

already has an indirect influence in the legislature, as she was part of the basis of representation. A bright woman with the courage of her convictions quickly replied: "She did not wish any one to represent her; she could represent herself." From seeds thus sown, universal suffrage is only a question of time.

Mrs. F. M. Hall, chairman of the art department of the state federation, went to Crete February 2d, to give her illustrated talk on the congressional library before the Crete federation of women's clubs. She was entertained by Mrs. D. B. Perry in a most charming manner. In the afternoon the federation board was invited to meet Mrs. Hall and a delightful hour was spent discussing the work of the different clubs. There are seven clubs in the federation. In the evening Mrs. Hall was greeted by a good audience which filled the Presbyterian church. The lantern was manipulated by Mr. Morse, the pastor of the church. The slides were excellent, and Mrs. Hall received the closest attention of the audience for an hour as she vividly described this beautiful building. The meeting was in every way a success.

The Woman's Guild of the New York Homeopathic Medical college and hospital has done much good in hospital work in that city. This hospital is some times designated the "flower hospital" by patients expressing a preference for it. Unfortunately the guild, although in its tenth year, has never kept a statistical record of its work. Some idea of it may be gathered, however, from the fact that during the first six years of its existence it raised all the money necessary to cover the entire running expenses of the hospital. Two wealthy women, members of the club, furnished the men's and women's wards, while twelve other rooms were furnished by the remaining members. This association is now preparing to spend the forty days of Lent in making garments for indigent patients, particularly in the maternity ward.

THE OLIVER.

The Black Patti Troubadours, at the Oliver today, is without question one of the best of its kind. The forty artists offer superb support to Black Patti, who ranks among the greatest singers of the age. Their performance includes comedy, burlesque, vaudeville and opera presented with costly costumes and appropriate scenery. All the popular "coon songs" and "buck dances" are introduced and the great operatic olio, in which Black Patti and her glorious voice are important factors, embraces selections from the various standard grand and comic operas. Matinee prices 25 to 50 cents; evening 25 cents to $1.00.

THE FUNKE.

An idyl of the Arkansas hills, "Human Hearts," is a play in which the false and true characters of every day life are vividly depicted. A "gentleman" tramp and a worldly wise boot-black cause no end of fun, and finally both busy chaps land in jail. A capably enacted negro character, dorky-like is so attached to his play-mate master, that he steals to get to be sent there along with him, and they all eventually have an interview with the governor, which is very funny. At the Funke Monday and Tuesday evenings only. Prices 15 to 50 cents.

General Fitzhugh Lee is a prominent and patriotic figure in Lincoln J. Carter's stirring play, "Remember the Maine." Captain Sigsbee and Admiral Dewey act and speak just as they did during the struggle. Mr. Carter suggested the play immediately after the Maine was destroyed, and in consequence it is a dramatized diary of actual events. "Remember the Maine" comes to the Funke Thursday, Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee. Prices 15 to 50 cents.

NOTICE OF PARTITION SALE.

Whereas, on January 3, 1900, the undersigned referees in partition, caused a notice to be made and published for five (5) successive weeks next thereafter in the "Courier," a legal newspaper of Lancaster county, Nebraska, therein giving notice to all persons concerned that on the 8th day of February, 1900, they would sell at public auction in the manner provided by law, to the highest bidder for cash, the real estate herein-after described; and

Whereas, upon the day named for said sale, it appeared to said referees that by reason of the inclemency of the weather, a postponement of said sale should be had and that by such postponement, said lands could be sold to greater advantage than at the time and place fixed; and
