On Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents in University Place, Miss Flora E. Smith and Mr. L. B. Stoner were married. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Mae Baldwin. Miss Smith's wedding gown was a beautiful white organdie over white silk made entraine. Her bouquet was of bride roses. A profusion of American beauties, carnations and smilax adorned the house. Miss Smith was a popular teacher in the public schools and Mr. Stoner is in the employ of the Burlington railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Stoner left on the evening train for St. Joseph and eastern points and will be gone two weeks.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. C. I. Jones gave a children's party in honor of the fourteenth birthday of her daughter Annie, at which forty or more young Misses were present. The drawing room was handsomely decorated with American beauties. A luncheon was served by Mrs. Jones assisted by Miss Alice Huntsinger. During the afternoon a photograph of the company, grouped on the piazza, was taken. Dancing was enjoyed and a floral contest was introduced and a prize won by Miss Emma Tyler. Miss Jones received from her father a fine bicycle and many remembrances from her guests. Those present were Misses Hail, Hebar, Haynie, Clark, Hyde, Daweese, Benton, Casebeer, Ronnan, Kitchener, Garoutte, Faulkner, William, L. Gore, Hoover, Hibner, Miror, Perkins, Woodworth, Talbot, Baker, Auld, Rodgers, Hableton, Brace, Tyler, Laws, Perkins, Koener, Burkett, Taylor, Lelf, Huntsinger, Bowers, Bogge, Newmark, Jewell, Foster, Waugh, Dolson, Cunningham, Lyman, Sears and Master Edward Jones.

A social event of especial interest to the Fairbury club took place Tuesday evening October 17th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hansen when their only daughter Gertrude was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Wilfred Daubrava. The marriage ceremony was witnessed only by immediate friends and relatives, but was followed by a large reception. Mrs. Hansen has been identified with the Woman's club from its start, while the daughter has been a most acceptable member, one who could be relied upon to furnish musical numbers when asked to do so. Both Mr. and Mrs. Daubrava are well known in University circles having been students there. The Fairbury club unite in wishing them a long life and a happy one.

Miss Helen Burdick Welch has returned from Kansas City where she attended on Monday afternoon the marriage of Miss Ada Gregg formerly of this city to Mr. Matthew Adam Foster. The wedding was a quiet one only relatives being present but was very elaborate in detail. Hundreds of American beauties combined with ferns and palms were used in decorating the drawing room where the ceremony was performed by Dr. Neal of the First Presbyterian church. Miss Gregg was married in her traveling gown, a handsome brown cloth tailor made with hat to match. Miss Gregg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Gregg former Lincoln residents, and is known and admired by a large circle of friends. Mr. Foster is a member of an old and wealthy family in Kansas City. The wedding presents were very elegant among them a handsomely furnished home by the groom's father. The groom's gift to the bride was a superb diamond brooch. Mr and Mrs. Foster have gone to New York and other eastern cities for an extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods entertained a large company last evening at Walsh's hall. The reception occurred from eight to ten after which dancing to the music of Hagenow's band was enjoyed. The reception room in which Mr. and Mrs. Woods received their guests was decorated with red roses and lighted by red shaded lamps. The hostess wore a handsome toilet of black silk grenadine over white taffeta, with a yoke of white applique. She was assisted in the reception room by Mesdames Cochrane, Ward, Wilson, Baker, Woods, Bowman, Misses Garten and Cochrane each of whom carried American beauties. The refreshment room was done in pink streamers of tulle extending from the corners of the table to the chandelier, from which was suspended a cluster of carnations. Mrs. Mark Woods in a beautiful pink silk gown poured coffee. She was assisted by Misses Woods, Macomber, Haecrer Cole. In the dancing hall old rose was the chosen color for decorations, this shade appearing in the hangings and in the chrysanthemums which softened the lights. In an artistically arranged corner Miss Watkins assisted by Misses Welch, Jackson, Macomber, Mulliken, served punch.

Mrs. George Fawell gave a euchre party yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Evans of Columbus, Nebraska. The house was decorated with American beauties. At the conversation table punch, confections and almonds were served and after cards, a lunch. Mrs. Fawell's guests were: Mesdames Evans, Thomas, Buckstaff, Cowdry, Buckstaff, Ewing, Ludd, Marshall, C. L. Burr, Tilton, Outcalt, Clark, Walter Hargreaves, A. E. Hargreaves, Rudy, Fitzgerald, Howe, Coffroth, Wright, I. M. Raymond, A. S. Raymond, John Dorgan, E. P. Brown, John Fawell, Tefft, Griffith and Green; Miss Cowdry and Miss Alice Cowdry.

Mrs. C. E. Sanderson gave a beautiful reception yesterday from two until five o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Henry Sanderson who has recently come here from St. Louis to reside, and Madame
