

$1,000 REWARD.

HAND OF GEORGE KELLY, A MINNEAPOLIS MURDERER.

Dr. Alexander J. McIvor-Tyndall, the famous London thought reader and well known authority on palmistry, who is now at the Hotel Lincoln, will give $1,000 to any reader of The Courier who can find an educated, refined and moral person with a hand like that of the murderer's shown above.

McIvor Tyndall is arousing great interest in his wonderful revelations, and hundreds of people have applied for an examination of their hands. Those desiring a perfect forecast of their life, as unerringly told in the lines of the palm, must make arrangements for a reading between the hours of ten in the forenoon to eight in the evening, with McIvor-Tyndall's secretary, at the parlors of the Hotel Lincoln.

Dr. McIvor Tyndall's stay in Lincoln is limited, so call and consult him at once.

SPANISH AND ENGLISH ART.

See—Same authorities as German Art; English Cathedrals, by Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Hogarth, Gainsborough. Turner, Scheffer, Reynolds, Velazquez and Murillo.

The regular meeting of the Self Culture club of St. Paul was held at the home of Mrs. Shaunstrom Friday, February 16th, with eleven members present, notwithstanding it was such a severely cold day. The French history lesson was conducted by Mrs. Cady and all took part. An interesting paper, "What I Saw in a Dream," was read by Miss Robinson. The national song of France, "La Marseillaise," was to have been given by Mrs. Cook, but she was unable to be present. After "current events" had been disposed of, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Fletcher Friday, February 23d.

The ladies of the cemetery improvement department of the woman's club of Juniata will give an "Old Maids' Convention" on Saturday evening, March 17th—St. Patrick's day. The proceeds will go to the cemetery improvement fund.

At a meeting of the Self Culture club of St. Paul, with Mrs. Fletcher, Friday, February 23d, a paper was read by Dr. Grothan on "Physical Effect of Emotion," and Mrs. Fletcher conducted the lesson on "Physical Effect of Thought." Mrs. Smith gave a selection, "In Tune with the Infinite," and the corresponding secretary read a letter from Mrs. Lowder of Iola, Kansas.

A new club, the "Utile et Dulce Society," has been organized in St. Paul, Nebraska.

"They say that George Washington swore occasionally," remarked Bunting. "I don't know why he should swear," remarked Kilduff. "There were no telephones in those days.—Town Topic.
