

LINCOLN'S GLORIOUS CELEBRATION MAY 1

Will be attended by thousands of out-of-town people. It will certainly be worth coming hundreds of miles to witness and in consequence the railroads entering Lincoln have generously granted

A ONE FARE RATE for the ROUND TRIP

We are celebrating the occasion with a Gigantic, Colossal Bargain-Giving Sale. Prices have been paralyzed for this week's offering, and you'll miss it if you don't attend.

If you can't possibly get here send in your mail orders. Same shall be promptly filled while lots last.

Important Purchase of

New Eton Suits, Jackets, Skirts and Shirtwaists

Rare bargains in suits to be found here Monday—2 special prices that will appeal to your judgment,

Ladies Suits, made from fine Covert Cloths, jacket and skirt, cut in the latest style, best of linings and bindings, nicely finished: colors tan and gray—68 suits in the lot.....$7.98

Sample line of Suits received last week from New York, all beautiful garments, appliqued in Taffeta. Jacket short Eton effect, silk lined, flare collar, latest cuttings, elegantly finished.....$15.00

If you wish something exceedingly swell in ready-to-wear Tailored Suit, we have them at $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00.

Separate Jackets—New and complete lines in tans and blacks, $4.98 to $10.00.

ARTISTIG MILLINERY HERE.

Monday we place on sale 3 lines of beautifully Trimmed Pattern Hats in all the newest shapes and effects. We ask you to see them.

$2.98    $4.98.    $6.50.

Exceedingly low prices have been placed on all of our high Novelty Pattern Hats for Monday's sale.

You'll find it to your advantage to purchase your Children's Hats or Sailors this week. Tam O'Shanter Crowns and Fancy Braids—everything that is new, in fact. Of Flowers we have an abundance and our prices are abundantly low, too. Violets worth 20c a bunch go Monday for 10c. Violets worth 10c go for 5c per bunch. Remember we charge you nothing for trimming done here.

FitzGerald
DRY GOODS CO.

FREE-- Beautiful Photo Medallion Free. With every 10c cash purchase you receive a coupon. When you have $15.00 worth, bring them to us with the photograph you wish reproduced and in a few days you will receive the Medallion without costing you one cent.

FitzGerald
DRY GOODS CO.

eleven o'clock the dancing began. The evening was one of much pleasure to all there. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Weil, Charles Mayer, Newmark, Henry Mayer, Schlesinger, Ackerman and Wessel. Mrs. Aach of Burr Oak. Misses Mayer, Friend, Kellner, Schlesinger, Sarbach, Schlesinger, Kellner, Stricker, Steinberg of New York, Dolly Polack and Kittie Polack of Omaha. Messrs. Steinberg of New York, S. D. Mayer of Norfolk, Sam Speir of Beatrice, and Justin Sarbach of Fairbury.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates gave a dinner on Thursday. The house and the table were prettily decorated with many of the out door blossoms that make this season of the year so attractive. Covers were laid for fourteen.

Married, at Schuyler, Nebraska, on Wednesday, April twenty-fifth, at the home of the bride, Miss Mildred Burkett, to Mr. Mode F. Griffith, of Lincoln. The Episcopal ceremony was performed under a canopy of smilax in front of palma, by the Rector D. C. Pattee. The bride wore a traveling gown of grey chevict trimmed with an applique of silk and white satin. Mr. J. A. Bailey of Lincoln, was the best man.

Miss Alma Woods of Schuyler, played the wedding march. Thirty guests breakfasted with the bride and groom before they left for their new home near Silve Creek, Nebraska, at Cedar Grove ranch. The guests were: Professor and Mrs. G. F. Burkett, Mr. and Mrs. Pattee, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cannon, Mrs. L. M. Walker, Miss Katherine Woods, Miss Gertrude Wright, Miss Alma Woods, Miss Stella Schultz, Miss Florence Burkett, Mr. C. M. Sutherland and Mr. Ralph Burkett, of Schuyler. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reese of Cripple Creek, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Atwood of Milford, Honorable and Mrs. D. C. McKillip of Seward, Miss Irma Martindale of Niobrara, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Griffith, Mr. James A. Bailey, Jr., Professor Schuyler Miller and Miss Mattie Goodell of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Auld entertained the members of the E. E. D. Kensington club and their husbands last evening. The guests came in masquerade costume, each guest representing a character famous from some point of view. Every one was presented with a numbered card and the evening's quest was not only to guess the character portrayed but also the individual who represented the character. There was instrumental music by Miss Auld, and her sister gave several solos on the viola. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Mosher, Hayden, Yoho, Ernest, Hass, Grainger, Dewitt, Townsend, Naylor, Macguire, Miltonberger, Hyde, Whiting, Campbell, Edmund Baldwin, Gaylord Baldwin, Dobson and Coogrove. Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Zehrung, and Mrs. Hass. Misses Ernest, Hass, Naylor, Macguire, Curtice, and Coogrove. Messrs. Curtice, Shepherd, Whiting and Zehrung.

The Century club met with Mrs. Davison on Tuesday. Mrs. Howell had the afternoon's subject, "What has Holland done for the World in Agriculture, Charitable and Reformatory Work?"

Mrs. Ward Richardson gives a Kensington to about fifty women this afternoon. The main theme in the afternoon's entertainment is to see who can make the best button hole in five minutes.

The New Book Review club gave its annual dinner on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Usher. The table was charmingly arranged, pink, the chic color, being profusely used. There were festoons of smilax from the chandelier to the table corners, and pink candles radiated a fairy glow over the board and its guests. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Rudolph Reblaender, L. C. Hoover, J. H. Stevens, F. W. Barth-ruff, Nelson, and Elias Baker. Mrs. Widener, Mrs. Penney, Mrs. H. W. Kelley, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Struckler of Omaha. Miss Howland, Mr. Stonbraker and Mr. Howland. After the dinner cards and dancing were enjoyed for several hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell and little daughter, of Cherokee, Kansas, were the guests of Mrs. H. B. Dudgeon for a few days this week. They left on Thursday for Newman Grove, Nebraska.

Mr. I. S. Richards is enjoying the spring weather, after being confined to his bed for many weeks with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Ticket holders for the Promenade concert and ball by Hagenow's band and orchestra on Tuesday, May first, at the Auditorium, will be admitted at the north entrance, on M street.

The Lotos club met with Mrs. S. H. Burnhan on Thursday afternoon. The program was a delightful musicale