

spent two years in study abroad having been under the tuition of Jediezka of Berlin. She is a temperamental player and brought out especially in the MacDowell pieces, (which by the way make admirable warm weather music) a beautiful singing tone. Miss Hoover and Miss Will Owen Jones contributed to the attractiveness of the impromptu program, which follows: A Ende Vom Lied, Schumann; B. Romance in F sharp, Schumann; C. Woodland Pieces, To a Wild Rose. To a Water Lily, Indian Lodge, MacDowell, Miss Willard.

Fruhlingsrauschen, Linding, Miss Hoover.

Sea Pieces, To the Sea, To a Wandering Iceberg, A. D. 1620, Long, MacDowell, Mrs. Will Owen Jones.

Will o' the Wisp, Jensen, Miss Willard.

D. A. Thomas of Colorado Springs, Colo., who was formerly connected with the law firm of Reese, Gilkeson & Comstock in this city, was married at Lamar, Mo., on June 21. The young lady was Miss Edith Brown. Rev. A. F. Newell, a former pastor of Mr. Thomas, was present as best man. About three years Mr. Thomas left Lincoln to locate in Colorado Springs, where he has won a high place both in business and social circles. In his examination for the Colorado bar he stood first in a large class. He is now clerk in the El Paso county court.

Charles F. McGrew, one of the national bank examiners for Nebraska, has removed his family from Hastings to Lincoln and will make his home at 2525 N street. Mr. McGrew was formerly a state bank examiner. He and D. A. Cline of Minden are now the national examiners for the state. Mr. McGrew will make Lincoln his home because he finds that its railroad facilities enable him to reach any part of the state with ease.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Curtis, Mrs. N. P. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Webster and son, the Misses Maisie and Ethel Ames, J. H. Mallalieu, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Marshall, D. C. Patterson and W. F. Kelley departed for Spirit Lake, Iowa, on Thursday. They will be joined at Omaha by a large party, and several members of the party expect to remain at Spirit Lake for several weeks enjoying a summer outing.

A delighted company of young people spent the afternoon and evening of the Fourth at Meadow Brook lodge, at Mr. Mattson Baldwin's south of town. A brilliant display of pyrotechnics followed a sumptuous supper, and at twelve o'clock the party started for home. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Merrill, Misses Harrison, Hollowbush, Burr, Hoover, Nance, Garten, and Putnam; Messrs. Baldwin, Barber, Meadows, Thatcher, Yates, Smith and Joyce.

A rememberable picnic was given on the evening of the Fourth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates. The supper was served on two long tables spread in the house. Cards on the verandah followed the meal. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Wright, Oakley, Raymond, Ladd, Buckstaff, Everett, W. B. and W. C. Wilson, and Rudy of Sioux City; Mrs. Robinson of Chicago; Messrs. Campbell, Kelley, Harley, Ladd, Wright and Wilson.

Messrs. Harry Shedd and Hugh Edmiston gave a picnic on the Fourth at Lincoln park. Their guests were: Misses Outcalt, Stuart, Cunningham, Harper, Holbrook, Millar, Vancil, Hargreaves and Lansing; Messrs. Edmiston, Shedd, Bartlett, Kormeyer, Cunningham, Clark, Abbott, McCreery and Wigenhorn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boggs entertained the Havana club Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Easton, of Havana, Ill.; cards were played and refreshments served. Those present were, Messrs and Mesdames Easton, C. T. Boggs, Bell, Davis, Pierce, Druse, Dilworth; Misses Caffyn, Boggs, Druse Boggs, Caldwell, Mr. James Bell.

A club composed of Mesdames Hargreaves, Thompson, Wright, Green, Beeson, Tilton, Irvine, Wilson, Buckstaff, Funke, Leonard, and Coffroth, meeting on Wednesday afternoon has adopted the cognomen "The Bohemians" and will henceforth be known by that alluring title.

Mrs. George Risdon gave a trolley party Thursday evening for her niece Miss Eunice de Steiger. The evening was a glorious one for a ride and the young people enjoyed it exceedingly and not less the hours spent at Mrs. Risdon's pretty home after the ride, and the refreshments served by the hostess and Mrs. George Woods. Those present were Misses Raymond, Fawell, Burnham, Hargreaves, Robbino, Baker, Holmes, Harwood, Prentiss, Bennett Wilson, Cox, Rodgers, Messrs Brock Brown, Culbertson, Muir, Fawell, Towson, Hargreaves, Macfarland, Quick, Hurtz, Alcott, Rodgers, Kimball.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rewick gave a six o'clock dinner Saturday evening for the following guests, ex-Governor and Mrs. S. A. Holcomb, Dr. and Mrs. Hindman, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Baker and Mrs. Witter.

