An informal party was given by the members of Delta Gamma sorority at the chapel house on New Year's night.

The active members of the sorority were at home for the holidays and a number of the alumnae members decided to entertain a few of their friends. A chafing dish supper was served and a Mother Goose spelling bee was held. The young ladies of the sorority spent the night at the house. Flash light pictures and ghost pictures occupied the greater part of the night.

Mrs. William Green entertained the Bonnes Amies club on Wednesday afternoon. This club is one of the oldest clubs in the city and Mrs. Green's function was a reunion in honor of Mrs. Irwin of Quincy, Illinois, and Miss Hamlin of Chicago. When the club was first organized the meetings had no special object except good times and a special tea in the latter part of the afternoon. Very often the young men joined the young ladies and they would all go in a body to some entertainment in the evening. The ladies present Wednesday afternoon were: Mesdames Green, Dorr, Irwin, Wheeler, Hardy, Stewart and Thomas. Misses Hamlin and Harris.

Mrs. Faulkner and Mrs. Rissler entertained the M. M. M. club on Wednesday afternoon. Whist was played but no prizes were given, the score being kept at each meeting and at the end of the year a very handsome prize will be awarded the lady having won the most games during the season. The members of the club are: Mesdames Rudge, Wolcott, Van Brunt, Chapin, Folsom, Spencer, Seacrest, Warner Jones, LeGore, Finch, Folsom, Gibbs and Cook. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Seacrest and Mrs. Warner.

Mr. Frank Hall entertained the members of the Round Table at a six o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening. The subject for discussion was "The President's Message," and the leader was Mr. I. M. Raymond. Judge Lewis of Frankfort, Kentucky, was the only guest present.

Miss Jane and Miss Jessie Macfarland gave a dancing party at their home on Friday evening. The entire house was decorated in red. Mrs. D. D. Muir served ices in the library. About forty guests were present and spent a very enjoyable evening.

This is an advertisement; read it if you are interested in a better set of teeth than the ordinary rubber plate. Are you pleased with the appearance of pink rubber gum? Do you feel satisfied with the gum section teeth where the joints show? Continuous gum work or an all porcelain plate overcomes this unnatural appearance of the gum. The porcelain plate is the best made for the following reasons: It can be made to look natural even if the gum shows; the entire plate is one piece of porcelain; is clean and agreeable to the mouth, and is equal in strength to any plate made. Porcelain for artificial teeth is fused
