

LITERARY NOTES.

A thrilling war story, by Conan Doyle, is one of the features of the December Cosmopolitan. Frank R. Stockton, Maarten Maartens, Olive Schreiner and Edgar Saltus also have stories and sketches in the Christmas number. Olga Nethersole contributes a very interesting sketch of her personal experiences in her efforts to succeed on the stage. Life has not been all sunshine for Miss Nethersole. She made her place battling against tremendous odds, and tells how she succeeded in a way that is at once interesting and inspiring.

A Left-Handed Party.

A hostess often finds difficulty in entertaining her young friends. Here is a novel way to spend an evening which will afford amusement to old and young.

In sending out invitations request each guest to come with his right hand securely bound up. Let no one be excepted.

When the hostess greets them she extends her left hand and begs them to write their names in a blank book on her desk. The page will soon have the appearance of a three-year-old's first attempt to write.

Some soloist may play her own left-handed accompaniments, and an elocutionist recite, making all her gestures with the left hand.

The menu must include something that will demand the use of a spoon to add to the awkwardness of the left-handed community.—New York World.
