federated since last biennial.

These reports will be published in the official proceedings of the biennial.

Sincerely yours,
REBECCA D. LOWE.

The first announcement of the program of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, to be held in Milwaukee in June, is made this week. Several items of the program will be of special interest, as, for instance, the report of the reorganization committee Tuesday afternoon, which sounds harmless, and yet really means that the federation as it now stands may go to pieces, and organize on another basis. And upon this matter hangs the result of the election of officers, which will be as interesting this year as it was at Denver two years ago.

Altogether with the 5,000 women expected, and list of speakers, nearly all of whom are known as clever women, the gathering promises to be the most notable ever held in the United States. The program as it now stands:

Monday morning, June 4. Club room, Plankinton. Meeting board of directors, 9. Athenaeum, meeting council, 11. Topic for discussion: "Co operation Between Club Women and Wage-Earning Women." "Reorganization of the General Federation."

Afternoon—Athenaeum, open meeting, 3. Mrs. Sarah S. Platt Decker, Denver, chairman. Reports of state presidents and state chairmen of correspondence.

The Deutscher club, where the garden fete will be held, is the palatial home of the late United States Senator John Mitchell, and is an immense house with a great ball room and spacious grounds. These will be brilliantly illuminated, and there will be an orchestra concert on the balcony.

The Athenaeum, where the Tuesday afternoon reception will be held, is a charming and artistic building near the lake—known to most club women as the first building in the United States to be erected by a board of women for women. Among those who will take part in the biennial program are the following: Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Pasadena, Cal.; Mrs. Keetler, Denver; Miss Alice French (Octave Thanet), Davenport, Ia.; Mrs. Kate Upson Clark, Brooklyn; Mrs. Mabel Loomis Todd, Amherst, Mass.; Mrs. Frederick Nathan, New York city; Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Stetson, Chicago; Mrs. Hamlin Garland, Chicago; Dr. George Kriehn, Chicago.

On Tuesday afternoon, April 24, at three o'clock, the Omaha Woman's club met in most interesting session to celebrate the seventh anniversary of its existence. Even the elements conspired to render it an auspicious occasion, for the clouds which had hung heavy so long broke away and the sun shone forth for a time. The president, Mrs. Draper Smith, called the meeting to order and invited Mrs. Savage, the first vice president, and Mrs. Towne, the second vice president, to the platform. Their appearance was the signal for the Chatauqua salute, and hundreds of handkerchiefs waved a welcome to the first
