SOCIETY

The relationship of society to man has been somewhat distant the week past, and its kinship to woman only a bit nearer, but nevertheless nearer for there have been several afternoon affairs that have not only brought pleasure but one nearer to one's friends. In the all-around calm there has been but the waft of one breeze—a University breeze. It began last week with a hop, continued with another this week, and has a glorious prospect in the days to come. New York has followed in the wake of our own disposition, her mood being of the most quiet. The only event of importance has been the Rose Show, which had an honorable list of patronesses with names of ancestral value. There is an attempt in New York to give to this Rose fete the same position it holds in London. Its only superior there in the world of art and fashion being varnishing day at the Royal Academy exhibition. Chicago is taking breath after having dined and feted Mrs. Potter Palmer before her departure for Paris.

Mrs. William B. Ogden entertained on Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Sutton. There was much laughter over the game of the donkey and many were the attempts to reinstate his tail. Mrs. Ogden is famous for her cuisine and Friday but added to her fame. Those invited were: Mesdames L. C. Richards, Muir, Lyon Sheldon, Raymond, Henry Lewis, Outcalt, Jansen, Rodgers, Bailey, Oakley, Rhodes, Jamison, Harris, and Tilton. Misses Price, Harwood and Harris.

Mrs. Wilkinson entertained the L. H. Kensington club on Monday afternoon. Several delightful hours were passed. The members of the club are: Mesdames Kennard, Frank Campbell, William Turner, Jones, Gerhart, Chapin, Humphrey, Van Brunt, Billmeyer, Wilkinson, and Pitcher. Those invited especially for the afternoon were: Mesdames Morris Turner, Forbes and Hay.

The Monday Night Euchre club met on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. George Hibner. Mr. Garroute and Mr. Sine gave a number of songs just at the parting hour, which made those there forget that their years numbered but sixteen. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Garroute, Sine, W. J. Turner, Jewell, Hutchins, L. S. Whiting, Clark, and Doctor and Mrs. Casebeer.

Doctor and Mrs. Wilkinson gave a dinner on Sunday in honor of Governor Shaw of Iowa. In the centre of the table were American beauties, a flower abundantly able to decorate a board graced by the presence of an American statesman. A seven course dinner was served with entrees of wit and humor. The invited guests were: Governor Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, and Mrs. Canfield.

Miss Hartley entertained the Hawthorne club of the High school on Saturday afternoon. The young ladies amused themselves in at making dolls' gowns. It was concluded that Miss Speirs had produced the most ravissant toilette and so in honor of her efforts she was presented with a pair of silver scissors. A three course luncheon was served, the color scheme being pink and green, the Hawthorne colors. Pink roses were on the dining table and pink salad upon a green leaf. Green ices and bon-bons brought cheer and refreshment after the afternoon's occupations.

The Unity club met with Mrs. Weasel on Tuesday. Those successful in receiving the prizes of the evening were: Mrs. Ackerman and Mr. Herzog.

In Omaha, on Tuesday, Mrs. Alfred Millard gave an afternoon in honor of the Daughters of the Revolution. Mrs. Millard's home is one of the most beautiful in Omaha, she having brought lovely and curious things from all over the world. There were many palms and roses and ferns to add fresh beauty to the already beautiful. Mrs. Millard was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Brown. The afternoon began with a short, musical program and then Miss Dutcher spoke of the social side of the Continental Congress at Washington. She told in a very interesting manner of how President McKinley, assisted by Mrs. Manning, the National President-General, gave a reception in the East Room, for the delegates. Also the reception given them by Admiral and Mrs. Dewey at the home of Mrs. Dewey's brother, Mr. J. M. MacLean, and especially of how splendid and charming Mrs. Dewey was in a gown of white satin and of how gorgeous the receiving room was with a chandelier of three rows of electric lights in the Country's colors. Mrs. Hall then spoke of the business session of the congress and the eagerness of the delegates to build an auditorium for holding national sessions and also for departments for trophies of the various wars. Roll call was responded to by quotations from John Adams, and Mrs. A. F. Newman of Lincoln, gave a delightful talk upon her army experiences in Honolulu and the effective co-operation in her work of the Aloha chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution. Aloha has the meaning "I love you" and the members of this chapter are the wives of the cabinet of the Provisional Government, of the government-officers and the members of the royal family. Ices and bon-bons were served.

On Friday evening, March 23rd, Beta Theta Pi gave a very pretty dancing party at Walsh Hall. The orchestra was screened by palms and in the reception rooms there were many roses. The programs were tied with Beta colors. Those chaperoning were: Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Cornell, and Mr. and Mrs. Hershey. The other guests were: Misses Hammond, Holbrook, Bennett, Ricketts, Gahan, Whiting, Jenkins, Richards, Honeywell, Macfarland, Post, Wirt, Morgan, Hammond, Bonnell, Robinson, McPheeley, Woodward, Andrews, Thomas, Burrese, Haskell, Nance and Wilkinson. Messrs. Broady, Williams, Paine, Price, McKillip, Anderson, Ricketts, Blackman, Sims, Selick, Musser, Rehlaender, Buckstaff, Webster, Folsom, Adams, Everett, Barker, Groff, Roth, Bell, Ames and Doctor White.

Les Bohemiennes met with Mrs. Walter Hargreaves on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutter celebrated their tenth anniversary on Tuesday evening. A vast quantity of tin bric-a-brac was presented them, also a handsome oak
