A MEMENTO WORTH KEEPING

Absolutely Free!

Something which everybody prizes—A beautiful

of yourself or friends. Stop at our store and examine specimens. These artistic Medallions come in three styles.

STYLE 1.—The Steel Finish, having the beautiful soft tone and deep effect of the fine steel engraving.

STYLE 2.—The Sepia, the artistic brown so much loved by the old masters.

STYLE 3.—The Water Color, reproducing with marvelous exactness the flesh tint and the natural color of the hair and eyes, as well as the costume.

The last two styles can be had in either the "dull" or "gloss" finish. The Photo Medallions are mounted on non-corrosive celluloid and the portraits are burned in, thus preserving forever the features of those you love. The size is 6 x 6 inches, and we guarantee the likeness to be an exact fac simile of the photograph itself. These Medallions would cost you $5.00 each, other than by our way of obtaining them.

HOW TO OBTAIN THEM-- You buy anything that we sell and you receive a coupon with every purchase. When you have $15.00 worth of these coupons, bring them to our store with the photograph from which you wish the Medallion made, and we will do the rest.

A Play Festival.

Few persons realize the educational value of play. Friday evening at the Senate chamber the members of the Kindergarten Union gave a demonstration of the various kinds of marching and games used in the Kindergarten for the development of the children. While the hour was too late for the small "Kindergartners" the teachers impersonated children for the time being and with all the vivacity of real enjoyment went through the marching, skipping, flying movements. They marched with the precision and accuracy of soldiers. They flew like birds, swam like fishes, pranced, galloped and ran like horses. They sang and acted out songs appropriate to each season and represented trade life, family life and many phases of nature. Finally the spectators were invited to join in some traditional games such as "Drop the handkerchief," and "Here we go round the mulberry bush." Miss Johnson, President of the Union, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon and the principles of the school building received the guests.

Wesleyan Post-Graduate Recital.

The post graduate recital by Florence Edith Forestall, class of 1900, which occurred last Wednesday in the chapel of the Wesleyan University, was a rare musical event. The rooms were well filled with an audience responsive and sympathetic.

Miss Forestall's program was excellently suited to show her versatile talent. Masterly technique, beauty and delicacy of touch and tone coloring was combined with a truly artistic interpretation in Miss Forestall's playing.

She was assisted by Mr F. W. Farmer, soloist, and Miss Alice M. Shepherd, violinist, the latter a brilliant and promising musician. Mr. Farmer's work was artistic, especially in the Ave Maria, where the peculiar sweetness of his voice was enhanced by the organ, cello, piano, violin and harp accompaniment. The concerto for which Miss Smith played the orchestral accompaniment, was very well received.

Following is the program rendered: Po me d'Amour, Henselt. Etude op. 10, No. 12, Chopin. Etude op. 25, No. 9, Chopin. The Erl-King, Schubert-Liszt. Song—"When the Heart is Young," Buck; Mr. Farmer.

Concerts op. 11, E minor, Chopin; a. Larghetto. b. Rondo, Allegro Vivace. Orchestral part played on second piano by Miss Mary A. Smith.

Duo—Violin and piano. Tannhauser, Wagner; Misses Shepard and Smith.

To Spring, op. 42, Greig. Rhapsodie, op. 41 (study of octaves), Dreyshock.

Song—"Ave Maria (Cavalleria Rusticana), Mascagni; violin, cello, harp, piano and organ accompaniment; Mr. Farmer.

If I were a Bird, Henselt. Polonaise E Major, Liszt.
