Killian, Grant, Horne, Sherman, Watkins.

Senator F. M. Currie of Custer County gave a delightful supper to a number of his friends at the Lindell hotel Wednesday. There was plenty of good cheer and good things to eat, after which many witty speeches were made by the guests. Those present were: Governor and Mrs. W. A. Poynter, Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. E. A. Gilbert of York; Senator and Mrs. J. H. Van Dusen of South Omaha; Messrs. and Mesdames Alpha Morgan, Charles Gutterton and J. A. Reneau of Broken Bow; Mr. and Mrs. Mair of Callaway; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Maher of Chadron; Miss Linda Spacht of Sargent; Mr. John Wall of Acadia; Mr. Harry O'Neill of Omaha; Messrs. and Mesdames A. L. Bixby, D. H. Bradley, F. A. Harrison, J. M. Thompson, G. F. Fisher, H. T. Dobbins, H. E. Newbranch, Miss Maud Risser, Messrs. Fritz Kormeyer and Ralph Johnson.

Professor Easterday entertained his class at a musical Saturday afternoon in a very pleasant way. The program in which various members of the class appeared and which was supplemented by Prof. Easterday was much enjoyed by all present. The program was followed by refreshments. The performers and members of the class are: Misses Murry, Hathaway, Barber, Golden, Shatzel, Rivett, Nash, Wolf, Woodworth, Albright, Taylor, Johnson, Pierce, Aukes, Humphery, Dierke, Craig, Emerson, Shank, Holcomb, King and King, Helen and Ruth Easterday; Messrs. Casebeer, Campbell, Murry, Barber, Gabel, Paul, Easterday, Frank and George Wolf.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Hill gave a theatre party Monday evening at the Philharmonic concert. The ladies they entertained were: Mesdames Robbins, Metcalf, Pitcher; Misses Tibbette, Poynter, Cole, Kirker and Hardy. Messrs. and Mesdames J. P. Dorr and Harry Harley, Dr. and Miss Lowery were noticed in one of the boxes. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Judge Irvine occupied a box.

Miss Robinson entertained the East Lincoln Social club Saturday evening very pleasantly. A literary program and the enchanting game of crokinole made the evening pass very quickly. Those present were: Misses Barber, Crosby, Heperlin, Davis, Field, Taylor, Badger, Sickafosse, Trumble; Messrs. Brooks, McMasters, Barrett, Voss, Bell, Hoy, Hoag and Robinson.

Ernest Julian, the handsome young editor of the Dawes County Journal, was in the city this week meeting friends and taking a look at the law makers at the capitol. Mr. Julian is one of the brightest young newspaper men in the state, as a perusal of his paper will evidence. He was for some time in the Black Hills country, where he obtained his experience. He is very popular in society on account of easy manners and graceful address.

Mrs. E. C. Hardy gave a delightful luncheon Saturday at 1 o'clock. Covers were laid for twelve at the table in the dining room. The room was decorated in pink, and lighted with lamps that were shaded with pink. Those at the table were: Misses Ricketts, Mariel Gere, Lindley, Griggs, Whedon, Gregory, Webster, Siveley, Gere and Gere.

On Tuesday evening of every week there is a dance given at the asylum assembly room for the more placid inmates. These parties are well attended often by guests from the city. At the party this week there was a car load of people from the city, among whom were Major and Mrs. Mapee, Mr. and Mrs. McCallan and Miss Davis of Nebraska City. The inmates had the privilege of the floor until 9:30, and after that the guests dance until time for the last car.

The Lindell card club was entertained by Miss Steele Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bartruff on L street. The club was composed originally of the Lindell hotel, but now a few other ladies are members. The evening was spent with cards and refreshments. The ladies present were: Mesdames Underwood, Humphrey, Zahn, Hoover, Bartruff, Hoover, Miss Shute and Mrs. Strickler of Omaha.

Professor and Mrs. Richards entertained a few friends at dinner on Friday evening at their cozy home on North Sixteenth street. After dinner the evening was spent at whist by Messrs. and Mesdames Holm, Teeters, Stevens, Wilson, Hinman and Munger.

Tuesday evening a party of friends of
