

Steiner, Liveringhouse; Misses Heaton, Ricketts, Harley, Fowler, Byam, Pinkerton, Beach, Du Teil, Cook, Smith, Prey; Messrs. Folsom, Jones, Phillips, Smith, Morrison.

Mr. Kier is slowly recovering from the slight stroke of paralysis brought on by the fire in his store last week.

Mr. Fred Cooley spent the holidays in Lincoln.

Mrs. Elias Baker met with an unfortunate accident Wednesday by breaking her ankle. As she was leaving her home she slipped and fell, thereby causing the accident.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Edwin, a son, on Christmas eve.

A number of the members of Kappa Kappa Gamma will entertain informally this evening.

The members of Delta Gamma sorority will entertain informally tonight and Monday night at their house.

Dr. John White is at the head of the chemical department during Professor Nicholson's absence from the state university.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reese, of Colorado Springs, have been visiting friends and relatives during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Reese have a large number of friends in Lincoln who have been glad to see and entertain them.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity entertained informally Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Fleming gave a four-course dinner Christmas night. The parlors and dining room were elaborately decorated in holly, roses and chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for Messrs. and Mesdames Alexander, Greer, Brooks, Wilson, Brooks, Mesdames Brooks, McDill, Shanafelt; Misses Alexander, McCasland, Alexander; Messrs. Alexander and Branthwaite. At the close of the dinner, a fitting present was given to each guest by the hostess. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and music.

Mrs. C. W. Branch gave a party in honor of Master Boyd Tucker Friday afternoon. About twenty young people were present and spent a very enjoyable afternoon, the first half of which was spent in playing bean bag. After a delicious luncheon the children held a grand cake walk, led by music furnished by Mrs. Spofford. Mrs. Stafford is from Kansas City, but formerly lived in Lincoln, where she will always be remembered, not only personally, but for her unusually fine music on the violin. Mrs. Branch was assisted by Mrs. Henry Branch, Mrs. Woods and several teachers from the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dorgan gave a small dinner Friday night.

A number of the members of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity entertained at the fraternity house Wednesday evening.

One of the most enjoyable dances given this winter was given by the members of the Pleasant Hour Club on Monday night at Walsh Hall. The Pleasant Hour Club is one of the oldest clubs in the city and the dance on Monday night was the first of a series of dances to be given this winter. An informal German was given during the latter part of the evening. The guests were: Misses Oakley, Gregory, Putnam, Haecker, Harrison and Cochrane. The members of the club present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Ladd, Watson, Rector, Dorgan, Woods, Merrill and Howe. Mesdames Griffith and Mansfelde. Messrs. Sherman, Gregory, Baldwin, Hayes, Butler, Honeywell, Walsh, Haecker, Funke and Yates.

Miss Fay Marshall entertained the Good Times Euchre Club on Friday evening. Those present were: Messrs.

and Mesdames Woods, Fitzgerald, Dorgan, Howe, Rector, Crancer, Woods, Mullen, Marshall, Curtice, Woo's, Kelley, Hargreave, Wilson, Tilton, Everett, and Muir. Misses Burr, Oakley, Putnam, Harrison and Nance. Messrs. Joyce, Baldwin, Honeywell and Kennard.

Les Bohemiennes were entertained by Mrs. Leonard Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Beeson, of Omaha, a former member of the club, was present.

Miss Maude Owen, the handsome girl from Lincoln, Nebraska, who was so attractive a member of the Castle Square Opera Company, has severed her connection with the organization and returned to her home in Lincoln, having made many friends here during her brief stay, both socially and in musical circles.—The Saturday Evening Herald of Chicago.

