Social and Personal

Society folk have not been entirely idle this week, although no large affairs have been given and activities have been confined largely to the "buds," people of more mature years preferring as a rule to remain quiet, the two exceptions in parties of any size being the reception for Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt, and the party given by Mesdames Hardy and Fessler for Mrs. Ansley. The N. N. T's affair at Mrs. Macfarland's on Wednesday evening was very pretty, and the presence in the city of Senator Thurston's daughters was the opportunity for the gathering of the same "garden of girls" and their attendants for a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Thomas on Thursday evening. East Lincoln young people have had some festal doings and there have been a number of dinners, small picnics and various informal affairs.

Quite the event of the week in social circles was the garden party given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Thomas in compliment to their cousins Misses Grace and Jean Thurston of Omaha. The lawn and piazza were brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns and headlights and the young ladies in their light summer frocks made indeed a pretty sight. Music was furnished by a string quartette for those who cared to dance, and spider webs woven among the trees were found upon unwinding to terminate with favors, those for the young ladies being pretty paper trifles from which, by pulling a cord little caps could be drawn. The favors for the men consisted of horns, whistles and similar articles. The house was fragrant with nasturtiums and sweet peas. Lemonade was served on the porch by Miss Cowdery and a delicious luncheon was served on small tables on the lawn. The oddly shaped and gorgeously colored lanterns threw bright lights over the morning-dew faces of the young girls and lads whose fantastic headdresses made of the German favors made the idyl complete. The street in front of the grounds was filled with the carriages of a fascinated audience, attracted by the beautiful effect of the lights, the youthful, spontaneous laughter and evident enjoyment of the guests. Even those who effect to dislike poetry and all appeals to and celebration of color, light, youth and music, yielded to the fairy spell of a scene like this. Invitations were extended to Misses Margery and Nancy Lambertson, Gladys and Louise Hargreaves, Jessie and Ruth Macfarland, Burnham, Lillibridge, Raymond, Dales, Camp, Meyer, Fawell, Honeywell, White, Bennett, Funke, Weesner, Outcalt, Hunt, Howard; Messrs Macfarland, Muir, Houtz, Wheeler, Dales, Hartley, Marquette, Lau, Tomasa, Fritz and Edwin Funke, Rehlaender, Fawell, Arthur and Ike Raymond, Crandall, Whitman, Stein, Brown, Giffen, Burnham.

A farewell reception was given to Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Leavitt, Tuesday evening at the First Congregational church. Miss Marion Kingsley, president of the ladies' society, assisted in receiving the hundred or more callers. Refreshments were in charge of the young ladies of Mrs. Leavitt's Sabbath school class.

They were Misses Annie Gregg, Blanch Farquar, Frances Crombie, Ida Wood, Charlotte Spurck, and Anna Smith. Mrs. Swan presided at a prettily decorated table from which ices and cakes were served. Mrs. Will Owen Jones played a Gluck-Joseffy number, Miss Jessie Lansing sang "Spring Song" and the "Soldier's Love", Mr. Fred Shepherd made a short address in which he spoke of the regret felt by the people of the church at the coming parting from Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt who go soon to Boston to reside. At the close of his talk Mr. Shepherd presented to Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt a handsome etching, and both responded in words of deep feeling.

Mrs. Henry Hartley has received two very interesting letters from her daughter Miss Mamie who is in Manila with Mrs. Switchenburg the inspector general of the hospital work of the white cross society. They reached Manila May the 23 of May, a typhoon was blowing at the time and they could not land until the following day. The last night on board the transport a hop was given in their honor by the officers of the ship. The next day they went ashore and at the United States custom house met Colonel Colton and other officers. Miss Hartley says Manila is a most splendid old city. Their hotel is a fine building, the room which she occupies is very large, has in it four large pillars and a number of long mirrors. She was surprised upon entering the dining room for the eight o'clock dinner to find the American, English and French ladies present all in evening dress. During the meal the entire company rose and drank to the health of Queen Victoria, it being the good queen's birthday. A ball was given that evening in honor of the anniversary. Miss Hartley says that she is busy from seven in the morning to eleven at night, is happy and in love with Manila which she pronounces "the dearest place I ever saw."

The T. N. N. club gave a dancing party Wednesday evening at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. MacFarland. Miss Willoughby played for the dancers and ices were served between numbers. The broad piazzas made alluring resting places for those who were tired. There were present Misses Outcalt, Funke, Weesner, Meyer, Hunt, Cornell, Bennett, Hargreaves, Muir, Ruth and Jessie Macfarland, Grace and Jean Thurston of Omaha, Rose Lillibridge of Chicago; Messrs Ike and Arthur Raymond, Lau, Stein, Fawell, Giffen, Wheeler; Whitman, Brown, Crandall, Perrin, and Burnham.

Miss Grace M. Black and Mr. George Warren were married Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dennis, 1830 L street. Father Bradley of St Theresa's pro cathedral performed the ceremony, using the beautiful and impressive service of the catholic church. The house was elaborately decorated with flowers and palms. After congratulations elegant refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Warren have gone east and after their return will reside at Eleventh and B streets in a pretty home already prepared for their occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herman of 655 South Eighteenth street entertained a company of friends Friday evening. A
