LITERARY NOTES.

McClure's magazine for October will be a special Dewey number; and in order that it may be abroad to greet the Admiral at his return home from Manila, it will be published on September 27th, three days earlier than the usual time of issue. It will have a special Dewey cover, drawn by C. L. Hinton and C. D. Graves, and beautifully printed in colors. It will open with a fine Dewey protrait, and an article by Governor Theodore Roosevelt, explaining, from the author's personal knowledge as Assistant Secretary of the Navy at the time, how Dewey came to be assigned to command the Asiatic Squad ron and what the Navy Department hoped for him in giving him that command.

Another Dewey feature will be an article by Mr. Joseph L. Stickney, describing the Admiral as Mr. Stickoey eaw him and talked with him almost daily during his recent homeward voyage through the Mediterranean, and giving passages from his conversations regarding the transactions at Mauila. and many other matters of great interest. Mr. Sickney was formerly in the davy himself; he is now a staff cor respondent of the Chicago Record; and he stood beside Dewey on the bridge of the "Olympia" throughout the fight at Manila Bay. He has long enjoyed the Admiral's fullest confidence, and in these conversations the latter expressed himself with great frankness.

Both Governor Roosevelt's and Mr. Stickney's article will be very fully illustrated from recent photographs. The illustrations will comprise portraits of Dewey and all his officers; views of life aboard the "Olympia" during her homeward voyage, and pictures of various interesting scenes connected with the ship and her heroic commander.

In The Century for October announcement will be made of the names of the three winners of the prizes offered for the best poem, essay, and story submitted in competitiou by American college graduates of 1898. Last year all the prizes were won by alumnae of Eastern women's collegee; this year's winners are Westerners, and only one of them is a woman.

The prize poem, entitled, "A Hill-Prayer," is by Miss Marion Warner Wildman of Norwalk, Ohio, B. A., 1898, of the College for Women of Western Recerve University, at Cleveland, Ohio.

entitled, "The Poetry The urize of Blake: As Opinion," is by Mr. Henry Justin Smith of Chicago, B. A., 1898, of the University of Chicago.

"The Art of Buying Food for a Family." by Mary Graham, is an able paper in the September "Cosmopolitan, on the very practical subject of purveying for a household. The writer shows just where the average housekeeper is wasteful, and tells many things that will enable a purveyor to supply her family with variety in food at less cost than that with which she now endeavors to maintain a household with a too frequent accompaniment of complaint and criticism. This "Cosmopolitan" seems to be a household need, for it contains another article in the same vein by Anns Leach in the "Delightful Art of Cooking." It is remarkable what a wealth of information she crowds into a few pages. One longs for meals prepared and served as she snggests. She promises endless variety, just as cheaply too, when one learns to prevent the wastefulness which is the besetting sin in the American kitchen.

SELECTING THE TIME.

"Miss Tommy, which month would you rather be married in, June or September?" asked young Mr. Frisbie.

"I suppose that this is not a proposal Friebie," replied the young lady, "but that you are asking for informs. JAN KANUISU tion, or merely to make conversation."

"For information," "Well, then, Mr. Frisbie, the answer time of year when it is asked."

"How so?"

"If I were asked in Aprilor May, for Perhaps the most interesting item in example, I should reply that I preferred connection with this year's competition to be married in June, but if I were asked in July or August, I should unhesitatingly declare in favor of Sep-

"Then let's be married in September." "Well, it seems a little sudden, Mr. Frisbie, but I know no reason why we should wait."

Thus it was arranged, and then the two went executive session. - The Bezar.

The striking and important events of the last year bave established the overwhelming value of THE THRICE.A. WEEK WOBLD to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wass and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as if it were a caily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines, and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of THE THRICE-A WEEK WORLD is improvement. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.