The L. A. Kensington is a club of old standing in Lincoln. This year the members decided to give a Christmas tree to some of the poor children of the city. They applied to Dr. Elwood and about a dozen children met with the ladies at the home of Mrs. Patrick on Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was very successful. A large tree stood lighted in the dining room. The girls were given dolls that the ladies had dressed for them, and the boys were given knives. There were toys, fruit, nuts, popcorn and candy for all. After the happy children had returned to their homes, Mrs. Patrick served refreshments to the ladies present and plans were laid for future aid for the children. The members of the club are Mesdames Billmeyer, Chapin, Kennard, Gerhart, Van Brunt, Campbell, Jones, Davis, Wilkinson, Pitcher, Turner, Fawell, Humphrey and Patrick. The honorary members are: Mrs. Wendling and Miss Eulass.

Miss Mabel Lindley gave a very pleasant Kensington on Tuesday afternoon. A Christmas tree stood in one of the parlors and the refreshments partook of the nature of Christmas. The guests were: Mesdames Woods, Sherman, Hardy, Harley, Pound, Kind and Hardy. Misses Ames, Whedon, Rissler, Raymond, Hammond, Ricketts, Broady, Pound, Whiting, Harley, Miller, Hartley and Broady.

Mrs. Munger entertained for Miss Case of Omaha on Wednesday afternoon. An unusually pleasant afternoon was spent in dressing paper dolls and a number of the creations would have caused Worth to blush. Those present were: Mesdames Kennedy, Richards, Hardy, Meisner and Holyoke. Misses Hammond, Gere, Ricketts, Raymond, Whiting, Richards, Hammond, Ames, Whiting, Houtz, Miner, Marley, Woodford, Harper, Worley, Gere, Harper, Polk, Case, Foster, Hill, Chambers, Edgren, Hartley, Cunningham, Hayes, McFarland, Harley, McFarland, Miller and Cunningham.

Miss Ollie and Miss Jessie Best of Red Oak, Iowa, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hutchins.

Mrs. O. W. Webster gave a six-handed euchre party for Mrs. Meisner on Thursday afternoon. The ladies present were: Mesdames Crancer, Munger, Aitken, Hardy, Scott, Hill, Rewick, Fawell, Turner, Moor, Kirker, Woods, Ackerman, Kimball, Raymond, Abbott, Thomas, Winger, Harpham, Holyoke, Bishop, Pound, Kennard, Thompson, LeGore, Brown, Holyoke, Jones, Ashman, Clarke, Curtis, Hammond, Robbins, Simmons, Morrill and Pound. Misses Walsh, Barr, Kirker, Hardy, Aitken, Hammond, Aitken, Pound, Raymond and Tibbets.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark gave a Euchre party for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reese on Wednesday evening. The

THE ANNUAL JANUARY CLEARING SALE

BEGINS HERE ON JANUARY 2.

This sale possesses magnetic power for the shrewd buyer, because it's always an event that presents the most remarkable money-saving opportunities. This particular sale promises to be of paramount importance, for the backwardness of the fall and winter season has left us with a greater amount of winter merchandise than usual and makes it necessary for us to convert a tremendous amount of goods into cash before the annual stock-taking.

Prodigious price-cutting is a never-failing means of disposing of great quantities in a short time, and that is the means we have employed.

The Special Circulars give full Particulars.

Hart's

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.

READERS' ATTENTION!

The Model Dining Hall,

We make a specialty of Sunday dinners.

L. G. HOLIDAY, Prop. 316 So. 12th st., Lincoln, Neb.

Burlington Route

THE HOLIDAY RATES WILL BE ONE FARE FOR THE ROUND TRIP

To all Burlington points west of the Missouri river within 200 miles. Tickets for Christmas will be on sale December 23, 24 and 25. For New Year will be on sale December 30 and 31; also January 1. All tickets will be good for return until January 4, 1900. To points east of the river the rate will be one fare to the river and fare and one-third beyond.

City Ticket Office
Cor. 10 and O sts
Telephone 235

OR

Burlington Depot.
7th bet. P. & Q.
Telephone 25.

HOLIDAY GOODS

—A1—
HALLET'S.

Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Sterling Silver and Silver-Plated Ware, Gold-Headed Canes and Umbrellas, Opera Glasses, Spectacles, Fountain and Gold Pens, etc. A large stock of Sterling Silver and Ebony Novelties. 1143 O, Funke Opera House blk.