Mr. John Dougherty, secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, and Mrs. Dougherty, entertained the members of the Ministerial Association and their wives on Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served on the lawn by the hostess assisted by Misses Cora Hill and Martha Spencer, and the speeches were also made under the blue dome. Rev. L. P. Ludden presided and the following were the subjects and speakers. "The Relation of the Pulpit to the Press," Rev. Byron Beall; "The Relation of the Press to the Pulpit," Rev. W. H. Mansie; "Should a Minister Take a Vacation," Dr. F. S. Stein; "Sensational Preaching; Thou Art the Man," Rev. John Demand, Dr. F. L. Wharton and Rev. R. A. White; "How Can Our Ministerial Association be Made More Helpful?" Rev. L. T. Guild, Rev. John Doane, Rev. Jeffries; "A Good Minister of Jesus Christ," Rev. Mr. Spear. About the time the program ended Mr. Hagenow and his prize band made their appearance and played a short program of music closing with America. A vote of thanks was given Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty and Mr. Hagenow.

The members of the Vine Street Congregational church gave a reception last evening in the church parlors in fare well to Rev. Newell, the pastor, who is soon to leave for another field. The parlors were converted into an attractive drawing room by the aid of sofas, rugs, cushions, lamps and many flowers and palms. The arrangements, which were complete in every detail, were in the hands of the following committee; Mesdames Jones, Stevens, Worrall, Hanson, Wallace, Hastie, Hyder, Dewitt Ruth, McNeerney. As a token of regard the church presented Mr. Newell with "Tennyson's Memoirs" by his son, in two handsomely bound volumes, and a bronze bust of Richard Wagner. The presentation speech was made by Mr. T. D. Worrall. It is with great regret that the members of Mr. Newell's church and his many Lincoln friends say good bye to him. Wherever he goes he will be followed by their good wishes. He will preach his farewell sermon tomorrow.

On Tuesday Mrs. Arthur Ray Edmiston entertained in honor of the Misses Underwood of Dayton, Ohio. Cards in the shape of cats contained a list of cats which the guests were asked to name, "a cat with many tails," "an underground cat," for example. The first and second prizes were pictures of felines pretty enough to belong to Henrietta Ronner's famous collection and were won by Misses Gregory and Garten. The consolation was won by Miss Welch. It was a darling little maltese in an amber lined basket, and its neck was encircled with a ribbon of the same hue. A luncheon was served. Mrs. Edmiston's guests were: Misses Garten, Harwood, Welch, Gregory, Burnham, Odell, Hammond, Conklin, Webster, Edmiston, Underwood and Underwood; Mesdames Metcalf and Morrison.

On Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Miss McAlpine, 2440 O street, the marriage of Miss Nellie Page Laurie to Mr. Byron Crawford was celebrated, Rev. Ward of Omaha performing the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated with roses, and the bridal couple stood under a floral horse shoe. The bride wore an organdie gown of tenderest blue and carried white roses. The wedding march was played by Miss Waldon. Punch was served throughout the evening by Mrs. Callen Thompson, and love knots of ice cream and other dainty refreshments by the hostess assisted by Mesdames Plummer and Grub. The bride has been a resident of Boulder, Colorado, having been a book keeper in the sanitarium there. The groom is a private secretary to President Bland of Union College. Many presents were bestowed upon the bride. A special car conveyed the bride and groom, and guests from Union College to that pleasant suburb where Mr. and Mrs. Crawford will reside. A shower of rice and roses deluged them as they left the house.

Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Loomis, occurred the marriage of Miss Gertrude E. Loomis and Mr. C. Clyde Lowry. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Doane, only near relatives being present. The bride's gown was of white organdie. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and a wedding supper was served. Among the many gifts received was a case of handsome silver knives and forks from the office force and salesmen of the Lincoln paint and color company for which firm the groom is a traveling salesman, and a pretty silver spoon tray from "the girls" at the telephone exchange where the bride has been employed. The wedding guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Bently, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leming, Dr. H. B. Lowry, Miss Ina Lowry, Mr. Bernard Lowry, Mr. J. Bernard Lowry and Mr. Webster Lowry. The newly married couple went to housekeeping immediately at 1628 Poplar street.

Mrs. R. S. Grimes entertained the Kensington Club of the Pythian Sisterhood Friday evening. Progressive games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Harrop, Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. Snyder. Mrs. Hamilton recited, a gramophone entertained, and a supper was served. Mrs. Bentley served punch during the evening. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Bentley, Messrs. and Mesdames J. McFadden, Dobson, Gardner, Scyder, Will Lawlor, J. C. Johnson, J. Harrop, R. S. Grimes, Roy Young, J. D. Parker, D. Heagy, C. L. Eaton, W. Hamilton, A. N. Young, Mesdames McDill, H. P. Stine, J. Gage, J. J. Drake, F. Bostrum, C. Weidman, W. Bentley, H. Descher, C. Douglas, Hoffman; Misses Millie McDill, Adelia Stine, Stella Douglas, Bessie Bentley, Snyder, Swartz, and Master Willie Lawlor.

Father John Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Barret of this city, who was ordained to the Roman Catholic priesthood in Baltimore last week, celebrated his first high mass Thursday morning at St. Theresa's pro cathedral. The event is considered of especial solemnity in that church, and about ten priests were in attendance. Father Barrett was assisted by Father Girard Boll of Crete, Father Bradley and Engelbert Boll. Father Reed was the preacher