Dr. W. W. Hastings left yesterday for Los Angeles, California where he will read a paper before the National Educational Association. Mrs. Hastings and their son accompanied her husband as far as Colorado Springs.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burr entertained informally, Messrs. and Mesdames Marshall, Risdon, and Harrison of St. Joseph. A Dutch lunch was served at nine o'clock.

A picnic at the park followed by an evening at the theatre was enjoyed Saturday by Messrs and Mesdames Hayes, Stonebraker, Lee, Ansley, Rudd, Chas. Keefer and Miss Ashton.

Hugh Hallett and Will King left Monday for Chicago; they will go to Detroit to attend the Christian Convention and go to Cleveland, Buffalo, and Syracuse, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMurtry gave a charming little porch party on the Fourth. Their guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Hall, Kirby, Strode, Mrs. Putnam and Miss Saunders.

Dr. A. R. Mitchell returned this week from Colorado. He says that people were snow balling in Georgetown last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison of St. Joseph, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Risdon, returned to their home on Tuesday.

Uneeda cool quiet place to eat; Don Cameron's Lunch Counter is the place. Tables up stairs. 114-18 South 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ager and family have returned from a vacation of three weeks spent on the shores of a Wisconsin lake.

Captain and Mrs. J. W. Rudy of Loup City have been the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wright.

Miss Adams, a former teacher in the Lincoln high school, has been the guest of Mrs. A. T. Leming this week.

Willard Yates returned on Monday from the east. He has been a student at Union college this year.

S. J. Armstrong of Cedar Rapids, Ia., is visiting his brother of the Armstrong Clothing company.

H M Dunn, dentist; rooms 26-7 Burr blk Mr. Eugene Gatts of Pittsburg, Pa.,

Herpolshheimer & Co.

The Last Week of the July Clearing Sale.

Next week will be positively the last week of this most important mercantile event. Last week's offerings are fast disappearing but we have supplied their places with equally interesting values of which the following are but samples. All departments offer values just as remarkable as these

Domestic Department Specials

- A large lot of Scotch ginghams and madras ranging in price from 25 to 42c during this sale per yard..... 11c
- All our outing flannels, any quality, this sale per yard..... 5c
- Shirting and fancy prints, during this sale, per yard..... 2c
- Suiting for bicycle and tailor made suits to close, this sale HALF OFF.
- Any 36in. percale in the house, this sale per yard..... 9c
- Unbleached muslin, yard wide, this sale per yard..... 3³/₄c
- Sateen and Silkaline, 36in. wide this sale per yard..... 7c

Grocery Clearing

- 400 cans sliced Pineapple, this sale, per can..... 14c
- Burnham's Clam Chowder, limited quantity, per can..... 18c
- 43 cases California Table Peaches, this sale 2 cans for..... 25c
- 400 cans Columbia River Steak Salmon, per can..... 8c
- 300 cans Best Corned Beef, this sale, per can..... 12c
- 1,500 pounds nice Prunes, this sale 6 pounds for..... 25c
- New England Mince Meat, limited quantity, per package..... 8c
- 375 cakes Sweet Chocolate, this sale, per cake..... 4c
- 217 pounds Shepps' Shredded Coconut, per pound..... 15c
- 200 packages Pink and White Gelatine, per package..... 7c
- 300 cans Breakfast Cocoa, this sale, per can..... 9c

Herpolshheimer & Co.

is the guest for the summer, of his sister, Mrs. Risdon.

Dean and Mrs. Edgren will give a farewell reception to Chancellor and Mrs. McLean Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. G. Morrison, her son Willard Smith, and daughter Ella Morrison, are in California.

Kormeyer Plumbing and Heating Co. 215 So. 11th, sell the best and cheapest Electric Fans.

Dentist Hill, over Miller & Paine's.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell and her son Paul, are at Manitou, Colo., for a fortnight.

Mrs. W. A. Prestou entertained on Friday afternoon for the Misses Underwood.

Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe Pound returned from their wedding journey on Thursday.

Milton Schwind who has been in the newspaper business in this city for some time, leaves, next week, for Thedford, Nebr.

Misses Harriet and Charlotte Spaulding went to Chautauqua, N.Y., this week

Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Stein left this week for a month's outing in Northern Minnesota.

Mrs. John B. Wright entertained a small company at luncheon on Tuesday.

Madame J. H. McLean has gone to Minneapolis for an extended visit.

Mrs. J. J. Cox and daughter Mabel, are in Seattle for the summer.

Miss Helen Welch spent this week visiting friends in Omaha.

Misses Margery and Nancy Lambertson are at home.

Mrs. W. H. Manss is visiting her mother in Pola, Ill.

Miss Grace Broady went to Denver this week.