THIS WEEK LET THE TIME AND PLACE BE THIS WEEK REMEMBERED.

WE start December by making our first display of Holiday goods and we can assure you that our line of sensible Holiday Goods are worthy of your most careful inspection. We shall offer bargains in these lines of Merchandise, too, for that is our method of getting the big end of the business of Lincoln. Value for value we will sell you the same goods for less money, or better goods for the same money, than any other store. For example, look over our line of House Coats and Bath Robes. Nothing like them has ever been shown in our city. The charming color combinations, and rich trimmings and the handsome fabrics used in these garments make of this line the strongest and best that we have ever seen, while the prices as we name them make each particular garment a buge bargain in itself. We invite those who enjoy up to-da'e neckwear to glance down our 140 feet of showcases containing all the advance styles and latest fade shown. There you will find 20th Century Stripes and Persians Bars-truly gems from the Orientmade up in wide or narrow Four-in-Hands, Puffs or Tecks; over 200 dozen of these beautiful ties will go on sale at 50c. Oxford Mufflers will be a feature of the coming Holiday buying. They are comfortable, convenient and acceptable. We have them in all styles, colors and qualities, starting as low as 25c and as high as $1.50. Another feature that should not be overlooked is the splendid bargains to be had in our Glove department. Gloves and Mittens made by "Dent," Dempster & Place, besides other reliables makes of fine goods. We have them unlined for dress or street wear, but we desire to call special attention to those which are intended for cold weather. They come either fleece, Jersey or silk lined, while some are lined with lambskin with a short fleece left on the inner side. Prices for rightly made Gloves and Mittens vary, of course, as to quality, but our line from 50c to $150 will be found in every way satisfactory and the Armstrong guarantee goes with every pair.

Substantial Gifts—say that we will stake our reputation that there is not a young man in Nebraska that would obhalf dozen Stripe or Plaid Hose, a half dozen E. & W. Cuffe, a bright tie and perhaps a half dozen Linen Handkerchiefs. These are the things that men buy for themselves almost every day in the year and, as a gift, are prized by them far more than trinkets of silver, which at beet are of no practical value, easily lost and more often looked at, laid away and forgotten forever. Our goods are designed for men—it is a part of our business to keep in touch with all the new ideas; every "rakish" fad that appears on the market will be shown in our store or window first.

CLOTHING BARGAINS FOR THIS WEEK.

The clothing bargains for this week will be substantially the same as last week. The only change worthy of mention is a lot of Men's Covert Coats in Oxford grey, a $12.00 value at $8.50. and a small lot of Vicuna Coats in Oxford grey, a $15.00 value at $10.00. All other bargains of last week will hold good this.

We desire to urge upon everyone the necessity of early Xmas buying. Merchandise is far more scarce than money, and when we urge you to make your selections early, we do it without a selfish motive. The selections will be better and the prices will be lower than the same goods can be duplicated for later on.

The Plattsmouth woman's club held an instructive and interesting session Friday evening. The current topics department find new interest each day in the press reports of the Transvaal, and the happenings of the week of public interest were discussed and commented upon by the members of the class. Mr. Root, county attorney of Cass, occupied the latter portion of the evening, giving a most entertaining talk on the "Revolutionary Period." Mr. Root's manner of presentation invested an interesting subject with new interest, attention. The history class is especially fortunate in its leader this year. Lieut. Rawls has secured the promise of lectures every alternate Friday night from the best talent in our state, most of the speakers being professional men who have given historical subjects much saudy. Mr. Rawls himself is an excellent student of history, both ancient and modern. As the weeks go by the interest in club work increases. Our excellent corresponding secretary, Mrs. Kempster, was forced to resign on account of ill-health. Her place has been filled temporarily, but a permanent officer will be put on the executive board next week. Mrs Fellows, the president, and other officers and leaders of departments are doing good work. So far it has been "all work and no play," but we hope to have some recreation before long. The school visiting committee appointed each month by the president is doing its work conscientiously, and its reports are always interesting to club women who have children in the public schools. Good progress is being made in parliamentary law practice and American literature. The next meeting and his I cture was followed with close prepared and stimulating the interest of the members of their departments by requiring all to take some active part.

Ladies of Lincoln interested in culinary art will have the privilege of listening to a series of lectures on the 11th, 12th and 13th of December, by Mrs. Peck, of Chicago, before the domestic science department of the woman's club. These lectures will be free to club members, and none but members will be admitted. The lectures alone are well worth the membership fee of one dollar. The woman's club has provided a series of choice programs for the current year, and wisely decided that they shall be for the edification and entertainment of club members only. Every two weeks a program out of the ordinary is given, for any one of which half of the membership fee is the usual admission. It is the wish of the president that the membership list may reach the four hundred mark before the printing of the year book. Not merely to swell the roll, but the $400 it represents is needed to carry on the work of the many departments of the woman's club.
