

was a great bowl of white carnations in the centre of the table. Covers were laid for twelve. Those present besides the guests of honor were: Messrs. and Mesdame Sheldon Raymond, H. P. Eames, F. M. Blish, Miss Hoover and Mr. Randolph.

Mr. Bennett and Miss Bennett, the father and sister of Mrs. Frank W. Brown, are her guests this week.

Les Bohemiennes met with Mrs. Lew Marshall on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Sheldon Raymond invited a few people on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Morrill, the organist. A very happy, informal afternoon was passed. A two course luncheon was served.

Miss Gellately of Fairbury, is the guest of Miss Whiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Levering have taken Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden's house for two months.

Mr. M. D. Welch entertained the members of the Round Table on Monday evening. A dinner was served at half past six o'clock. Afterwards the discussion of the evening took place.

Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden will leave the middle of May for a two month's trip in the east.

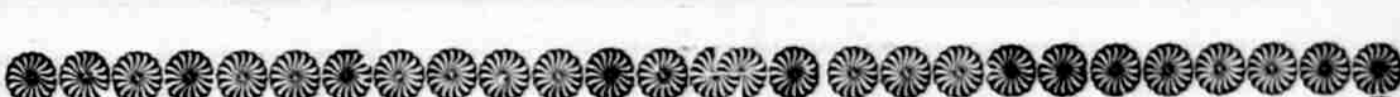

Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden gave a chafing dish party on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Levering who have recently moved here from Denver. La France roses were here and there and everywhere. There were tables of cribbage, whist and keno. A supper was served and chicken terrapin was the result of the chafing dish art. A number of entrees were also served. Later there was music, which added to the completeness of the evening's pleasure. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Levering, Tilton, Buckstaff, Carl Funke, Marshall, Walter Hargreaves, Wright, Campbell, Rodgers, Ladd, W. C. Wilson, W. B. Watson, Judge and Mrs. Irvine, Mrs. Stebbins, Mrs. Scott, and Mr. MacIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. James Yates are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. Yates entertained at dinner on Friday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Yates of Kansas City.

The recent birthday of a little girl, who celebrates the anniversary in early April, was made the occasion of a pussy-willow fete. The invitations were decorated with the furry blooms and asked each guest to "come to my pussy-willow party." When they arrived the children found the parlors trimmed with pussy willows, vases, pitchers and bowls filled with them standing about everywhere. Pinned against the wall at one end of the room was a sheet upon which was sketched a large pussy-willow stalk. Paper catkins were distributed among the children, who tried, blindfolded, to pin them on the stalk. Prizes of Easter favors were given according to the success of the contestants. The supper table was decorated with more pussy-willows, tiny rabbits were at every place, and around the centre piece of pussy-willows was a circle of larger rabbits, the necks decorated with frills of yellow paper. A hunt for Easter eggs closed the little festival, after supper, with more simple Easter trifles as prizes.

Mrs. C. C. Wilson entertained on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the seventy-eighth birthday of her husband's mother, Mrs. Wilson. Madame Wilson was remembered with a number of pretty gifts, among them was a quantity of flowers. At half past five o'clock the guests sat down to the dining table, where a birthday feast was served. There was a cake in honor of the day and each guest blew out a can-

ONE FARE FOR THE ROUND TRIP

On account of the Big May Day Celebration to be held here on May 1st, all railroads coming into Lincoln have made a special rate of ONE FARE FOR THE ROUND TRIP, good from May 1st to return May 4th, and good from any point to Lincoln and return.

A GREAT REORGANIZATION SALE

BEGINS HERE ON TUESDAY, MAY 21, 1900.

From a co-partnership this firm has become a stock company, and to promptly and satisfactorily adjust matters and thoroughly organize the new concern, it is necessary that WE RAISE $50,000 CASH, and raise it quickly. We'll do it as we've done it before—that is, by placing merchandise of the indispensable, most wanted and most seasonable kind on the market at prices that can't fail to convert it into cash in a hurry. We'll have to sell a considerable lot more than $50,000 worth of goods to realize that much cash, because present market values are not considered in this price reducing. Our object is to realize $50,000 in cash as soon as possible, and the profit and real worth are foreign elements.

OUT-OF-TOWN PEOPLE, PLEASE NOTICE

Mail orders will be fill on advertised goods from May 1st to May 5th; after latter date we can't guarantee to supply such values at such prices.

IT WILL PAY YOU

To take advantage of the special rate and come to Lincoln for this event. The money you'll save will easily pay your railroad fare and still leave you a balance.

SEND FOR SPECIAL PRICE LIST--ITS FREE

Herpol & Heimerl Co.

LINCOLN, NEBR.

dle and made a wish. Much mirth there was in the carrying out of this birthday tradition. The invited guests were: Mesdames Marsland, Lender, Claus, Searle, Rhinehardt, Towne, Wallace, Burke, Taylor, Limebaugh, Loveland and Binder.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, Selden Rodgers and Alice Rodgers, leave today for Manitou where they expect to remain during the summer months. Their friends and acquaintances sincerely hope that they may again return as residents to Lincoln.

The W. T. M. and their husbands, will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Masters this evening. The evening is to be spent in playing progressive crokinole. A charming musical program has also been prepared. The Arian quartette will sing and Mr. Matthews is to bring his pianola. The decorations will be in pink and white, and apple blossoms are to be much used. The invited guests are: Messrs. and Mesdames Crow, Traphagen, Compton, Hess, Gentzler, Weidner, Burr, Case, Schmutz, Edmunds, White, Bartlett, Sherdeman, Evans, Edelman, Holben, Scott, Deck, Kine, Hood, Mathews, Coleman, Boney, Mickey, Mrs. Everett and Miss Barrick.

Mrs. A. S. Raymond invited a few people on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Morrill, the organist. The afternoon passed delightfully. A delicious luncheon was served at five o'clock.

First Church of Christ (Scientist), Fourteenth and K streets. Arthur C. Ziemer, C. S. First Reader. Sunday morning services at 10:30; subject, "Adam and Fallen Man." The sermon consists of the reading of selections from the Bible and the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health, With Key to the Scriptures." Wednesday evening meeting at eight. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Rudolph Rehlaender gave a luncheon at one o'clock on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Strickler and Mrs. Wilson of Omaha. The invited guests were: Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Strickler, Mrs. A. L. Hoover, Mrs. S. C. Hoover, Mrs. Bignell, Mrs. Usher and Mrs. Elias Baker.

The W. T. M. met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. White, 638 North Twenty-fifth street.

The Unity club gave a card party and dance at Courier Hall on Monday evening. It was the farewell meeting of its kind for this year. During the warm months the club will indulge in various kinds of outings. The card prizes were etchings won by Miss Kellner and Mr. Charles Mayer. About

