COOK'S HAIR TONIC.
We are proud of this preparation. It contains proper ingredients known to be beneficial to the hair and scalp. This hair tonic is not only. It contains no mineral substances. People who have used it tell us that it is better than the much advertised Hair Vigors Hair Foods, etc. We believe it is the best and will return the price if, after a fair trial, you are not satisfied. In 50 cent bottles.

SOCIETY

The principal social events of the week were the Gere-Loomis wedding and reception, and the reception given by Mrs. Welch for Mrs. Curtis. Several small affairs were given for Mrs. Curtis, among them being a smart luncheon. Several dinners were given for Miss Loomis, and others have dined. Fraternity people have been gay, the Delta Gammas eclipsing the others with their large reception last evening, but the informals given by other fraternities have also been delightful. The Matinee Musicale open meeting, the opera and Mr. Eames' recital have engrossed the musicians' time.

Miss Dena Loomis and Mr. Giles H. Gere were married Thursday at five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Loomis, Dr. W. M. Hindman officiating. The march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Charlotte Clark as the bride and groom descended the stairs and took their places before a bank of palms in a bow-window. The bride's gown was a lovely white batiste made entrain and trimmed with yards and yards of machlin lace. The bodice was made of inserting. The bouquet was of bride's roses. The color scheme for the decorations was green and white, the shades being of the former tint, and the flowers white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by about forty relatives and intimate friends a wedding supper in three courses was served at small tables. From seven until nine a large reception was given, the guests being received by Mr. and Mrs. Loomis and Mr. and Mrs. Gere. Ices were served by Miss Jane Macfarland, assisted by Misses Douglas, Wiggenghorn, Harper and Jessie Macfarland, all of whom wore dainty evening costumes. The bride's popularity was attested by the large number of beautiful gifts received, conspicuous among which were many pieces of silver. Miss Loomis has spent nearly all her life in Lincoln and has many friends who value her for her charming character and her accomplishments. Mr. Gere has also many friends here, won during the time when he was a member of the family of his uncle, Mr. C. H. Gere, lived here, and attended the state university. He is now assistant superintendent of the board of public works Hawaii, with his home in Honolulu, where he will take his bride to reside. Mr. and Mrs. Gere will spend a few days in Kansas City, return here for a short time, then spend a week as guests of Mr. Gere's uncle, Dr. Gere, in San Francisco. They will sail the 29th on the steamship Alameda and reach their destination about December 6th. guests from out of town who attended the wedding were Mrs. Lydia Holmes and Miss Norris, mother and sister of the groom, from Table Rock, Misses Sheldon, of Holdredge, and Bonnell, of Chicago.

with pink satin, was on the table and upon this stood a cut glass vase filled with long stemmed American beauties. Feathery ferns were scattered over the table and entwined the chandelier. Mrs. D. A. Campbell poured coffee. She was assisted in serving by Misses Curtis and Daniels. Mrs. Welch was assisted in the drawing room by Mrs. Holm and Mrs. Winger, and Mrs. Lewis Marshall directed the guests to the punch room up stairs. This pretty nook was decorated with red roses, lighted by red candles and presided over by Miss Nelia Cochrane, who wore a handsome red silk gown. She was assisted by Miss Welch. The library was decorated with white chrysanthemums and palms, and was converted into a music room where Hugenow's orchestra played during the afternoon. The day was a perfect one for a reception and the callers appeared in their freshest gowns and stunningest hats.

Mrs. A. M. Davis, Mrs. Alva E. Kennard, Mrs. Walter C. Davis and Mrs. Albert G Davis gave a brilliant reception Saturday afternoon at the home of Mesdames Davis in honor of Mrs. Charles Keith, of Chicago. The spacious house was beautifully decorated throughout. The reception room was in white, white roses over green being used as shades on the chandeliers. The dining room was lovely. An umbrella of pink flowers was suspended over the table and caught with pink streamers to its corners. Mrs. Fred Crosby and Mrs. Irene Thompson, in pink toilettes, presided, assisted by Mrs. Crandall, Misses Putnam, Richards and Hays, all in gowns to match the color scheme of the room. Mrs. R. T. Van Brunt, in a white costume with garnitures of pearls, served ices in a room decorated in white. Her assistants were also in white. They were Mrs. E. C. Merrill and Miss Jessie Lansing. The punch room, decorated in red, was presided over by Misses Resser and Alva Clark. Mrs. Ladd and Miss Lunette Keith greeted the guests in the hall and the honors were done in the drawing room by Mesdames Dorris, Lamb, Jones, Billmeyer, C. I. Jones, Chapin and Wilkinson.

Mrs. M. D. Welch gave a reception Thursday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. E. H. Curtis, of Chicago, and a large number of friends of the honored guest called to welcome her, if only for a short time, to Lincoln. Mrs. Welch's beautiful home was artistically decorated. The drawing room had pink roses, ferns and palms, and pink shades were on the chandeliers. The dining room was beautiful. A center piece of exquisite Mexican drawn work, lined

A delightful chafing dish party was given Saturday evening at the gubernatorial mansion by the Delta Delta Delta fraternity, of which the governor's daughter, Miss Josie Poynter, is a member. Six chafing dishes, in which palatable sweets were prepared, were presided over by Misses Ames, Losch, Miller, Clara Smith, Bonnell and Steele. After games of various kinds and fortune telling, a three course supper was served. The drawing room was decorated with scarlet and cream roses and yellow and white chrysanthemums, the first being the university and the last the fraternity colors. Mr. and Mrs. James Manahan and the following were present: Misses Salls, Auld, Reeves Lumery, Hayward, Brush, Ames, Clara Smith, Koeb, Thompson, Du Tiel, Daisy Bonnell, Winifred Bonnell, Gund, Edna Gund, Koehler, Poynter, Miller, Blanche Loeb, Grace Loeb, Cady, Von Mansafelde, Steele, Lavina Steele, Vore, Dean; Messrs. Henry Crandall, Read, Baumann, Poynter, Smith, Morrison, Williams, Adams, McKillip, Longley, McCreery, Von Mansafelde, Farnsworth, Hedge, Lewis Culver, Wehn, Hyde, Noyes, McDonald, Sanders, Butler, Leon Crandall, Kind.
